GERMANS REGAINING DOUAUMONT FOOTHOLDS

Men Sacrificed Without Stint in Desperate Effort to Win Back Lost Work of Months

STRATEGIC POINTS PILED WITH DEAD

Eighty Thousand Teutons Hurled Against Dead Man Hill Time and Again; No Result

PARIS, May 24.—German troops have penetrated the village of Cumieres, nine miles northwest of Verdun, after a series of terrific onslaughts against the French front west of the river Meuse, the war office admitted today. The Germans also succeeded in taking a trench west of Cumieres and gaining footholds in a few sections of trenches east of Fort Douaumont. At all other points their most violent attacks on both banks of the river and also in the Champagne region were defeated.

The battle around Verdun continues to rage with a violence unexampled even in this region. The Germans are striving with every resource in their power to capture Hill No. 304 and Dead Man Hill on the left bank of the Meuse and to win back the famous fort Douaumont on the right bank, which was wrested from them by General Nivelle's brilliantly planned and executed offensive.

Without full possession of the line from Pepper Hill to Vaux fort the Germans cannot hope to get any nearer to the capture of Verdun. Even if they succeeded in taking this line they could not hold it unless they were also in possession of Hill No. 304 and Dead Man Hill, which outflank the line.

COMMANDER DESPERATE.

Driven to desperation by seeing so much of his work undone, the German commander has hurled attack after attack against Fort Douaumont. At the same time he has kept up his onslaught on the left bank of the river to prevent the French transferring any forces to the main scene of attack.

Eighty thousand Germans were sent crashing into French positions on Dead Man Hill, while two Teuton brigades rushed repeatedly during the night at the soldiers of the republic holding Douaumont. Every assault was a failure.

Fighting in the Douaumont ruins attained its greatest intensity at noon yesterday.

Germans covered all French trenches from Thiaumont to Douaumont with a steady artillery fire. Behind great columns of dust, the gray German lines swept toward the French works. French machine guns sprayed the charging ranks, but still the waves of spiked helmets came on and swarmed over the western and northwestern edges of Douaumont.

MAN AGAINST MAN.

Here a bloody struggle began. Man fought against man, clinging to steep parapets, climbing through narrow alleys and slashing through dense entanglements of barbed wire. Bayonets and hand grenades became useless, so closely were the fighting troopers wedged together. Shoved forward by the press of comrades at their backs the Germans battled with fists and stabbed with knives.

When one such assault was defeated by the French and its survivors ejected from the works another was started. Throughout the day the Germans attacked repeatedly. There was no change when night came. The loss at this point in the first two days of the desperate fighting is estimated at 10,000 killed.

COST IS FEARFUL.

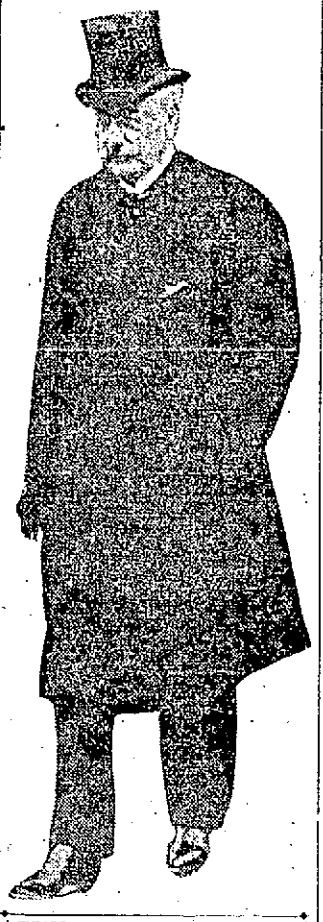

All day yesterday the tide of war ebbed and flowed, inches of ground being won and lost at an appalling cost in men. Again and again, after reducing trenches to a crumbling heap of ruins by artillery shells, the German infantry dashed forward, only to be caught and swept away by a hurricane of curtain fire from the French batteries and machine guns.

The conditions of the present war have transformed the traditional furious courage of the French soldiers into an immovable stoicism. Men have stood their ground in a situation which it seemed beyond human nature to support. Describing the battle around Fort Douaumont one combatant said:

"For four miles behind us there was not a trench or a communication, nothing but holes one after another. Every inch of the ground was plowed up by an expenditure of ammunition which is inconceivable. In holes made by 15-inch shells you could stable fifteen horses easily. The few trees still standing have been stripped of their branches and look like telegraph poles. It is the abomination of desolation. Not a second do the guns cease roaring or men cease falling. As soon as a trench is made the shells begin to drop and the survivors have to begin all over again. Attacks have become almost impossible because in the terrific tornado of artillery fire the infantry

VON BUELOW MAY COME AS AMBASSADOR

PRINCE VON BUELOW, WHO MAY BECOME GERMAN IMPERIAL AMBASSADOR TO THE UNITED STATES.

German Statesman in Line for Appointment to U. S.

LONDON, May 24.—The Exchange Telegraph Company says it learns from diplomatic circles that Prince Von Buelow, former German chancellor, is proceeding to Washington, charged by Emperor William with a special mission.

Prince Von Buelow is to become ambassador to Washington, the Exchange Telegraph stated. The report also said the German diplomatic corps would be rearranged.

The statement made by the Exchange Telegraph was not corroborated from other sources, although Ambassador Von Bernstorff's recall has been repeatedly rumored. Assuming the report to be true, it is taken to mean that Germany expects a move for early peace. Prince Von Buelow is connected with peace moves, especially as he was recently in Switzerland. A year ago he tried to prevent Italy from joining the entente allies.

HAS HELD ALOOF.

Swiss reports have said that Von Buelow, at the kaiser's request, held aloof from governmental affairs in order that he might be free of entanglements in the peace negotiations. He is considered the foremost European diplomat.

Prince von Buelow, one of the foremost statesmen of Europe, has been referred to frequently in the last few months as the man who might be selected by Emperor William to conduct preliminary peace negotiations should they be undertaken.

Late in 1914 the former chancellor was sent to Rome by the Emperor and succeeded in delaying Italy's declaration of war on Austria. He is credited also with having prevented war between Germany and Italy. From time to time it has been reported that the Prince was engaged in peace negotiations, but so far as has been ascertained these rumors were without foundation.

WASHINGTON SKEPTICAL.

WASHINGTON, May 24.—State department officials were frankly skeptical of the accuracy of the report that Prince Von Buelow was coming to Washington on a special mission from Emperor William. They have received no official or unofficial intimation that such a visit was in prospect.

A high official pointed out that the report originated in London, which to his mind cast doubt upon its truth, since it was certain to be widely discussed as a possible peace overture from Germany.

The possibility that the former chancellor would supplant Count Von Bernstorff as ambassador here also was doubted. Ambassador Von Bernstorff's diplomatic achievements through the submarine controversy, it was stated, seemed to make it certain that he would be left undisturbed by his government.

Should Prince Von Buelow arrive in Washington on a special mission, officials thought it likely his task would be somewhat similar to that assigned to Colonel E. M. House when he visited European capitals at President Wilson's request. It was suggested that Prince Von Buelow might seek direct information as to the administration's views upon American neutrality, activity of Germans in conspiracies in this country and the sale of munitions to the allies. No official would hazard speculation regarding the probable attitude of the President if Prince Von Buelow should arrive upon a peace mission.

MEXICANS ORGANIZING AGAINST U. S.

Funston Instructed to Prepare to Resist Invasion

Washington Does Not Expect Arbitrary Demand to Quit

WASHINGTON, May 24.—General Funston today wired Secretary of War Baker saying he had heard rumors that Mexican natives in Madera had been instructed to rise against the Americans.

A later despatch from Special Agent Rodgers said the new Carranza note should reach Eliseo Arredondo, Mexican ambassador designate here next Monday. State Department advices that considerable Mexican forces were being moved northward were transmitted today to General Funston.

Carranza troops are in pursuit of bandits east of General Pershing's position in Northern Chihuahua, War Department advices indicate, evidently en route for the district of the Big Bend district of Texas. General Funston advised the department today of a rumor that natives of Madera were incited against the Americans and told to get ready to resist an invasion.

COLUMBUS, N. M., May 24.—General Pershing today is sending scouting expeditions south of his advanced base in Mexico, in pursuit of Villista bands who are openly recruiting in the very wake of the retiring American expedition.

Peons are being conscripted into the bandit ranks on promise of receiving large rewards of loot, under the assurance that Francisco Villa himself is coming to lead them.

Villa is said to have been located west of Parral. This is doubted.

WASHINGTON, May 24.—It is not expected here that the new note from Provisional President Carranza, in transit today by messenger, will make flat demands for withdrawal of American troops from Mexico, but it is expected to contain urgent suggestions that such a withdrawal is expected. It is likely to show resentment at the despatch of a second American expedition across the border.

Carranza is expected to urge that the United States troops are not needed any longer as he has raised a large army for patrol duty. If he can convince the war department that this is true, the withdrawal probably will be automatic.

So far the department is not convinced. Carranza is believed so friendly that he will not press demands which might become troublesome.

No request for financial aid has been received from Mexico. The American government is unable to make loans directly, although it might stand sponsor for other loans.

French Indo-China Witnesses Rebellion

SAN FRANCISCO, May 24.—Reports in Honolulu and Manila say that a French officer, a native officer and a few soldiers were killed in an uprising at Saigon, French indo China, according to travelers who are here today after crossing the Pacific on the steamer Wilhelmina. The accounts of the alleged trouble are vague. One version has it that forty rebels were slain in an attack with bolos, but that the ringleaders escaped.

John MacNeill Is Convicted of Rebellion

DUBLIN, May 24. — John MacNeill, president of the Sinn Fein volunteers, has been found guilty by a courtmartial of complicity in the Irish rebellion. His sentence will be promulgated within a day or two. He was a professor at the Irish University.

WASHINGTON, May 24. — The Senate committee on foreign relations recommended today a favorable report on Senator Kern's resolution directing the Secretary of State to inquire regarding the safety of American citizens in Ireland in districts where martial law has been declared.

Austrians Shell Greek Ship; 21 of Crew Safe

TARRAGON, May 24.—Twenty-one members of the crew of the Greek steamship Istros, 1891 tons gross, have arrived here in lifeboats. They report their vessel was torpedoed by an Austrian submarine.

LONDON, May 24.—The Greek steamer Istros has been destroyed by a submarine, its crew arriving in England today. The captain asserted three sailing vessels had also been submarined.

Mortimer Smith to Head Order of Eagles

SAN DIEGO, May 24.—The nominating committee of the state convention of the Fraternal Order of Eagles today named the following to be voted upon tomorrow:

For president, Mortimer Smith, Oakland; vice-president, Charles W. Lyon of Ocean Park, former state assemblyman; secretary, G. Pohlmann, San Francisco; treasure, W. W. Bassett of Sacramento; conductor, Hugh Rodgers of Coma; inside guard, Hugh Tye, Stockton; outside guard, Long Conlon; state chaplain, Dr. E. F. Herbert, Santa Barbara; trustee—J. J. McNamara, Los Angeles; J. C. Reimers, Livermore, and C. J. Williams, Coalinga.

Eureka and Redding are fighting it out for the next convention.

MRS. WAITE TAKES STAND AGAINST ACCUSED HUSBAND

Dentist's Wife Gives Strong Evidence; "K. Adams" Appears.

NEW YORK, May 24.—Testifying for the prosecution which is endeavoring to send her husband to the electric chair, Mrs. Clara Waite, dressed all in black and heavily veiled, walked firmly to the witness stand today in Dr. Arthur W. Waite's trial on charge of having murdered his father-in-law and mother-in-law.

She gave her evidence in a low voice. Waite looked at her once, then directed his gaze at the floor, shielding his face with his left hand until she was excused.

Miss Elizabeth B. Hardwick was on the stand only a short time. She testified that she sent the "K. Adams" telegram on March 12, from the Grand Central Station in this city warning the Peck family that Mr. Peck might have suffered foul play.

Miss Hardwick said she lived in the home of Dr. Jacob Cornell of Somerville, N. J., who testified yesterday that he called at the Waite home the day Peck died. She testified that she sent the telegram to Percy Peck after Dr. Cornell returned from the Waite apartment and that some one told her to send it. A question as to who directed her was ruled out. She was then excused.

Mrs. Clara Peck Waite, in continuing her testimony, said her husband went out on "calls" at all times of the day and night. The night before her father died she said Waite gave him an eggnogg and Peck complained that it made him ill. Next morning her father was dead.

The sender of the mysterious "K. Adams" telegram,, which has figured in the case of Dr. Arthur Warren Waite, accused of the murder of his father-in-law, John E. Peck, millionaire Grand Rapids drug manufacturer, was identified as Elizabeth B. Hardwick, of Somerville, N. J., at Waite's trial today. This was the telegram sent from New York to Grand Rapids urging Percy Peck to have an autopsy performed on his father's body.

Dr. Arthur Warren Waite told Percy Peck, his brother-in-law, prior to the death of John H. Peck, that the latter was grief-stricken over the death of his wife, and that he might not live long, according to Percy Peck's testimony today in the trial of Waite.

The witness also swore that Waite asked him if Mrs. Peck's sister could not have her share of the income from the estate before the will was probated.

This testimony was introduced by the State in an effort to prove that Waite was not insane in his alleged murders, and that they were prompted by a cold desire to get money.

BERKELEY, May 24.—To celebrate its fiftieth birthday Berkeley shut up shop today and turned itself loose in the merriest, brightest pageant in its history. With hundreds of floats and decorated automobiles and carriages, hundreds of marchers on foot and no less than a thousand school children, the golden jubilee procession in the forenoon wound its way through the city's streets.

More serious attention to the occasion was given at the literary exercises at Shattuck avenue and Center street, which followed. But in the afternoon the holiday spirit came again into its own, with races, pageantry and contests before the reviewing stands, and with a baseball game on California field between ordinarily staid and sober merchants, professional men and officials.

Ten o'clock, the sunshine through the clouds and the starting of the parade arrived at exactly the same moment. Long before this time the streets were filled, and by the moment the parade got under way Shattuck avenue, from Allston way to Addison street and beyond in either direction, contained many thousand watchers.

SCHMIDT AS MARSHAL.

Under the marshalship of Winfield S. Schmidt the parade was arranged to give as much variety as possible. It was led by the Berkeley High school band, which profusely decorated fire apparatus followed, this in turn succeeded by a mounted division of police. The junior police, in castoff suits of the department, many times their size, gave a comedy touch to the first division of the parade. An interesting section was contributed by the Berkeley troop of Boy Scouts, mounted in several floats, in which they displayed first aid work, signaling and other details of their craft.

Mayor Samuel C. Irving and party rode in a prettily-decorated float. Members of the city commission had automobiles near the head of the division. The University of California contributed largely to the spectacle. One huge float, drawn by four horses, bore a model of a portion of the campus, including North Hall, the Jane K. Sather Campanile and the Boalt hall of law. Machines follow-

BILLION-DOLLAR LAND FRAUD CASE BROUGHT TO TRIAL

Several Attorneys and Pastor Are Among Accused.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 24.—Just as Congress began consideration of a bill restoring to the government $3,000,000 acres of land granted to the Oregon-California railroad in 1860 under conditions which the government claims the road violated, seven men went on trial in the Federal district court in San Francisco charged with having used the mails to defraud in the collection of money from people in all parts of the country on the promise that they could locate them on lands.

They are Norman D. Cook, Rev. Richard Irish, William B. DeGrano, A. J. Reetz, Sydney F. Sperry and Elmer Pater.

Yesterday a forgery warrant was issued against Pater in conection with the alleged passing of a bogus check at the Brayton Hotel, 50 Turk street.

The accused are represented by Attorneys Nathan Coghlen, Frank C. Drew, Alfred P. Black and Walter E. Heftmann.

United States District Attorney C. L. Reames of Portland, acting United States Attorney M. A. Thomas and his assistant, Mrs. Annette Adams, are engaged in the prosecution.

The case is a most intricate one and involves alleged victims all over the United States and Canada. The thousands of acres of land concerned, lying along the line of the Oregon-California railroad company, a subsidiary of the Southern Pacific, in Oregon, is said to be worth in the neighborhood of $100,000,000. A grant in 1860 gave the land to the Oregon-California railroad in consideration of its building its line and it was provided that such of the land as was not required by the railroad should be sold to the public at $2.50 an acre.

THE ALLEGATIONS.

Recently the supreme court has held that the railroad is entitled to the land and the question of the billions of dollars worth of timber on it is now again before the court for determination as to ownership. During the litigation between the government and the railroad the indictments against the present defendants charges they falsely misrepresented through the mails the status of the situation. It is claimed that in consideration of filing fees they agreed to place claims for prospective buyers, declaring they had inside information as to the outcome of the suit and they would put the buyer in on the ground floor. In many instances, it is charged, they received the first payment for the purchase of the land and as the railroad had no right to sell, pending the litigation, it is avered they simply pocketed the money.

At the present time the lands are not open to settlement.

In all more than a score of persons have been arrested and several trials were held at Portland, Oregon. The work of obtaining a jury was begun today and both sides agree that the trial will take nearly two months.

Judge Dooling has wiped his calendar clear in order to let the proceedings go through to the end.

HYNES NOT TO PROBE BARTLETT CHARGES

District Attorney Says Nothing Warrants His Action in Accusation of Official Misconduct

HAMMOND SAYS MAYOR RIDICULOUS

Terminal Roads "Hold-Up" by Councilman Is Not Supported After Subject Is Reviewed

Mr. Brown of the Traction company told me in my own office that Councilman Wilkins had suggested to him that if the company wished the jitney ordinance to pass $8000 might be used to good effect.—Mayor F. H. Bartlett.

Mr. J. H. Brown states to me that Mr. Wilkens never made any statement such as indicated by you; that he never said to you that Mr. Wilkens had made any such statement; that Mr. Wilkens had never intimated to him directly or indirectly anything of an improper nature concerning the passage of that ordinance. * * *

He states further that you told him that unless the company would lay a trap in an endeavor to catch the councilman in bribery that you would veto the ordinance if it was passed, and that you furthermore stated that you would force a lot of paving work in the city of Alameda, which would cost the San Francisco-Oakland Terminal Railway Company a great deal of money.—District Attorney W. H. L. Hynes.

Councilman John H. Wilkens is out of town. If he were here he would certainly speak in vigorous language regarding the charges that the mayor makes against him, but he is not here, and I want to say that the attack on Wilkens will surely prove to be as senseless and silly as the attack on me. I say this as a friend of Wilkens, and I feel sure that his several thousand other friends in Alameda stand ready to say the same without waiting for any investigation to show that he is not a bribe taker.—Councilman William Hammond Jr.

CORROBORATION was lacking today of the charges made yesterday by Mayor Francis H. Bartlett of Alameda that two members of his city council, William Hammond Jr. and John H. Wilkens, had attempted to solicit a bribe from the San Francisco-Oakland Terminal Railways Company for the passage of anti-jitney bus ordinance in Alameda.

Mayor Bartlett brought his charges into publicity by means of a letter to District Attorney W. H. L. Hynes, courting an investigation. Hynes investigated and, according to a reply to Bartlett which he made public today, found no basis for grand jury action such as the mayor requested.

J. H. Brown, of the Traction Company, from whom it was alleged the bribe was solicited, denies the statements attributed to him by Bartlett. And Councilman Hammond indignantly contradicted the mayor. Councilman Wilkens, whom Bartlett named as the prime mover in his alleged attempted "deal," is in San Diego.

The mayor made two charges, one relating to the jitney bus ordinance and the other to city printing, asserting that the municipal contract had

RAILROAD LAND BILL UP IN HOUSE

Recovery of Title Sought by U. S. to Lands Granted 50 Years Ago.

WASHINGTON, May 24.—A bill to recover title of 3,200,000 acres of land worth more than $50,000,000 granted to the Oregon & California Railroad by the federal government 50 years ago, was brought up in the House today. The bill would authorize suit against the railroad for recovery of funds received for sale of 800,000 acres of land at more than $2.50 an acre, contrary to the provisions of the original grant.

Speedy action was urged on the ground that an injunction against disposition of the lands, issued last December 9th by the Supreme court of the United States expires June 9.

The measure is of special interest to 16,000 persons to whom agents sold the land fraudulently and who were deprived of their rights by the Supreme court decision.

The bill would provide for classification of the 3,200,000 acres as water power sites, timber lands and agricultural lands and for sale of timber tracts, and homesteading of non-timber tracts, at $2.50 an acre. The departments of justice, interior and agriculture have endorsed the legislation. Chairman Ferris of the House public lands committee is the author.

GERMANS REGAIN VERDUN POSITIONS

on either side are unable alike to advance or retreat. Verdun will certainly not be taken from this point.

"I cannot understand how our men are able to keep it up. You are exterminated in your boots without seeing the enemy. The terrific noise leaves us half-stunned. Men look at each other with bewildered eyes. It requires a strong effort of the will to speak to a comrade."

Central Powers Fired By desperation

ROME, May 24.—The Austrian offensive on the Trentino front and the furious efforts of the Germans to gain a decision at Verdun are explained in a semi-official statement published here to be a result of a concentrated effort on the part of the central powers to prevent an expected simultaneous attack by the allies on all fronts.

"The central empires," says the statement, "wish to prevent, even at the cost of enormous sacrifices of men and material, the allies from taking the initiative in the war operations and attacking simultaneously on all fronts. Such is the plan of the central powers as revealed by the great Austrian offensive on the Trentino front, while the Germans are reviving their offensive against Verdun.

"Germany and Austria aim at wearing out France and Italy counting on the temporary halt in the Russian operations continuing. They hope that when Russia is ready at last to resume the fight the other two nations will be so worn out as to need a rest. This view is confirmed by statements made by prisoners.

The statement concludes with an assertion that the Austrian-German plans must fail, as all of the allies will be able to pass from the present defensive stage to decisive, simultaneous action. This great joint offensive, it is declared, will bring about the downfall of the Teutonic powers.

News from the front says that the Austrians are widening the scope of their offensive with the intention of preventing the Italians from concentrating any considerable forces of men and guns at threatened points. The Austrians continue to make their point of attack against Adige and Sugana valleys. One of their most important advances was along the Tessini mountains in Italian territory. They were driven from this district by an Italian counter-attack.

Chamber of Deputies Desires Explanations

PARIS, May 24.—A motion demanding a secret sitting of the Chamber of Deputies at which the government should give full explanations in regard to the first phase of the Verdun operations is being circulated in the chamber lobby and already has obtained 150 signatures. It is not likely, however, that the motion will be moved until Premier Briand has again appeared before the army committee.

Premier Briand and General Roques, the minister of war, appeared before the army committee of the Chamber of Deputies on May 1 after a profound sensation had been caused in Paris by the publication in the newspapers of a charge that a general of the French staff had contemplated a retreat of the forces on the right bank of the Meuse. This charge was met at the time by an official statement that the chief commander had never given any order for a retreat at any time during the battle of Verdun.

BRANDEIS IS FAVORED BY COMMITTEE

LOUIS D. BRANDEIS, WHO MAY SOON BECOME A JUSTICE OF THE UNITED STATES SUPREME COURT.

Senate Sub Body Votes for Confirmation of Appointment

WASHINGTON, May 24.—The Senate committee today recommended confirmation of Louis D. Brandeis as associate justice of the United States supreme court. The vote was 10 to 8 on straight party lines. Senator Shields of Tennessee voted with the other Democrats in favor of the confirmation.

Friends of Brandeis are jubilant. They forecasted that the floor division of the Senate would be similar to the committee vote and make Brandeis a winner by an easy margin. Cummins was absent from the committee when the vote was polled, but his ballot was counted for Brandeis.

No plan as to when the nomination will be taken up in the Senate has yet been formulated.

Senators voting for confirmation were Culberson, Overman, Chilton, O'Gorman, Fletcher, Reed Ashhurst, Shields, Walsh and Smith of Georgia.

Senators voting against confirmation were Clark of Wyoming, Nelson, Dillingham, Sutherland, Brandegee, Borah, Cummins and Works.

The vote is one of the final steps in a contest which started as soon as the nomination was sent to the Senate by President Wilson on January 28. Weeks were spent by a sub-committee taking testimony regarding charges against the nominee, formulated by a committee of citizens of Boston. The sub-committee recommended confirmation by a strict party vote of 3 to 2.

A protracted fight in the Senate is expected on Brandeis. The matter of his appointment is likely to be reached within a week, with a long-drawn-out debate and a possible filibuster.

Backers of the appointment of Trade Commissioner Rublee, held up by the Senate, are expected to seize this opportunity to urge that his name again be submitted for confirmation.

Recess Appointment To Hold Rublee's Job

WASHINGTON, May 24.—George Rublee was still in office today as a member of the federal trade commission, despite the Senate's refusal yesterday to reconsider its former rejection of his nomination. He probably will continue to serve as a recess appointee of President Wilson, although he can draw no pay, either for his past fifteen months' services or for the future.

Rejection was based on Senatorial courtesy, Rublee having been personally objectionable to Senator Gallinger, Republican leader.

Austrian Submarine Blows Up Vessels

WASHINGTON, May 24.—A Lloyds despatch sent by Consul Skinner from London today declared the Italian bark Ermina Sarrona from Baltimore had been halted by a submarine May 20 near the Balearic Islands, and blown up after its crew had taken to the boats. The submarine flew an Austrian flag. The crew was rescued by a sailing vessel near Carthage.

BARCELONA, Spain, May 24. — The Russian bark Regina has been sunk by a submarine. Her captain and crew arrived here today. The captain states that near Barcelona he met two life boats containing the crews of two Italian sailing vessels, both of which were sunk by the same Austrian submarine.

Roosevelt Ready to Receive Delegations

NEW YORK, May 24.—Colonel Theodore Roosevelt is getting ready today to receive delegation boomers at Oyster Bay next Saturday. They tell the the colonel they want him for President.

As planned, the delegation is to include both Republicans and Democrats. It is understood that Charles J. Bonaparte, Oscar Strauss, Luke Wright and many other prominent leaders of different states are behind the pilgrimage.

Roosevelt was in New York today but refused to comment on politics. His headquarters made public a telegram from a Teddy booster in Michigan saying that that state was for the colonel and not for Henry Ford.

ALASKA ELECTS.

JUNEAU, Alaska, May 24. — The Democratic territorial convention met here today to elect two delegates to the Democratic national convention and nominate a candidate for delegate to Congress. Senator Charles Sulzer, a brother of William Sulzer, ex-governor of New York, appears to be the unanimous choice for delegate.

MEMORIES DIFFER, SAYS PRESIDENT

Declines to Interfere in Peace Society Controversy States Letter.

NEW YORK, May 24.—The American Defense Society has received from President Wilson his reply to a request made on May 14 for an investigation of a controversy between Secretary of the Navy Daniels and Rear Admiral Fiske, regarding a letter the admiral declared he had personally delivered to the secretary, calling attention to what he characterized as deficiencies in the navy. Daniels contended that the letter was handed to the chief clerk of the department and was not seen by him.

The President's letter included a memorandum from Secretary Daniels stating that he accepted Admiral Fiske's statement regarding the letter, but that personally he had no recollection of the incident. The President declined to comment on a difference which he termed "merely one of recollection of an incident."

President Wilson's letter follows:

REFERRED TO SECRETARY.

"I am in receipt of your letter of the 12th of May. I referred it to the Secretary of the Navy, and he has furnished me the following memorandum:

"'Some days ago in response to a resolution of the Senate, I transmitted to that honorable body a copy of a communication written by Admiral Fiske in November, 1914. In transmitting the letter, I stated that I had not seen it and did not know that it had been filed until long after it was filed with the chief clerk. In a recent letter to the Senate, Rear Admiral Fiske stated that my statement showed a "lapse of memory" because he had presented the letter to me and I had read it. I have no recollection that his paper was ever presented to me or of reading it. As much, however, as Admiral Fiske stated that he did show it to me before it was filed, I, of course, accept his statement. It was his custom while aide for operations to present to me scores of papers bearing upon all naval matters. It is utterly impossible for any cabinet officer, in the multiplicity of papers presented to him, to recall all of them. I had talked with Rear Admiral Fiske several times about the subject matter of the communication, upon which I had rather fixed views. But I did not, when my letter was written to the Senate, and do not, recall that he had at any time committed his views to paper, presented them to me or placed them on file.'

MATTER OF MEMORY.

"Inasmuch as the difference referred to in your letter between the Secretary of the Navy and Rear Admiral Fiske is merely one of recollection of an incident which occurred in November, 1914, and inasmuch as the secretary says that, while he has no recollection of having read the communication by Rear Admiral Fiske, he is willing to accept the admiral's statement, the matter does not seem to me to call for any comment."

Kansas Progressives Adopt Resolution

TOPEKA, Kan., May 24.—The Progressive state convention adopted but one resolution, which follows:

"We reaffirm the principles of the national party as set forth in the platform adopted in Chicago in 1912, and

Whereas, Theodore Roosevelt stands today as he stood then, as the living endorsement of those principles; and since Theodore Roosevelt today is also the living embodiment of the convictions of the great body of American people, upon the momentous questions which have since arisen;

"Therefore, we declare ourselves for Theodore Roosevelt as the nominee for President and instruct our delegates to vote for his nomination."

Thirty-two delegates were elected to the national convention at Chicago.

Texas Militiamen to Get Another Chance

WASHINGTON, May 24.—The 116 Texas militiamen who failed to respond to muster call for border duty will escape court-martial if they present themselves in answer to the new call President Wilson is to issue.

The new military bill abolishes the offense charged against the militiamen. They were automatically mustered. Therefore the President will issue a new call directed to the 116 only. If they respond, the case is closed. Should they fail to do so, they will be charged with a graver offense.

Senate Seeks Word of Poland Situation

WASHINGTON, May 24.—A resolution by Senator Hitchcock of Nebraska requesting the Secretary of State to inform the Senate as to the attitude of the British government concerning shipments of supplies to the people of Poland, was recommended for passage today by the foreign relations committee.

Bryan Declines to Consider New Report

WASHINGTON, May 24.—William J. Bryan today declined to take seriously a report that Prohibition party leaders proposed to make him their presidential candidate. He said:

"I never expected to hear of that except through the newspapers."

TO SEE DEDICATION.

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., May 24.—President Wilson and Franklin K. Lane, secretary of the interior, will be present at the dedication of the Elephant Butte dam early in October, A. A. Jones, assistant secretary of the interior, who arrived here tonight, was authorized to make this announcement. The President probably will make platform talks in New Mexico, according to Mr. Jones.

BIG BOND VOTE.

MEDFORD, Ore., May 24.—Medford voted five to one today in favor of amending the charter authorizing the city to vote $300,000 bonds for the construction of a railroad to the Blue Ledge mines. A second election will be held soon to vote on the contract with a traction company, which if accepted will insure the construction work as soon as the bonds are marketed.

Did Wilson's Note Save England? Diplomatic Crisis of Cabinet Told Side Light Thrown on War History

LONDON, May 24.—President Wilson saved the British cabinet from disruption.

Probably this is news to most Americans and the President himself.

No one supposes his recent near-ultimatum to Germany was inspired at all by the hope of composing Great Britain's internal troubles; but that's what it did.

April 19, 1916, was Britain's darkest day since the war started. The most optimistic now freely admit that the government was riding for a fall. Premier Asquith declared the country was "confronted with a danger of the most formidable kind." This champion compromiser of British history, this successful political peace maker of the cabinet had exhausted the many tricks of his trade and all but given up hope.

REAL CRISIS.

It was a real crisis!

The split was internal. One faction insisted that immediate general conscription was necessary if the British Empire was to be saved. The other was equally confident that such legislation would wreck the empire and lose the war.

Asquith had pleaded eloquently for a compromise to prevent collapse of the government.

The leaders of the two factions had threatened to resign if their views were not accepted.

In vain Asquith pointed out that a disunited nation at this time would be a calamity, and an affront to Britain's loyal allies; that nothing that could happen would furnish more encouragement to the enemy; while the effect upon neutral countries could readily be imagined.

Asquith was finally compelled to admit in Commons his failure to reconcile the differences in the cabinet. That was Wednesday afternoon.

Late in the evening tickers in hotels, clubs and theaters began tapping off President Wilson's anti-German speech to Congress. It appeared in full the following morning, together with a synopsis of his note to Germany. The cabinet met at 11 o'clock. Three hours later the tickers flashed: "Cabinet differences settled. Official announcement expected shortly."

The crisis was over. No new element had been injected into the situation other than President Wilson's threat to break off diplomatic relations with Germany, carrying with it the prospect of America's joining the Allies.

NOT COINCIDENCE.

It wasn't mere coincidence. Only a few hours before Lloyd George had given his "final word." The chief of the "ginger" brigade of the Liberal party had said that he would get out of the cabinet and take his place with the opposition in Parliament unless his fellow cabineteers agreed that all-around conscription was vitally necessary. This meant that Bonar Law and other Unionist members would follow suit.

About the same time, the Labor party leaders had a conference, at which it was resolved to oppose to the limit any proposition of general conscription, and following the meeting Arthur Henderson indicated that he and the other two Labor ministers would resign if Lloyd George's program was forced.

This was precisely the state of affairs when President Wilson electrified England by his speech and note. They overshadowed the conscription wrangle. Wilson's determined attitude and its possible effects set all hands thinking.

British pride finally conquered where British patriotism had failed. It would be humiliating, Britishers argued, to accept America's intervention unless the British Empire could show a united, determined front.

And so, the conscriptionists won, essentially. There is to be all-around compulsory enlistment if a new campaign of voluntary enlistment for a limited period doesn't produce sufficient eligibles.

Asquith was barely able to grab the skirts of the fleeing Spirit of Compromise—and Wilson showed him how to do it.

German Murderess Punished by Beheading

BERLIN, May 24. — Henrietta Holstein, the wife of a Koenigsberg farmer, was executed here today for the triple murder of her husband, daughter and stepson by arsenic. The execution was performed in the traditional manner by a headsman with a broad axe. Two Berlin women of the underworld, who were recently convicted of the murder and robbery of a third woman, are in jail awaiting the infliction of the death penalty by beheading.

GAVIRA SENT TO CAPTURE BANDITS

Carranza General Has Orders to Exterminate Outside Bands.

CHIHUAHUA, Mex., May 24.—General Gavira, Carranza commander at Juarez, has been appointed commander of the military zone of the frontier and a brigade of 1000 cavalry under Francisco Gonzales, has been sent him to reinforce all garrisons and important points along the Mexican Northwestern railroad from Juarez to Temosachic, General Jacinto Trevino announced today.

Such centers as Galeana also will be reinforced, while a strong detachment in Villa Ahumeda is on its way north to Juarez.

General Gavira has orders to pursue vigorously all outside bands, giving them no pause until they are exterminated.

Villa is hiding at Hacienda Mimbrera, about 125 miles from Jiminez, while curing his wounds, according to a report received by General Ignacio Ramos at Jiminez and sent here. General Ramos says his information comes from several apparently reliable sources which state that the bandit has small bands of followers in Lazurica and San Bernardo, near Mimbrera.

More than 1200 followers of General Canuto Reyes are now being disarmed in the Nazas district.

Germany to Run Divers to U. S.

New Service Is to Carry Mail and Passengers

NEW YORK, May 24.—A regular trans-Atlantic submarine service between Hamburg and New York will be started next Monday, the Evening Mail asserted today, claiming to have learned it on good authority.

The first submarine will reach New York about July 1, according to the report. The Mail said she would be armed for defense only and would carry mail, parcels and perhaps a few passengers. The trip is to be made in ten days.

By August, the Mail said, Germany expected to have five of these submersibles working on regular schedules. They will voyage north of Scotland or through the English channel, according to conditions at sea, and entering New York via Long Island Sound, taking advantage of the three-mile limit.

Swedish Queen Must Undergo Operation

KARLSRUHE, May 24.—Queen Victoria of Sweden has suffered from a sudden attack of acute inflammation of the middle ear, which necessitated an immediate operation. Her general condition has improved since the operation. The queen has been here for some time.

A Mistake in the Policy of the Bethlehem Steel Company

To the People:

The Senate of the United States has passed a bill to spend $11,000,000 of the People's money to build a government armor plant. The measure is now before the House of Representatives.

It is said that manufacturers of armor have "gouged" the country in the past, and that a government plant is necessary to secure armor more cheaply.

The mistake of the Bethelehem Steel Company has been that it has kept quiet.

We have allowed irresponsible assertions to be made for so long without denial, that many people now believe them to be proven facts.

We shall make the mistake of silence no longer.

Henceforth we shall pursue a policy of publicity. Misinformation will not be permitted to go uncorrected.

It is and has been the policy of our Company to deal with the American Government fairly and squarely.

We shall henceforth place the details of our relations with the Government before the American People.

The United States has for twenty years obtained the highest grade of armor and has paid a lower price for it than has any other great naval power.

Figures officially compiled for the Senate Committee on Naval Affairs from the Naval Year Book show that under conditions prevailing just before the European war, the chief naval powers of the world were paying these prices for armor:

England, $503 per ton; France, $460; Germany, $490; Japan, $490; UNITED STATES $425

A government plant cannot make armor any cheaper than we can do it; and—

We are prepared to manufacture armor at any price which the Government itself shall name as fair. THAT BEING SO, SHOULD $11,000,000 OF THE PEOPLE'S MONEY BE WASTED TO BUILD A GOVERNMENT PLANT?

New Coats and Skirts

—A Sale That Deserves the Name

We use the word "Sale" very guardedly, making sure that the merchandise offered and the prices quoted are worthy of the distinction. This collection of Coats and Skirts was purchased with the idea of giving values that will add still greater fame to this already popular store. Every garment was bought on a liberal discount basis and offered to you on the same terms.

Corduroy Coats $5.00

A splendid showing of new models.

Some full-belted, others gathered in the back at the waist line, and belted in front. Some of them are fur trimmed and some have the clever Chin-Chin collar and patch pockets. The prominent colors are champagne, rose, gray, green, Belgian blue, mustard, apricot, bronze and white.

Every Coat a wonder at the price. You will agree when you see them.

Novelty Coats $7.50

A great variety at this price. Flared, loose-fitting, belted and semi-belted models in Shepherd checks, block checks, covert cloth, mixtures, Rob Roy Scotch plaids and plain fabrics in rose, navy and green. There is a great diversity of trimming ideas—turn-back cuffs, leather belts, etc. No matter what your coat ideas may be, you should find satisfaction in this group. Don't fail to see them.

A Wonderful Group of Coats at $9.00

A refreshing collection of the new models in knee, hip and three-quarter lengths. Long rippling flare effects, belted and semi-belted ideas and loose fitting designs. They are trimmed decidedly different from the average coats—an assortment too great to describe here. The materials list includes Corduroy, Chinchilla, Jersey Cloth, Block Checks and large Plaids. The sale price—$9.00—is actually below the original wholesale cost.

Corduroy Skirts $2.45

You will wonder how they can be made and brought here from New York to sell at such a low price. A new design with two ideas in patch pockets. To be had in white, rose, dark tan and light blue. Can you think of anything better for ordinary service and outing wear? Plenty of all sizes.

Corduroy Skirts $3.75

Several styles. Some with side slit pockets, others with big patch pockets. A few have large single pocket with turn-back top that fastens with a large button. The colors are Emerald green, rose, salmon, gold, navy, apricot and white. They are particularly well made and can be depended upon for service.

CLUBWOMEN SEE POLITICAL HAND

Hammond Luncheon Bid Causes Bitter Feeling in Ranks.

NEW YORK, May 24.—The opening guns of the campaign for the presidency of the Federation of Women's Clubs were fired at the council meeting of the organization today when two candidates, Mrs. Samuel B. Sneath of Tiffin, Ohio, and Mrs. Joshia Evans Cowles of Los Angeles, Cal., were introduced by the present president, Mrs. Percy V. Pennybacker.

Both candidates outlined their policies. Mrs. Sneath limited her talk to the $100,000 endowment fund and counselled its safe investment. Mrs. Cowles discussed the endowment fund, revision of the by-laws, advocated adequate headquarters and favored increasing the advisory board from fifteen to fifty.

Mrs. John Hays Hammond gave a luncheon to Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt, Mrs. W. J. Bryan, Mrs. Charles Evans Hughes and Miss Margaret Wilson; and failed to invite Mrs. Josiah Evans Cowles of Los Angeles, candidate for the presidency. Mrs. Cowles' supporters murmured of insult. Friends of other candidates said they did not control the Hammond luncheon guests.

HUSBANDS SEE ZOO.

Husbands who are not fathers and who are accompanying their wives to the convention are having a fine program, visiting the zoo, aquarium and historic points. Men who have children with them have to keep the babies amused.

The luncheon was one imposing social event accompanying the biennial convention of the General Federation of Women's Clubs. Some 200 guests attended, including wives of cabinet ministers and foreign ambassadors, Mrs. Thomas Marshall, wife of the Vice-President of the United States; Mrs. Champ Clark, Miss Mabel Boardman, Mrs. William H. Taft, Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt, Mrs. William J. Bryan, Mrs. Charles E. Hughes, Mrs. Charles S. Whitman, Miss Margaret Wilson, Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, Dr. Anna Howard Shaw, Lady Aberdeen, Mrs. Thomas J. Preston and others nearly as distinguished.

The fact that the name of Mrs. Cowles, California's candidate for the presidency of the federation, did not appear on the list of guests, while Mrs. Samuel B. Sneath of Tiffin, Ohio, the opposition candidate, was invited, caused much comment in women's club circles.

EXPLANATIONS.

The situation was explained by Mrs. William Grant Brown, chairman of the local biennial board, who said that no slight to Mrs. Cowles was intended or given. Mrs. Sneath, she said, was first vice-president of the federation, while her rival was not an officer, nor a member of the board of the general federation, nor of the local board, in whose honor the luncheon was given.

Miss Margaret Wilson, daughter of the President, will be the guest of honor at the first formal session of the convention this evening.

Naval Appropriation Bill Is Reported

WASHINGTON, May 24.—The naval appropriation bill carrying a total of $241,000,000 was reported to the House today by Chairman Padgett of the naval committee. The committee's report says that the $91,087,287 increase over last year's appropriation was found necessary "to place the navy in a better state of preparedness."

It states that a total of $98,859,378 is provided for new ships, including five battle cruisers and to continue ships now building.

Seek Peace in Victory, Order

Germans Warn Against False Rumors

LONDON, May 24.—An order of the day, said to have been issued recently by Field Marshal Von Hindenburg to his men, on the Russian front, is quoted as follows in a Central News despatch from Fusel, Switzerland: "For some time a rumor has been spreading among the troops that peace negotiations are about to begin, and this fact, coupled with the instinct of self-preservation which is constantly growing, is having a bad effect on the morale of the men.

"In the name of the emperor, I declare that there cannot be any question of peace until we have crossed the Dvina. Soldiers, if you wish peace, go and seek it on the other side of the Dvina."

Serbia's Integrity Promised to Prince

WAR POLICY CONDEMNED BY CHURCHILL

LONDON, May 24.—Demanding that the 5,000,000 soldiers the British government boasts it has at its call be sent to the front; that corps be formed of the hundreds of thousands acting as officers' servants and that the troops be called from Saloniki, Egypt and other outside points, to man the west front line, Winston Spencer Churchill, former first lord of the admiralty, yesterday scored the Asquith cabinet for its war policies. His criticism followed a successful appeal by Premier Asquith for a vote of credit for $30,000,000, made in the House of Commons.

Churchill's denunciations followed Asquith's speech in which the premier pointed out to what use the money already voted had been placed. Churchill, who has been opposing the government in the house since his return from the front, said it was unreasonable to expect the war to turn suddenly and decisively in favor of the allies. The contending armies were far too evenly matched to permit of such a change.

The allies felt that they were stronger and had a preponderance of men, Churchill continued, but against this was the central position of their opponents, their superior unity of their war direction and the advantage of being able to retain the initiative. The allies had larger reserves, actual and potential, than their enemies, and it was in the use which was made of them that the hope of final victory lay.

QUESTION OF MEN.

The frequency of the German and Austrian attacks on all parts of the front might be a sign of the measure of their strength, Churchill said, but it might also be a sign of the measure of their profound anxiety. If the Germans were beaten decisively they would be beaten by lack of men.

The colonel calculated that the British were holding on all fronts forty-five German and Turkish divisions.

"That does not correspond with the premier's description of our military efforts," he continued. "The prime minister said the total military effort of the empire was 5,000,000 men. Where are they? Certainly they not been in contact with the enemy. Our military efforts should be measured by the number of enemy forces we are holding on our respective fronts. The forty-five German and Turkish divisions which we face would total 900,000 men all told, and therefore the actual fighting force with which we are in contact probably in effective rifle and artillery strength equal half a million men.

NOT USEFULLY APPLIED.

"If our total effort is 5,000,000 men, it is evident that every conceivable deduction has been made that there is a large margin not yet usefully applied to the prosecution of the war."

Colonel Churchill urged that every serviceable man should be put in to lengthen and strengthen the fighting line.

Another suggestion made by the colonel was the abolition of officers' servants and grooms. He pointed out that there are 200,000 officers in the army, with an equal number of servants and 60,000 grooms, an army in itself. In addition there are great masses of cavalry which could be of use if the government would build new formations from the men of these famous regiments.

He contended that all available reserves in the East, including Saloniki, Egypt, India and the French forces in Africa should be drawn upon. What were the great armies in Egypt and Saloniki doing? he asked. A great mistake, he considered, was made every day these forces were left inactive when they ought to be employed in diminishing the number of the entente allies' foes.

Austrians Concentrate One Hundred Cannon

ROME, May — — A hundred cannon placed on each mile along a front of twenty miles, according to the military experts, forms the unprecedented concentration of artillery which is being employed by the Austrians in their offensive against the Italians. The terrific fire which has resulted is given for the explanation why the Italian commander-in-chief thought it advisable to withdraw his troops and consolidate them in more advantageous fortified positions for defense between the Astico and Brenta rivers and in the Sugana valley, where the Austrian attacks are the fiercest.

German-Americans for Nagle, Is Claim

CHICAGO, May 24. — John Barrett, delegate to the Pan-American Congress, en route from St. Louis to Washington today, stopped off here long enough to say that German-Americans were planning to boom Charles Nagle of Missouri for the vice-presidency.

Boosters for Justice Hughes and Charles W. Fairbanks pitched their tents here today and began making themselves heard. Chairman Hilles of the Republican national committee will get here tomorrow. He stopped on the way for a rest.

Warship Brings Down Austrian Aeroplane

ROME, May 24.—Italian warships shot down an Austrian aeroplane over the upper Adriatic recently, the war office stated today.

EXPONENT OF HELMET.

LONDON, May 24.—Lieutenant Arthur Turnbull, who jumped from the strangers' galleries in the House of Commons March 29, shouting, "I ask you to protect the heads of British soldiers against shrapnel fire," his idea being to rouse the members of the House to the necessity of supplying steel helmets to the troops, has been defeated for election to the House of Commons from Southderry by D. S. Henry, Unionist. Lieutenant Turnbull was an independent candidate, and his defeat was overwhelming.

CONSIDER NEW LIGHTING SYSTEM.

HAYWARD, May 24.—A modern lighting system of arc lamps for this city, which has been under consideration by the town board for some time, has the support of the Chamber of Commerce, according to M. J. Madison, the newly appointed president. The Chamber of Commerce will appoint a committee, Madison says, to further the new and improved lighting proposition.

GERMANY TO ASK TEN BILLION MARKS

Prospects of New War Loan Regarded as Satisfactory.

BERLIN, May 24.—The credit of ten billion marks, which the Reichstag will soon be asked to vote, will bring the total credits voted up to 50,000,000,000 marks, of which 36,000,000,000 have already been raised in loans.

While details regarding the fifth war loan are not yet arranged, it is said that it will be issued in September and that the rate of 5 per cent will be retained, as in all previous loans. The treasury will raise the necessary funds upon treasury bills as needed, in anticipation of the issue, as on previous occasions.

The prospects for the loan are regarded as satisfactory. The manufacturers in various branches are earning big profits and the excellent crop prospects render it probable that there will be large investments in the loan by the farming population. Financial circles regard the further course of war finance with composure, believing that Germany will be able to stand the strain better than the enemy countries.

Germany Has No Fear of Starvation

BERLIN, May 24.—"If we could not be starved out in a year in which we had a crop deficit of nine million tons in wheat, rye, barley and oats alone, as compared with the last normal peace year, then we can never be starved out."

This was the conclusion of a resume of the conditions affecting the necessaries of life in Germany as given to the Associated Press today from a high authoritative source. The speaker proceeded to explain the handicaps under which Germany had labored in the current year. The combined wheat and rye crop of 1915, he said, was four million tons below that of 1913 and three million tons below that of 1914. The oats crop was but six million tons, as against nine million tons in 1914 and ten million tons in 1913. The clover crop in 1915 was the worst in a decade, say five million tons below the preceding two years.

It was asserted by the speaker that there were ample potatoes on hand and that the estimates of the early crop gave a minimum production of 11,324 tons.

Rumanian imports of grain, while still only a fraction of the total of requirements, amounted to 200,000 tons last month, which was double the amount of the closing months of 1915. As to meat, however, the situation was admittedly graver.

"We shall all gladly become vegetarians or semi-vegetarians for a time," the speaker continued, "in order to win and secure the fruits of our victory."

He then pointed out that the results of the last livestock census, previously referred to in an article in the Lokal Anzeiger, showed that the comparatively small number of swine to some extent had been compensated for by an increase of 31 per cent since the preceding census in the number of pigs under eight weeks old. Similar conditions prevailed as to cattle for slaughter, where all categories showed a decrease, except calves, which had increased 41 per cent. The number of milch cows had decreased by not quite 500,000 since December, 1914.

An Easy Way to Increase Weight

Good Advice for Thin Folks.

The trouble with most thin folks who wish to gain weight is that they insist on drugging their stomachs or stuffing it with greasy foods; rubbing on useless "flesh creams," or following some foolish physical culture stunt, while the real cause of thinness goes untouched. You cannot get fat until your digestive tract assimilates the food you eat.

There is a preparation known to reliable druggists almost everywhere which seemingly embodies the missing elements needed by the digestive organs to help them convert food into rich, fat-laden blood. This modern treatment is called Sargol and has been termed the greatest of flesh-builders. Sargol aims through regeneration, reconstruction powers to coax the stomach and intestines to literally soak up the fattening elements of your food and pass them into the blood, where they are carried to the starved, broken-down cells and tissues of your body. You can readily picture what result this amazing transformation should produce as with increased weight the cheeks fill out, hollows about neck, shoulders and bust disappear and from 10 to 20 pounds of solid, healthy flesh is added to the body. Sargol is absolutely harmless, inexpensive, efficient. Osgood Bros. Drug Stores and other leading druggists of this vicinity have it and will refund your money if you are not satisfied, as per the guarantee found in every package.

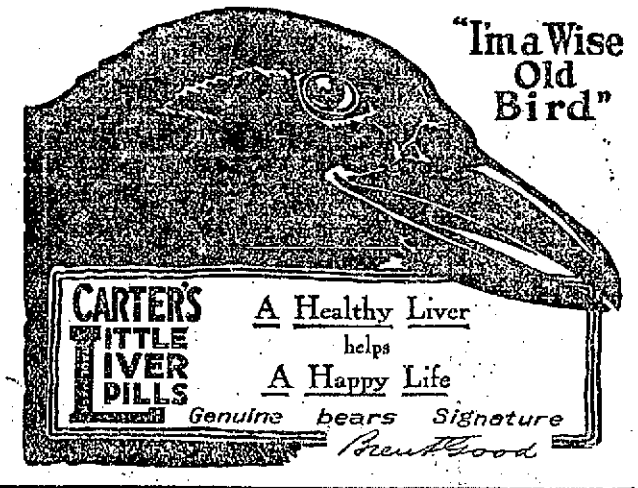

NOTE:—Sargol is recommended only as a flesh builder and while excellent results in cases of nervous indigestion, etc., have been reported, care should be taken about using it unless a gain of weight is desired.—Advertisement.

Zemo for Dandruff

You do not want a slow treatment when hair is failing and the dandruff germ is killing the hair roots. Delay means—no hair.

Get, at any drug store, a bottle of zemo for 25c or $1.00 for extra large size. Use as directed, for it does the work quickly. It kills the dandruff germ, nourishes the hair roots and immediately stops itching scalp. It is sure and safe, is not greasy, is easy to use and will not stain. Soaps and shampoos are harmful, as they contain alkali. The best thing to use is zemo, for it is pure and also inexpensive.

Children of the various schools had a prominent part in the parade. The Longfellow children rode in several big automobiles. The Garfield pupils reproduced in poses portions of their recent Shakespearean production. The McKinley, Whittier and other schools made up other attractive divisions. One big car carried members of the East Side and West Side ball teams, which contested later in the day on California field.

PRETTY MACHINES.

Many of the individual decorated machines were among the prettiest features of the pageant, betraying artistic taste as well as diligent labor. Mrs. R. H. Douglass drove one prettily ornamented car. William E. Woolsey of the Shattuck estate escorted a group of pretty maids in a machine which was a mass of flowers. Mrs. W. F. Norton, in a phaeton drawn by two Shetlands, had three little children as her guests. All of the quartet wore purple hats and the phaeton was almost completely hidden in orange blooms.

Many of the fraternal organizations of the city participated in a large division of the parade. Several automobiles carried members of the Grand Army, while succeeding machines bore members of the Ladies of the G. A. R. and of the Women's Relief Corps. The Odd Fellows had interesting floats in the line of march, one of them representing a freight car with a legend to indicate that this was the first meeting place of the Berkeley lodge. The Redmen displayed insignia of their order in a wild west group.

Religious and women's organizations were not behind hand in the procession. Asilomar camp was represented by an attractive float in which activities of the outing place were depicted. Trinity church and other organizations had features as well. The mothers' clubs entered an automobile in which were members of their organization and a group of little girls. On the side of the machine was the legend, "We build for the future." Berkeley center of the California Civic League and other women's organizations were represented by prettily decorated machines, as well as the Berkeley Dispensary and Day Nursery.

STORES REPRESENTED.

Not the least interesting portion of the parade was the section devoted to advertising machines. One local department store was represented by three big sight-seeing cars carrying the employes of the firm. Wares of various sorts were advertised on other machines by novel means. Minor details of the parade were found interesting by the crowds. One boy bore a model of an aeroplane which he had constructed. Two other lads drove in an improvised automobile of their own design. Pioneer residents of the city were given special accommodation. President Charles D. Heywood of the Chamber of Commerce, which is directing the day's celebration, and other officials rode in various machines. A group of high school boys strummed guitars and ukuleles in a prettily decorated machine.

Except to automobiles, no partiality to type of vehicles was shown in the procession. Horse-drawn carriages, bicycles, coasters, velocipedes and other means of conveyance were in evidence.

A committee on prizes for the parade announced the following list of awards:

Best school showing, Garfield; best decorated float, first prize, fire department; second prize, Cordonices Park. Most unique float, first prize, Wells Fargo Company; second, Trinity Epworth League. Best decorated family auto, men's first prize, William E. Woolsey; second, Brown & Company; women's first prize, Mrs. W. S. Norton; second, Mrs. R. H. Douglass. Most unique family auto, first prize, D. H. Towner; second prize, D. Ahlgren. Most conspicuous vehicle, first prize, Jones & McGovern; second, Varsity Creamery. Best fraternal organization, Odd Fellows. Most unique riding outfit, girl's prize, Miss Isabella Hill; boy's, Richard Blank. Best group, first prize, Berkeley Day Nursery; second, Y. M. C. A.; third, Campfire Girls. Special medal, University of California.

AUTOS IN LINE.

The extension of the procession to other portions of the city was delegated to the "Flying Squadron," which contained, besides local vehicles and floats, a large delegation of automobiles from the Oakland Chamber of Commerce and from other institutions and individuals of that city. One section of the division was allotted particularly to these machines. After repassing the reviewing stand the horse-drawn vehicles deployed under the direction of an aide.

The "Flying Squadron" proceeded out Shattuck avenue as far as Rose street, which route it took westward to San Pablo avenue. Here West Berkeley got a close-up view of the chief portion of the pageant. The line of march lay as far southerly as Alcatraz avenue, which the machines followed to Adeline street, returning by Adeline and Shattuck avenue to the reviewing stand.

Upon the arrival of the whole procession from the university campus the literary exercises were opened at the reviewing stand by former Mayor Charles D. Heywood, president of the Chamber of Commerce. The chief address was delivered by Professor Ira W. Howerth, head of the extension division of the University of California. A picturesque feature of the program was the dedication of the 100-foot liberty pole recently erected by the Chamber of Commerce, and the songs and salutes of more than 1000 Berkeley school children, marshaled before the speakers' rostrum.

Jubilee luncheons were served at all of the larger hotels of the city. At the Elks' Club open house was maintained throughout the day and a large party of diners assembled for the noon feast.

After the luncheons the program of pageantry and games opened on the west side of Shattuck avenue, from Allston way to University avenue. "The Frolics of Spring," the May day fete, which interested a large audience recently at San Pablo Park, was repeated in part. The Campfire Girls of Codornices Park gave a demonstration of their work, and first aid methods were exemplified by Boy Scouts of the Berkeley troops. An athletic drill by the Hawthorne Club terminated this portion of the program. During the remainder of the day boys and girls participated in races and contests, young ladies carried eggs in spoons, married women drove nails and sawed wood for prizes and fat men vied with each other in speed or attempted to thread needles. A tug of war between east side and west side merchants and a pie-eating contest for boys furnished comedy in addition to these other events.

At 3 o'clock was held the baseball game between the East Sides and West Sides, in anticipation of which for some time usually dignified merchants, professional men and city officials have been practising with bat and glove. The proceeds of the game, the attendance at which was largely swelled through the efforts of a number of prominent Berkeley women and girls, under the direction of Mrs. Henry Martinzed, will be devoted to the building fund of the Berkeley dispensary.

Jubilee dinners will again be the rule for the earlier portion of this evening. The Hotel Shattuck, Hotel Carlton, Hotel Claremont and other hostelries have made special arrangements for this event. At each of the larger hotels there have been a large number of reservations made for dinner parties of varying size.

Band music on the streets will enliven the earlier portion of this evening. At 8:30 o'clock a drill team from the Patriarchs Militant organization of Berkeley will give an exhibition before the reviewing stand, to be followed by the California Greys in a similar entertainment. At 9 o'clock the Jubilee Day reception will be held at the Hotel Shattuck and a half-hour later dancing will begin at all of the hotels and at the larger halls in Central, West and South Berkeley.

WHAT BERKELEY IS CELEBRATING

"On April 16, 1860, the trustees (of the College of California) drove to the college grounds and met on a great rock, or outcropping ledge. The purpose of the meeting was to dedicate the site to the holy cause of learning.

"The selection of a name for the town that was to grow up about the college was the subject of long and anxious discussion. Numberless suggestions from Frederick Law Olmstead and others were made, but none was satisfactory. But Frederick Billings, with a vision from the great rock of the Golden Gate, through which Crespi and Fages had first gazed, and which Fremont had named, one day had a flash of recollection pass before his mind and an inspiration fill his soul.

"'Berkeley,' he mused. 'Berkeley, the author of those prophetic lines—"Westward the course of empire takes its way"—why wouldn't "Berkeley" be a good name for our town?'

"And on May 24, 1866, 'Berkeley' was unanimously chosen; and 'Berkeley,' the name of the scholar and divine, to whom Pope ascribed 'every virtue under Heaven,' was written across the eternal hills that looked through the Golden Gate, 'the road of passage and union between two hemispheres.'"—From "Illustrated History of the University of California," by Prof. William Carey Jones.

Maids and Matrons Give Generously to City Celebration

BERKELEY, May 24.—Women of Berkeley have done their share toward making a success of the celebration today of the Golden Jubilee anniversary of the city's birth. Not only in arrangements for the various social events that characterized the day, but in securing a crowd for the dispensary benefit ball game, and even to decorating with their own hands floats and automobiles for this morning's procession, they contributed largely to the achievements of the day.

BUSY MATRONS.

During the later part of this morning and up to the hour the game opened at California field matrons and maids busied themselves about the city, selling the ticket tags that admitted to the games. Mrs. J. C. Somersett, Mrs. A. E. Shaw and Mrs. J. L. Chaddock presided at Home street and University avenue. At the Shattuck hotel were Miss Minerva Lovell, Miss Lucile Parr and Miss Mary June Sanderson.

Miss Laurine Mattern had a table at Shattuck avenue and Bancroft way. At the free market Mrs. Robert von Bokkelen and Mrs. F. S. McCullagh sold tickets, while Miss Bernice Taylor and Miss Betty Vent were busy at local banks. No one was urged to buy, the women desiring the purchase of the ticket tags to be voluntary, but the attractive manner in which the admissions were presented and the smiles that accompanied their sales made the expenditure for their purchase no less than lavish.

Plans for the Jubilee reception and ball at the Hotel Shattuck this evening are also in the hands of women's committees and their announcements bespeak success for these affairs. After the drill by the California Grays at the reviewing stand, the reception will open at the Shattuck. At 9:30 o'clock will be given a musical program, in which the participants will be Mrs. Lydia Sturtevant-Vollmer, Mrs. Orrin Kip McMurray, Lowell Moore Redfield and Howard Pratt. The following program has been announced:

Creole Lovers' Song (Dudley Buck), "In Maytime" (Oley Speaks); Howard Pratt; aria from "The Prophet" (Meyerbeer), "In Autumn" (Franz), Miss Lydia Sturtevant; aria from "Madame Butterfly" (Puccini), "My Lover He Comes on a Skee," Mrs. Orrin K. McMurray; prologue from "Il Pagliacci" (Leoncavello), Lowell Moore Redfield.

RECEPTION.

The reception will be held in the lounge of the hotel, which will be a mass of blue and white wild flowers. In the receiving line will be both men and women representative of the civic and club life of Berkeley, including Mayor S. C. Irving, ex-Mayor Charles D. Heywood, Chamber of Commerce; Stephen E. Kieffer, City Club; Arthur Meyer, Claremont Club; Prof. M. C. James, Berkeley schools; Mrs. Aaron Schloss, Twentieth Century Club; Mrs. Cline Bull, Town and Gown Club; Mrs. C. R. Reilly, Mothers' Clubs; Mrs. Mary Moody, Civic League; Mrs. Henry Martinez, Berkeley Dispensary.

The reception this afternoon for the baseball players was in charge of Mrs. Henry Martinez, and the other ladies of the Dispensary board were in her receiving party, including Mrs. J. C. Lynch, Mrs. G. A. Mattern, Mrs. G. P. Baxter, Dr. Edith Brownsill, Mrs. S. S. Johnson, Mrs. Lafayette Fisk, Mrs. H. D. Crosby, Mrs. Andrew M. Davis, Mrs. F. W. Searby, Mrs. Beatrice Wilmans, Mrs. Christian Hoff and Miss Kate Venable. They were assisted by a number of young girls of the Dispensary auxiliary, among whom were the Misses Hope Somersett, Katherine McDougall, Eleanor Campbell, Elizabeth Kruse, Bess Winston and Mary Emery Bell.

A large number of table reservations have been made, among those who will have parties being G. H. Campbell, Mrs. Henry Martinez, Mrs. B. Bangs, Mrs. Glen Davis, Herbert Jones, Dr. Horace N. Henderson, Charles Dunscomb, A. D. Lockwood, Charles D. Heywood, Mrs. A. Schloss, Mrs. A. O. Donogh, Dr. Robert O. Moody, J. W. Plachek, Mrs. Elliott and Mrs. A. H. Gerdts.

BERKELEY'S STREETS

The founders of Berkeley established their town immediately south of the University of California campus, where it was separated for many years by fields and farms from the rest of the territory that is now included under the name. In this early tract they laid out parallel streets in network design.

To the streets running northerly and southerly they gave the names of scientists and called them avenues. Those running easterly and westerly they named for historians and called them "ways." Beginning at the north and at the east, the names were chosen in alphabetical order. Some of these names have been changed and other streets have been laid between, but the old alphabetical order, in skeleton form, persists.

—"A" and "C" of the old avenues have been changed to College and Telegraph, but there is still Bowditch for "B," Dana for "D," Ellsworth for "E" and Fulton for "F." And, in the other direction, there is Allston for "A," Bancroft for "B," Channing for "C" and Dwight for "D."

Oakland Autos in Berkeley Parade

Headed by Captain of Police Charles Bock and a squad of police, representatives of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce today automobiled, in a decorated auto parade, to Berkeley to participate in the jubilee celebration of that city. The automobiles, gaily decorated with flags and bearing pennants with birthday greetings for the neighboring city, proceeded out Telegraph avenue to Shattuck, and thus into Berkeley. Mayor John L. Davie and several city officials were in the parade, driving at the head of the column behind the police machine, in the official car of the mayor.

Other machines were driven by A. Vander Naillen Jr., Grant D. Miller, A. S. Lavenson, Postmaster J. J. Rosborough, James Pedgrift and others. Rosborough was the official orator of the Oakland delegation.

Many Special Events Are Upon Program

BERKELEY, May 24.—The morning and afternoon features of the Golden Jubilee celebration today exhausted but a portion of the program which had been prepared. The remainder of the card, as announced by Chairman Louldeck of the Chamber of Commerce, will be carried out as follows:

6 p. m.—Special Jubilee dinners at hotels and clubs. Open house from this time on at Elks' Club, Allston way.

8:30 p. m.—Exhibition drill, Patriarchs Militant, reviewing stand.

9 p. m.—Exhibition drill, California Grays, reviewing stand.

9 p. m.—Dances at Hotel Carlton and halls in Central, West and South Berkeley.

COMMUNITY BRAVES ON BALL FIELD

BERKELEY, May 24.—Somewhere in the University of California mathematics department, perhaps, or among the graduates, is the man so left at figures that he could construct a box score of the fall game played on California field this afternoon for the Berkeley Dispensary's benefit, as a feature of the Berkeley Golden Jubilee celebration. None at the game was brave enough to try it, though some few venturesome ones did attempt to keep tally on the runs. When these have finished their computations, the result of the game will be announced to a waiting world.

It was not that energy and vim were lacking for proper fielding or that enthusiasm was needed to urge the men to better efforts. It was simply that the Science of Inside Ball took one look at the following lineup and fled:

THE TEAMS.

East Sides—E. T. Harms, commissioner of public supplies; Duncan McDuffie, capitalist; Herbert Jones, S. J. Sill, Fred Butterfield, A. O. Donogh and Marshall Steele, merchants; Jo S. Mills and W. A. Schockley, bankers; Perry Tompkins, capitalist; Walter A. Gompertz, commissioner of finance.

West Sides—Lester W. Hink and G. L. Schneider, merchants; William H. Waste, judge of the superior court; Supervisor Fred W. Foss, F. L. Naylor, banker; W. J. Mortimer and William E. Woolsey, capitalists; Judge John D. Murphey, formerly of the superior court; Chief of Police August Vollmer, Fred T. Robson, commissioner of public works; Wells Drury, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce.

And here were the occupants of the bench: Rev. F. X. Morrison, Richard B. Bell, attorney; Clarence S. Merrill, former postmaster; Dr. H. N. Rowell, past exalted ruler of Berkeley Elks.

Changes in the lineup were frequent and important, but this was about the arrangement with which the game was started. The first ball was pitched by Mayor S. C. Irving somewhat in the direction of the home plate. Andy Smith, football coach of the university, was scheduled as umpire.

MANY AT GAME.

Due to the efforts of Mrs. Henry Martinez and the women of the Berkeley Dispensary board, the attendance at the game equaled expectations. These had been boosting the sale of tickets for the last two weeks, and made special efforts during the day by posting attractive Berkeley maids with ticket tags at various vantage points about the city. It is expected as a result that a considerable sum will be turned over to the dispensary directorate.

The members thereof are seeking to secure sufficient funds for the erection of a new building on a site already possessed at Sixth street and University avenue. Attractive plans for a building have been drawn. The structure is to be in "U" shape, with the court at the back. One wing will be devoted to the living rooms of the resident nurse, Miss Edna I. Shuey. The street portion will be used for offices and administrative rooms, while the other wing will afford plentiful space for the several clinics maintained by the dispensary and one or two rooms for convalescents.

Junior Police Make First Appearance

BERKELEY, May 24.—The Junior Police, an organization under the heads of the police department, made its first public appearance in force at today's Golden Jubilee celebration. Several score of the boys were in the parade this morning, one detachment following the police and firemen in the first division of the parade.

The Junior Police contributed part of the comedy element to the parade with a patrol wagon of their own contrivance and a group of "policemen" to man it. One youth, who had donned the uniform of Policeman Jones, Berkeley's biggest patrolman, was one of the successes of the parade. A group of the boys in white uniform manned the patrol wagon, while others in blue composed a bicycle squad.

Chief Vollmer, Sergeant C. A. Becker, Patrolman Frank Waterbury and Patrolman H. P. Lee have been instrumental in drilling the Junior Police. Captain Don L. Harford of their organization directed them in the parade this morning.

Military Events Are Prominent in Jubilee

BERKELEY, May 24.—Military and pseudo-military organizations were much in evidence today in the events by which Berkeley celebrated her Golden Jubilee. This morning an exhibition drill was presented by Company C of the National Guard of Berkeley, which was the recipient of a medal from Thomas H. Fallon, recent president of the Chamber of Commerce.

Following the exhibition drill of the Patriarchs Militant before the reviewing stand this evening, the organization will be presented with a souvenir by H. W. Brunk. The second drill, to be given by the California Grays, will be similarly terminated when Chairman E. F. Louldeck of the Golden Jubilee committee presents an award. Captain W. D. Baldwin will direct the Patriarchs Militant and Captain C. F. Voorhies the California Grays.

A fourth military feature was the First Regiment band, which contributed to the musical program at the literary exercises.

Junior Boosters of San Jose Make Trip

ALAMEDA, May 24. — Thirty members of the Junior Chamber of Commerce of the San Jose High school were the guests of the Alameda High school student body yesterday. The visitors motored from the Garden City. The Alameda student body was convened to greet the visitors and several short talks were made by hosts and the San Joseans. Principal George C. Thompson also welcomed the visitors. An invitation to lunch was declined as the San Jose visitors were en route to San Francisco to be the luncheon guests of the San Francisco Polytechnic High school student body.

APPEALS FOR HIGHER CIVIC SPIRIT MADE

BERKELEY, May 24.—"Berkeley was named by men intent upon founding an institution of learning, but these men were consciously naming a town. In original conception, college and city were one. Practically the same men planned them both. In their wonderful progress there has been mutual interest and mutual effort on the part of college men and business men, and today college life and the business and social life of the city are woven into a single fabric. What the founders and builders, the pioneers and public spirited citizens have joined together, let no man put asunder."

Introducing his theme with these words, Professor Ira W. Howerth, director of the University of California extension division, made a plea for town and gown unity in the chief address at the literary exercises this morning, which were a portion of the Berkeley celebration of her Golden Jubilee. The exercises were held at the reviewing stands at Shattuck avenue and Center street, before which a throng of several thousand had gathered.

DEDICATION HELD.

The dedication of the Liberty Pole, recently erected there by the Chamber of Commerce, and the raising of the national emblem were another interesting portion of the program. In this part of the exercises participated 1000 children of the Berkeley schools, singing national airs, saluting the flag as it was hoisted high and pledging it their allegiance.

Charles D. Heywood, former mayor and now president of the Chamber of Commerce, was master of ceremonies at the exercises, which commenced after the parade of the earlier forenoon had countermarched past the stand. He told of the birth of the celebration idea and of the scope of the plans which had been made for it. The many visitors from out of town were given welcome in his address.

The program opened with an invocation by Rev. Edward Lamb Parsons, rector of St. Mark's Episcopal church. The flag was raised on its pole by the color sergeants of Company C, Fifth Regiment, National Guards, of this city, and the salute to the colors followed. The guard of honor was composed of members of Lookout Mountain Post and visitors from other posts of the Grand Army.

CHILDREN TAKE PART.

The school children offered "America" as their first song and followed its rendition by their own salute to the flag and pledge of allegiance. Another song, the "Stars and Stripes," was given by the Berkeley Oratorio Society. Mayor Samuel C. Irving made the first address of the day. He spoke especially of the manner in which Berkeley's name was chosen and gave some details of the city's history from that time to this. He emphasized in his address that Berkeley had been from her earliest times a city of achievement.

Following the singing of "My Own United States" by the oratorio society, Miss Blanche Morse, principal-elect of the McKinley elementary school and the daughter of a pioneer Berkeley family, pleaded with her hearers to keep the ideals of the city as high in the future as they had been in the past. In part, she said:

The city which will gather here this day fifty years, is the city which we vision today, for we and ours shall build it, inevitably, according to our vision. If that vision is narrow and poor and self-regarding, if it is material and greedy and make-shift, we shall build into our city meanness and selfishness, and narrowness and greed. But if we can catch and hold an ideal, we can make it real—shall inevitably make it real, if we see it clearly and steadily—a city beautiful within and without; a community of men and women who have civic ideals for which they will live.

A CLEAN CITY.

A city in which every house is a clean home, sweet with the breath of wind, of smooth and shady streets and ways, of wide and pleasant play spaces; a city which sees beauty and cherishes it, knows evil and forsakes it, loves peace and pursues it, demands honor in high places and honors it, sees poverty and want as social wrong and would right it, sees crime as ignorance and disease and would cure it, understands its common life and fosters it, has done with bickerings and jealousies and hatred and pettishness; looks to its children as its hope for days to come and opens wide for them the door of opportunity—makes the road to learning and to wisdom a royal road for their feet; sees clear the city that may be, and loves it into being. DISTRICT ATTORNEY MAKES INVESTIGATION

CORROBORATIVE "GRAFT" EVIDENCE LACKING

Hynes Letter to Official Tells of Investigation Already Made.

been awarded to a bidder other than the lowest. Some months ago Bartlett unsuccessfully attempted recall proceedings against Wilkens, Hammond and other Alameda councilmen. Today's developments treated of the more sensational of the two, the charge that a bribe had been asked of the Traction Company.

Mayor Bartlett reiterated today his assertion that the whole affair was laid before him by Brown. He said:

"Last spring Councilman Wilkens introduced his anti-jitney bus ordinance and caused action to be delayed for several weeks. Mr. Brown, of the San Francisco-Oakland Terminal Railways Company called on me and told me in my own office that Wilkens had suggested to him that if the Traction Company wished the ordinance to pass $3000 might be used to good effect.

"Brown, in his conversation with me, used the word 'holdup.' He believed that he was being held up and I believed the same. There was no doubt either in my mind or in Mr. Brown's as to what he meant when he said 'holdup.'

"Manager Brown of the San Francisco-Oakland Terminal Railways, despite any statements which he has made to the contrary, told me that Councilman Wilkens had approached him in person and suggested that for $3000 he would throw his vote toward the company. Wilkens was the man who introduced the ordinance and was repeatedly holding it up and having it continued.

"Brown further told me that an emissary of Councilman Hammond telephoned to him first and then approached him in person and told him that Hammond's vote could be obtained if a certain mortgage on a certain piece of property was paid off.

"I deny that I told Brown that I would veto the measure if passed. With reference to the threat of forcing the company to pave Santa Clara avenue I will explain. The company demanded that Webster street be exempted from paving, and I told Brown that when the company demanded this from the city it should at least come before the city with clean hands."

At the office of J. H. Brown of the Traction Company the following statement was given out this afternoon:

This company has persistently refused to be drawn into the continuous political controversies that seem to have existed for some months past between the mayor of Alameda and certain members of the council. We see no reason now to change our policy, and believe that this fully states our position.

Councilman Hammond made a reply to the charges today, intimating that he considered the mayor in an unsound condition of mind. Councilman Hammond said:

"I hardly think it worth while to deny the ridiculous charges of Mayor Partlett. If a denial would stop his silly, senseless tactics, I would be only too pleased, but, judging from the mayor's past incomprehensible acts and his present foolish conduct, I am afraid that this denial simply means denials every day or two to equally visionary ideas which the mayor brings forth and hatches into attacks on me. I believe that the mayor's line of procedure shows he is not in his right mind. The only thing I have to feel thankful for, is that in this latest instance he took the matter up with the district attorney instead of having another of his personally-conducted investigations by a staff of his chosen political supporters.

NO INFORMATION.

"The only information I have is second-handed, as I knew nothing of the charges, or the investigation, until, judging from the papers, the district attorney's office had probed them and found them groundless. I would be glad to lend the district attorney's office any assistance wanted to prove my official acts at any time, but evidently the charges were so visionary and groundless that the district attorney's office readily found they were scarcely entitled to serious consideration.

"I am not worried in the slightest over the charges, though such accusations are never pleasant, but I am worried over the holding up of the city of Alameda as a joke and as a community of freaks, faddists and insane persons. The city government right now is the greatest detriment to progress that Alameda has to contend with. It is more than unfortunate. It is almost a tragedy. There ought to be some way to stop all this silliness; some way to make city officials at least cease to harm their home community.

"Councilman John H. Wilkins is out of town. If he were here he would certainly speak in vigorous language regarding the charges the mayor makes against him, but he is not here and I want to say that the attack on Wilkens will surely prove to be as senseless and silly as the attack on me. I say this as a friend of Wilkens and I feel sure that his several thousand other friends in Alameda stand ready to say the same, without waiting for any investigation to show he is not a bribe taker."

District Attorney Hynes replied as follows to Mayor Bartlett today:

"Following the receipt of your letter of the 12th inst., in which you state that the passage of an ordinance which was introduced by Councilman J. H. Wilkens in the latter part of 1915, and which sought to regulate the operation of jitneys in the city of Alameda, was delayed from time to time, during which time Councilmen William Hammond Jr. and J. H. Wilkens had made the suggestion to Mr. J. H. Brown, of the San Francisco-Oakland Terminal Railway Company, that the passage of said ordinance could be secured only by the payment of money; that Mr. Brown of the company told you that Mr. Wilkens had stated to him that inasmuch as the company was losing about $100 a day because of the operation of the jitneys it ought to be worth a month's loss, or $3000, to have the ordinance passed by the Council, and that Mr. Hammond suggested that the company had better pay off a certain mortgage in Alameda, if it desired to have said ordinance passed, you called at my office in person, on the 16th day of May, and had a conversation with me supplementing your letter of the 12th.

"As a result, I have made a very careful investigation of the statements you laid before me, and have consulted with the witnesses whom you named.

"Mr. J. H. Brown states to me that Mr. Wilkens never made any statement to him such as indicated by you; that he never said to you that Mr. Wilkens had made any such statement; that Mr. Wilkens had never intimated to him directly or indirectly anything of an improper nature concerning the passage of that ordinance. Mr. Brown further stated that you had sent for him and an interview between you resulted, in which Mr. Brown stated to you that the continued delays with reference to the ordinance looked suspicious. He denies having anything about improper advances having been made to him. He states further that you told him that unless the company would lay a train in an endeavor to catch the councilmen in bribery, that you would veto the ordinance if it was passed, and that you furthermore stated that you would force a lot of paving work in the city of Alameda, which would cost the San Francisco-Oakland Terminal Railway Company a great deal of money.

FRANK H. BARTLETT.

"Mr. Brown's denials are heated and in several instances he used the 'shorter and uglier word.'

"Concerning Mr. Hammond, Mr. Brown stated that this councilman had never said or intimated to him anything concerning a mortgage or its payment, or anything in any way improper concerning the business of the council or the relation of the company to it.

"I also had an interview with Mr. Kenneth Mederaft, to whom you informed me Mr. Brown had made similar statements. Mr. Mederaft states that Mr. Brown never made any remarks concerning Mr. Wilkens, nor did he, Brown, state to Mederaft that Wilkens had intimated that the company should pay $3000 or any sum, to have the jitney ordinance passed. Mr. Mederaft did say that he had a conversation with Mr. Brown on a street car, prior to the introduction of the ordinance but while the ordinance was being discussed, and that Mederaft, in search of news, "pumped" Mr. Brown, who, in response to leading questions of Mederaft, did say that some one had suggested to him over the telephone that a certain mortgage should be paid by the company, but Brown had further stated to Mederaft that he did not know who the person was that made this suggestion, nor whom, if anybody, he represented.

"At this time, therefore, there is nothing before me as the District Attorney of this county, which would warrant me in instituting any criminal proceedings, as there is no evidence upon which to base any criminal charge.

"If you have any other or further evidence which you can present to me, or the names of any other persons who are in the possession of any facts, I shall be glad to have you submit the same to me in order that I may sift this matter to the bottom, and if any crime has been committed, take the steps provided by law to bring the guilty parties to justice."

Mayor Bartlett's complaint to the district attorney, dated May 12, 1916, read as follows:

"I write to call to your attention and to that of the Grand Jury of Alameda county, the following:

"About a year ago the San Francisco-Oakland Terminal Railway Company began negotiations, with myself and with members of the city council looking towards the adoption of an ordinance regulating jitney traffic. In essentials the ordinance desired was one that would prevent jitneys from using Santa Clara avenue.

"Mr. W. J. Alberger, manager of the company, informed me that he was taking the matter up through Councilman John H. Wilkens, who is chairman of the Public Utilities Committee of the council of the city of Alameda. Alberger complained to me that he was being put off continuously by Mr. Wilkens, and that he was having difficulty in having a proper ordinance introduced in the council.

"Towards the end of last year the ordinance was introduced by Mr. Wilkens. At the meeting of the council following its introduction, its final passage was delayed by Mr. Wilkens. Thereafter, its passage was postponed time after time.

"About this time I heard that two members of the city council of Alameda had made improper suggestions to Mr. Brown, whose first name or initials I do not know. He is an official of the San Francisco-Oakland Terminal Railway Company and was active at the time in advocating that the city council pass an ordinance regulating jitney traffic. My informant told me that Councilmen William Hammond Jr., and John H. Wilkens had made these suggestions, which were to the effect that the company could secure the passage of the desired ordinance only by the payment of money.

SENT FOR BROWN.

"I sent for Mr. Brown and had an interview with him at my Oakland office. He said to me that Mr. Wilkens had said to him that inasmuch as the company was losing about one hundred dollars a day because of the operation of the jitneys, it ought to be worth a month's such loss, or three thousand dollars, to have the ordinance passed by the council. Mr. Brown said that Mr. Hammond's suggestion was that the company had better pay off a certain mortgage in Alameda if it wanted this ordinance passed. It was made (this suggestion) by a friend of Mr. Hammond, first over the telephone and later in person. Mr. Brown declared that he had ignored the suggestion of Mr. Wilkens, but had told Mr. Hammond's friend plainly that the company would do nothing for him. These suggestions were made at a time when the passage of the jitney ordinance was being delayed meeting after meeting of the council. Mr. Brown denounced the action of these two councilmen as a holdup.

"I told Mr. Brown that it was his duty to lay these facts before yourself or the grand jury, but he declined to take any action without the sanction of his superiors in the company.

"A few days later, in company with Mr. A. F. Heuer, then a member of the city council, I visited the home of Mr. W. I. Brobek, in Berkeley, by appointment, and with the purpose of taking up the matter with him. Mr. Brobek is a director and attorney for the company. I told Mr. Brobek what Mr. Brown had told me, and asked him to assist in exposing these officials. He said that he could not do so on his own responsibility, but would arrange for a conference between Mr. John S. Drum, Mr. George Weeks, himself and myself. Mr. Drum is a director and Mr. Weeks is president of the company. This conference was held a few days later in the office of Morrison, Dunne and Brobek, in San Francisco. There were present Mr. Drum, Mr. Brobek, Mr. Heuer and myself. The statement made by me to Mr. Brobek was repeated by me, and in addition I urged the company officials to expose the Alameda officials in question. Mr. Drum, who did most of the talking, gave no final answer, but expressed himself as unwilling to do so, and Mr. Brobek concurred with him. The conference adjourned with the understanding that Drum and Brobek would consult with other officials before coming to a decision.

INTERVIEWS ALBERGER.

"I waited a week or so, and then called on Mr. Alberger, in Oakland, with the same purpose in view. I was more positive in my demands to Mr. Alberger, however, and pointed out to him that it was his duty, and that of his brother officials, as good citizens, to expose official corruption. Mr. Alberger, in the course of our conversation, said that he was convinced, by the way the two councilmen in question, Wilkens and Hammond, were acting, that they were trying to hold up the company. He did not say, however, that any improper proposals had been made to him. I told him furthermore, that if the company declined to do what was its manifest duty, I would consider that it was not coming to the city of Alameda with clean hands with its request, and that I would veto the ordinance if it was passed. He declared himself unable to do anything and referred me to Mr. Weeks, president of the company.

"A few days later I had a similar interview with Mr. Weeks. He declined to do anything.

"At none of these interviews between myself and the company officials was it even intimated by any of them that Mr. Brown had been mistaken, or that I was mistaken as to my information. It was taken for granted all along though possibly not admitted in so many words, that Wilkens and Hammond had made the suggestions I have outlined.

"The jitney ordinance slumbered unpassed for months. Finally, it was passed March 21, this year, by a vote of 6 to 3. Wilkens, Hammonds, Walker, Probst, Bullock and Morris voted in favor of it. I vetoed it.

"It is possible that in any investigation you or the grand jury may make of this matter, you will be met by unwillingness on the part of Mr. Brown or other company officials, to talk. Mr. Brown's statement to me, as related above, was positive. But the fact that Mr. Brown said these things does not depend on my word alone. Previous to my conversation with Mr. Brown, he made a similar statement to another man, who was the man, in fact, who told me of the circumstances. Though unwilling, this man will tell the truth if subpoenaed. If Mr. Brown tells what he knows, there will be no need of dragging my friend in. If Mr. Brown is recalcitrant, or evasive, I shall gladly put you in communication with him.

"I know that I can rely on your zeal and sense of public duty to investigate this matter to the bottom."

Mederaft, mentioned in Hynes' letter, is a reporter. On an assignment from a local newspaper he was sent to run down rumors, and so his name was brought into the case.

Merchants' Exchange Considers Ordinance

Members of the Merchants' Exchange at a meeting last night spoke in favor of changes of the present building ordinance and a committee of three, headed by E. L. Vander Naillen, has been appointed to confer with the building trades council, the Builders' Exchange and similar organizations to decide upon what steps to take.

A large number of the members of the Merchants' Exchange will leave for Chico next Saturday morning to attend the Butte County Spring Exposition. Many of the manufacturers of Oakland have exhibits.

A committee, composed of M. B. Morrison, H. N. Gard and E. L. Vander Naillen, was appointed to confer with the Oakland Council No. 394.

Council No. 395, United Commercial Travelers upon the holding of an industrial exposition at the auditorium next October.

The Memorial Day general committee of the G. A. R. and affiliated organizations has written the exchange a letter of thanks for its action in appropriating $150 for the Memorial Day exercises.

Building Loans to Meet in Convention

On May 26 and 27 the League of California Building Loan Associations will hold its eleventh annual convention in Berkeley, with headquarters at Hotel Shattuck.

During the convention discussions will occur on many subjects of interest to the business and the special discussion on rural credits, the principal contributor to this subject being Professor Elwood Mead of the University of California. Professor J. W. Gilmore will talk to the convention on diversification of agriculture in California.

The public is invited to attend the sessions Friday and Saturday. Deliberations will close Saturday night with a banquet.

Temporary Chairman Progressive Issue

NEW YORK, May 24.—In session today the executive committee of the Progressive party took steps toward naming a temporary chairman for the national convention, selecting a keynote speaker and arrange plans for the seating of delegates.

Secretary Davis brought plans of the convention hall to the executive session. The temporary chairmanship is understood to lie between Oscar Straus, Governor Johnson of California and Raymond Robins of Illinois.

Oakland Rotary Club to Select Officers

New officers and directors will be elected tomorrow night by the Oakland Rotary Club at a meeting to be held in the Blue Room of the Hotel Oakland. The club will choose a complete new board of directors, and a new president. V. O. Lawrence, who has headed the club for the past year, will retire.

During the past year the club has been prominent in civic affairs and has grown to a marked degree. Among its activities were the Old Home Songs concert, the Lee Emerson Bassett lecture series and several other large affairs.

Berkeley Couple Die in Auto Accident

BERKELEY, May 24.—George I. Marsh and wife of Berkeley, who were killed today in an automobile accident in San Bernardino county, are both very well known here. Marsh was a commercial traveler for a San Francisco firm, in the south on a business trip. Mrs. G. B. King, a daughter of the victims, received the news at her home here. Her husband left for the scene immediately to bring the bodies north. Mr. and Mrs. Marsh were prominent members of the First Baptist church of Berkeley.

Wire Tapping Inquiry Develops Two Points

NEW YORK, May 24.—The telephone wire tapping investigation today developed in two distinct directions. One involved the use of the method to obtain information regarding the activities of Seymour & Seymour, attorneys said to be interested in war munitions contracts. The other had to do with the "covering" of private telephone wires by the police to gain evidence regarding the conduct of certain Catholic charitable institutions.

Delay Naming of Southern Bishop

LOS ANGELES, May 24.—The appointment of a bishop for the Los Angeles and Monterey diocese has been postponed twenty days, it was learned here today.

Considerable comment resulted from the postponement among churchmen of Los Angeles. It had been considered certain a successor to Rt. Rev. Bishop Conaty would be chosen this week.

It was hinted in some quarters that the selection was delayed for the reason that the large diocese of Los Angeles and Monterey would be divided and that two bishops will be chosen.

JACKSON RECALL PETITION TOTTERS

Fight for Signatures Goes On; Mass Meeting to Be Held.

There will be no recall election, according to Dr. F. F. Jackson, against whom the recall petition was filed by Dr. Mabel Anthony and the Taxpayers' League.

Enough withdrawals have been obtained by friends of Commissioner Jackson to make the petition void. The number of withdrawals today is 1613. Of this number 818 have already been verified by City Clerk L. W. Cummings. Cummings will make his official report on the sufficiency or insufficiency of the recall tomorrow.

MEETING TONIGHT.

Mrs. Sarah B. Rice and Dr. Mabel Anthony announced today a mass meeting will be held at the Municipal Auditorium tonight to protest against the action of the city clerk in accepting the revocation of signatures to the recall, but refusing to accept the withdrawal of revocations that would reinstate the signer on the petition.

Mrs. Rice announced that the speakers at the mass meeting will include the Rev. William Keeney Towner, former Councilman A. P. Stiefvater and Dr. R. M. Higgins, former city health officer. The chairman, Mrs. Rice announced, will be Attorney Charles Shortridge.

Cards carrying "withdrawal of withdrawal" demands upon the city clerk, will be circulated at the mass meeting, and there will be notary publics to administer the oath to those wishing to withdraw their withdrawals.

"This will be a mass meeting to protest against this unlawful attack upon the rights of the people," said Mrs. Rice. "Over 10,000 good signatures have been filed with the city clerk. He has rejected a lot he should not have rejected; and he has accepted all these withdrawals.

"Gross misrepresentation was used in getting the withdrawals. People are ready to revoke their withdrawals. Others have absolutely been coerced into withdrawing their names. We want to protest against this unlawful and illegal method of nullifying the people's wishes.

"The city clerk has informed members of the Taxpayers' League that the petition will undoubtedly be thrown out, and that there will be no recall. We want to let the people know about this matter.

LEAGUE QUITS.

"The Taxpayers' League is ready to acknowledge it is beaten, and is not behind this mass meeting. They have laid down on the job. But we are not going to lie down."

The cards to which signatures will be sought tonight reads as follows:

"As a signer of a petition for the recall of F. F. Jackson as Commissioner of the City of Oakland, I have filed with you, as City Clerk, a verified revocation of my signature to sue petition. The revocation of my signature was made by mistake and under a misapprehension, consequently I desire to have my petition reinstated and my name restored as a petitioner for said recall and I hereby withdraw the said revocation of my signature and direct that you do not cancel my signature to the said petition, but that you restore the same and consider this as a withdrawal by me of the said revocation."

At a late hour this afternoon no arrangements had been made by the recall forces for the use of the auditorium.

U. S. Sailors to See Film of Submarine

Sailors from the Yerba Buena island training station, 250 strong, will visit Oakland Friday afternoon, under the command of Captain Philip Andrews, to be the guests of Manager Harry Cornell at the Pantages theater, when they are to see "The Secret of the Submarine," a film taken on United States submarines, and showing the undersea boat in operation, the machinery being particularly exhibited.

The sailors will land at the foot of Broadway in their launches, marching at once to the theater. The trip is to be taken as an educational feature, the sailors to inspect the submarine pictures to learn the construction of the undersea boats in detail.

LOTTERY ARRESTS.

Three arrests were made last night for the offense of being in possession of lottery tickets, in violation of ordinance 476. They were released on $10 bail each. Those arrested were Ah Fong, Seventh and Webster street; Ah Low, 633 Webster street, and Newton Williamsmon, Seventh and Poplar streets.

ITCHY SALT RHEUM

Sometimes Called Eczema—Removed by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Salt rheum is one of the worst and unfortunately one of the most common of all diseases. How it reddens the skin, itches, oozes, dries and scales, and then does this all over again! Sometimes it covers the whole body with inflamed, burning patches and causes intense suffering, which is commonly worse at night.

Local applications may do some good, but they cannot permanently relieve. The disease will continue to annoy, pain and perhaps agonize, until the blood has been purified and the general health improved.

Ask your druggist for Hood's Sarsaparilla, the good old reliable family remedy. It has given perfect satisfaction in thousands of cases. Insist on having Hood's Sarsaparilla, for no substitute acts like it. Get it today. —Advertisement.

Society and Those Socially Inclined

An interesting affair of the month in society was the bridge party given this afternoon by Mrs. Seymour Hall and her sister-in-law, Mrs. Shirley Houghton, at the Hall residence in Staten avenue. There were attractive decorations and dainty prizes, to add to the pleasure of the occasion at which fifty guests, most of them of the younger married set, were entertained. Mrs. Charles Houghton assisted her daughter and daughter-in-law in receiving, although there was no formal receiving party.

✿ ✿ ✿

GUESTS AT SUMMER HOME.

Mrs. Arthur L. Adams and Mrs. H. K. Jackson entertained guests over the week-end at their summer homes in Brookdale where the party that included members of the bridge club, enjoyed a very delightful reunion. Cards were the diversion of the evenings and there were drives and picnics to pass the time.

Mr. and Mrs. Jackson are planning to spend the summer in the east and will leave soon after the first of June.

✿ ✿ ✿

MISS RUCKER'S LUNCHEON.

Miss Marie Tyson, the fiancee of Frank Kales, was guest of honor at a luncheon given this afternoon by Miss Edith Rucker at her home in San Francisco. Later a number of additional guests were entertained at bridge, among them the girls who will be bridesmaids at the Tyson-Kales wedding in June. Mrs. Harry Weihs and Miss Josephine Johnson were among those present from this side of the bay.

✿ ✿ ✿

GIVE DINNER DANCE.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Russell Knowland gave a dinner dance last evening at their home in Alameda. There were 40 guests seated at several tables that were attractively decorated with pink roses.

✿ ✿ ✿

TEA AT THE OAKLAND.

This afternoon, Mrs. J. F. McMath was hostess at a very pretty tea at the Hotel Oakland where she entertained twenty-five of her friends.

✿ ✿ ✿

HAWAIIAN DINNER.

With yellow flowers for decorations and yellow and scarlet leis for favors, Mrs. J. L. Fuller gave an unusually artistic dinner at her home in Vernon Heights on Monday evening. There were twenty-four guests and several of them had been recent visitors to the island, whence Mrs. Fuller returned from a trip a few weeks ago. After dinner there was dancing and the music of ukeleles with mandolins and guitars to suggest an evening in Hawaii. Among the guests were Dr. and Mrs. R. B. Williams and Miss Williams of Hilo, who are relatives of the hostess, visiting San Francisco. Others present included Dr. and Mrs. Mark Tomar of Berkeley, Mr. and Mrs. John Gwilt, Dr. and Mrs. J. Plunkett, Mrs. J. C. Plunkett, Mrs. Cobbledick, Mrs. Gunning and James Cole.

SUGGESTIVE OF HOLLAND.

Miss Agnes Flanagan entertained a group of friends with a Dutch whist party on Monday at her home on San Jose avenue. Little Dutch windmills and delft blue in the decorative scheme added to the "Dutch" atmosphere of the afternoon. Miss Flanagan's guests were Misses Helen and Esther Bruton, Carol Higby, Eugenia Hauch, Martha Linderman, Alice Culver, Olive Hanley, Elizabeth Cockroft, Edith and Leah Corde, Elsie Bishop, Virginia Gohn, Marjorie Stanley, Dorothy Birbeck, Mildred Maurer, Marion Farrington, Sallie and Esther Robbins, Muriel Robinson, Isabel Flanagan, Zita Langhorne, Muriel Pattiani, Dora Duveneck, Helen Knowles and Gertrude Braue.

The Guy C. Earl place at Ben Lomond is the scene of a jolly house party of young people who are guests of Miss Elinor Earl. They are members of the Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority of which the hostess is also a member at the University of California.

WEDDING IN SEATTLE.

A wedding of interest to friends in the bay cities will take place this evening in Seattle where Miss Evelyn Carey and Edward Locksley Stanton of Los Angeles will be married. Both young people were recently graduated from the University of California and the engagement was announced in Berkeley several months ago. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Q. Stanton of Los Angeles and will take his bride to the southern city to reside. En route south they will visit Berkeley where they will be greeted by many of their college friends.

✿ ✿ ✿

TO PRESIDE AT DANCE.

Mrs. S. J. Ackerman, retiring curator of the social section of the Adelphian club, will be presiding hostess for the dance to be given by the section on May 27 as the closing event of this club section before the summer season opens.

✿ ✿ ✿

INTERESTING CONCERT.

Berkeley society was well represented at an interesting concert given last evening by Miss Ruby Moore, contralto, and Robert Rourke, violinist, at the Hotel Shattuck. The numbers were unusually well selected and Miss Moore's charming voice won much applause. Patrons and patronesses of the concert were: Mrs. Benjamin Ide Wheeler, Mrs. Armin O. Leuschner, Mrs. John Galen Howard, Mrs. Harris C. Capwell, Roscoe Warren Lucy, Signor and Mme. Antonio de Grassi, Mrs. Isabel Morgan, Miss Elizabeth Simpson, Mrs. Jessie Dean Moore and Julius R. Weber.

MRS. SHIRLEY HOUGHTON, WHO WITH HER SISTER-IN-LAW, MRS. SEYMOUR HALL, WAS HOSTESS AT A SMART BRIDGE PARTY THIS AFTERNOON.

✿ ✿ ✿

DANCE IN ALAMEDA.

Miss Margeret Noble was hostess at a dance last Friday evening at her home in Bay street, entertaining members of her class at the High school. The guests were:

Miss Alice Edinger, Miss Ruth Abbott, Miss Marion Hubbell, Miss Muriel Robinson, Miss Sallie and Miss Esther Robbins, Miss Marie Busse and Miss Helen Page, with Lesley Peader, Irving Edinger, Burton Wilcox, Mark McKimmins, William Rheems, Harold Kahn, Harry Thompson, Sherman Asche, Sherman Danna and Hal Davis.

Miss Zita Langhorne entertained the Star and Key honor society of the Alameda high school Saturday evening. Dancing, games and music were the diversions planned for her guests by Miss Langhorne.

✿ ✿ ✿

VISITORS FETED.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Pickett and Miss Virginia Pickett of Sacramento were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. P. Morehouse in Alameda. The Pickett family resided in Alameda before going to Sacramento to live and have many friends in the bay region. Sunday evening the visitors were guests of honor at a dinner given by Mrs. Alfred Latham, the other guests being Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Mitchell, Miss Alexine Mitchell and Mr. and Mrs. Martinoni.

VISITOR DEPARTS.

Mrs. M. L. Carter has returned to her home in San Francisco after a visit with her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Mabel Carter, at the latter's home in Pearl street, Alameda.

✿ ✿ ✿

GIVES BRIDGE PARTY.

A score of Mrs. A. C. Baumgartner's friends were entertained this afternoon at a bridge party at her home in Lenox avenue, where tomorrow afternoon another coterie will be entertained. Baskets of flowers decorated the rooms, and among the guests this afternoon were Mrs. Frank Mott, Mrs. William Milwain Mrs. Louis Ghirardelli, Mrs. Benjamin Cravens Mrs. Daniel Easterbrook, Mrs. Charles Carter, Mrs. Sam Hubbard, Mrs. Kate Tapscott, Mrs. Fred Winchester, Mrs. A. ✿ ✿ ✿

GIVES BRIDGE LUNCHEON.

An enjoyable affair of yesterday afternoon was the bridge luncheon given by Mrs. Helen Kidd, who entertained her guests at Hotel Oakland. Covers were laid at a flower-trimmed table in the dining-room, and after luncheon the guests found card tables in the tapestry room. Those present included members of one of the Piedmont card clubs, and among them were Mrs. C. J. Le Noir, Mrs. William MacKinnon, Mrs. B. A. Forsterer Mrs. A. W. Foshay, Mrs. Hamilton and Mrs. J. P. Fotter.

WEDDING IN THE FALL.

The marriage of Miss Helen Rosenberg of San Francisco and Sidney Kahn, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Kahn of Piedmont, whose engagement was announced this week, will take place in the fall. The bride-elect is the charming and accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Isador Rosenberg, whose home is in Commonwealth avenue, San Francisco. She has traveled much abroad and is a gifted musician. Her fiance belongs to one of Oakland's prominent families and the future home of the young people will probably be on this side of the bay.

✿ ✿ ✿

DINNER AT MARE ISLAND.

In honor of Commander and Mrs. J. M. Reeves, U. S. N., a dozen guests will be entertained at dinner this evening by Captain and Mrs. Frank Bennett at their home at Mare Island. Commander Reeves has just been appointed captain of the navy yard at Mare Island.

✿ ✿ ✿

PLAN CARD PARTY.

The ladies of the Unitarian Alliance will give a card party tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. M. de L. Hadley in Piedmont. It promises to be a delightful occasion and an invitation to be present is extended to all members of the church and their friends.

✿ ✿ ✿

LUNCHEON HOSTESS.

Mrs. Fred Magee was a luncheon hostess at her home in Vernon Heights yesterday, entertaining a score of guests who remained for an afternoon of bridge.

HIGH SCHOOLS WILL GRADUATE RECORD CLASS

Two hundred and forty-four students will receive their diplomas of graduation from the Oakland high schools June 2, when the annual graduation exercises will take place in the theater of the Oakland Municipal Auditorium. This is an increase of 45 over the graduating class of last year.

CHILDREN'S DAY HOME BENEFIT STARTS TONIGHT

Sisters of the Holy Family tonight will start the May Festival through which funds are to be raised for the support of the Children's Day Home at 1086 Eighth street. The affair, which is to be held in the Woodmen's hall, Pacific building, will continue until Saturday night.

The day home is to be used for the convenience of mothers who are employed and wish their children cared for during the day.

Supervisor John F. Mullins heads the executive committee of the festival, which has Miss Blanche Steel as its secretary. Other members are: Senator E. J. Tyrrell, County Auditor E. F. Garrison, A. Van der Nullen Jr., James Gartland, Arthur Rowe, John Gallagher, Charles McCarthy, J. F. Chambers, A. Peter Anderson, W. J. Hennessy, M. R. Bronner, J. A. Kennedy, Daniel J. Mullins, John Hyland, R. H. Hammond, Dr. A. F. Maine, Dr. J. P. Maher, J. D. Lynch, Dr. E. M. Purcell, George Nolan, Dr. J. F. Slavich, David Selby, A. T. Shine, Hubert Quinn, James Walsh, J. A. Hayes, J. F. Kenny, M. Roach, John Cox, J. Mulvaney, Walter Chowen, John Toland, C. J. Twomey, Edward Gogarty, J. M. Samuels, Thomas Sullivan and Elmer Dyer.

East bay society women who have been prominent in charitable work will be in charge of the booths.

LOCAL GIRLS SING TO FRITZI SHEFF

Is to Recommend Best Ones to Metropolitan Company; Likes Vaudeville.

Ever since it became known that Fritzi Scheff had listened to a number of aspirants while on a tour of the Orpheum circuit with an idea of recommending the three best for a place in the Metropolitan Opera House, the famous prima donna, has been besieged with a request for a hearing of ambitious maidens. In Oakland Fritzi Scheff has received exactly twenty-seven letters from these would-be grand opera stars, and the little lady is likely to have a very busy time with them during this week.

Fritzi Scheff used to be called, at the Metropolitan Opera House in New York, "The Little Devil of Grand Opera." She has flashed into vaudeville with tremendous success and today gave her explanation of how it was accomplished.

LOSES PATIENCE.

"I have no patience with those artists who feel their art too refined or too subtle for vaudeville," declares Miss Scheff. "My experience," she continues, "has demonstrated that vaudeville audiences are the most appreciative of all classes of amusement seekers and they are ever alert to pay homage where homage is due. But quite properly they will tolerate no pompous pretense, and woe to the artist who assumes that attitude.

"I am frank to confess that my debut in vaudeville was made in fear and trembling. I had heard stories of immediate and emphatic failures made by entertainers who had achieved distinction in other fields and quite naturally I was apprehensive as to how my offering would be received. In fact, I don't mind admitting that if I had not doubted my reception I should have made my appearance there long ago.

FORTUNE FAVORS.

"But fortune and a little foresight favored me. On investigating failures I found that the big percentage of them was due to the vehicles of the artists and not to the artists themselves. They had not studied the requirements of vaudeville audiences sufficiently to equip themselves properly. Possibly some of them labored under the delusion that anything in which they might appear would suffice, thereby placing a false valuation on their own importance.

"Convinced that this was a fallacy I determined to get together an offering that would reveal the best in me in the limited time in a vaudeville act and I am happy to say that the result has been satisfactory both to the managers and myself. Vaudeville likes me and I like vaudeville and there I propose remaining for some time to come."

Mosquitoes Banish Matrimonial Bliss

HOHKUS, N. J., May 24.—Louis Vogler, a musician of this town has found that Jersey mosquitoes and matrimony do not mix, so he is petitioning Vice Chancellor Stevenson for a divorce from Mrs. Mary C. Vogler, to whom he has been married twenty-eight years. He charges:

His wife refused to live in New Jersey because of the mosquitoes, and when he insisted on a residence here, refused to cook breakfast for him.

Accused him of being too friendly with chorus girls, and in a rage tore up the garden, "uprooting the gladioli bulbs, wrecking the tomato vine, digging up the narcissus and tearing down the morning glories."

Threw a bureau drawer at him.

Brandished a revolver, threatening his life.

Vogler, not wishing to swap a stock of time for a larger chunk of eternity, packed his trunk and moved.

Groom Did Not Pay Pastor, but Stole Hat

ST. PAUL, May 24.—During special services, the Rev. H. N. Wilson was called from the pulpit of his church to the study to marry a strange couple.

"I am not able to pay you now," the man explained after the knot was tied hurriedly, "but I will send you the money."

A short time later in his study the pastor donned his overcoat. He reached for his hat, a new one purchased for Easter.

In its place was a much-worn derby, suspiciously like the one worn by the bridegroom.

RING PHONY; $25 AND COSTS.

CHICAGO, May 24.—Thomas J. Delaney, 62 years old, who says he is a telegraph operator, without a home, was fined $25 and costs by Judge Dolan yesterday. Peter Vassilos, owner of an ice cream parlor, caused Delaney's arrest when the latter tried to sell him a "gold" ring for $5 that, he said, was worth $15. A jeweler said there was no gold in it. Delaney testified he was out of work and had to "make a living some way."

HORSE THROWS AND KILLS.

YORK, Pa., May 24.—Thrown from her horse when the animal bolted almost in front of her home, Miss Natalie Noel, 22 years old, one of the most popular young women of McSherrystown, was injured so badly she died.

CARLS' BEDTIME STORY

By HOWARD R. GARIS

Uncle Wiggily Longears, the nice rabbit gentleman, was out walking in the woods one day when he felt rather tired. He had been looking all around for an adventure, which was something he liked to have happen to him, but he had seen nothing like one so far.

"And I don't want to go back to my hollow stump bungalow without having had an adventure to tell Nurse Jane Fuzzy Wuzzy about," said Mr. Longears. But, as I said, the rabbit gentleman was feeling rather tired, and, seeing a nice log covered with a cushion of green moss, he sat down on that to rest.

"Perhaps an adventure will happen to me here," thought the bunny uncle as he leaned back against a pine tree to rest.

It was nice and warm in the woods, and, with the sun shining down upon him, Uncle Wiggily soon dozed off in a little sleep. But when he awakened still no adventure had happened to him.

"Well, I guess I must travel on," he said and he started to get up, but he could not. He could not move his back away from that pine tree against which he had leaned to rest.

"Oh, dear!" what has happened?" cried the bunny uncle. "I am stuck fast! I can't get away! Oh, dear!"

At first he thought perhaps the skillery-scallery alligator with the humps on his tail had come softly up behind him as he slept and had him in his claws. But, by sort of looking around backward, Mr. Longears could see no one—not even a fox.

"But what is it holding me?" he cried, as he tried again and again to get loose, but could not.

"I am sorry to say I am holding you!" spoke a voice up over Uncle Wiggily's head. "I am holding you fast!"

"Who are you, if you please?" asked the rabbit gentleman.

"I am the pine tree against whom you leaned your back. And on my bark was a lot of sticky pine gum. It is that which is holding you fast," the tree answered.

"Why—why, it's just like sticky flypaper, isn't it?" asked Uncle Wiggily, trying again to get loose but not doing so.

"Yes, flypaper is made from my sticky pine gum," said the tree. "I am so sorry you are stuck, but I did not see you lean back against me until it was too late. And now I can't get you loose, for my limbs are so high over your head that I can not reach them down to you. Try to get loose yourself."

"I will," said Uncle Wiggily, and he did, but he could not get loose, though he almost pulled out all his fur. So he cried:

"Help! Help! Help!"

Then, all of a sudden, along through the woods came Neddie Stubtail, the little bear boy, and Neddie had some butter, which he had just bought at the store.

"Oh!" cried the pine tree. "If you will rub some butter on my sticky gum, it will loosen and melt it, so Uncle Wiggily will not be stuck any more."

Neddie did so, and soon the bunny uncle was free.

"Oh, I can't tell you how sorry I am," said the pine tree. "I am a horrid creature, of no use in this world, Uncle Wiggily! Other trees have nice fruit or nuts or flowers on them, but all I have is sticky gum, or brown, rough ugly pine cones. Oh, dear! I am of no use in the world!"

"Oh, yes you are," said Uncle Wiggily, kindly. "As for having stuck me fast, that was my own fault. I should have looked before I leaned back. And, as for your pine cones, I dare say they are very useful."

"No, they are not!" said the tree, sadly. "If they were only ice cream cones they might be some good. Oh, I wish I were a peach tree, or a ripe bush!"

"Never mind," spoke Uncle Wiggily. "I like your pine cones, and I am going to take some home with me, and, when I next see you, I shall tell you how useful they were. Don't feel so badly."

So Uncle Wiggily gathered a number of the pine cones, which are really the seed cases of the pine tree, and the bunny uncle took them to his bungalow with him.

A few days later he was in the woods again and stopped near the pine tree, which was sighing and wishing it were an umbrella plant or a gold fish.

"Hush!" cried Uncle Wiggily. "You must try to do the best you can for what you are! And I have come to tell you how useful your pine cones were."

"Really?" asked the tree, in great surprise. "Really?"

"Really and truly," answered Uncle Wiggily. "With some of your cones Nurse Jane started her kitchen fire when all the wood was wet. With others I built a little play house, and amused Lulu Wibblewobble, the duck girl, when she had the toothache. And other cones I threw at a big bear that was chasing me. I hit him on the nose with them, and he was glad enough to run away. So you see how useful you are, pine tree!"

"Oh, I am so glad," said the tree. "I guess it is better to be just what you are, and do the best you can," and Uncle Wiggily said it was.

And, if the roof of our house doesn't come down stairs to play with the kitchen floor and let the rain in on the gold fish, I'll tell you next about Uncle Wiggily and the bee tree.

Eurydice Club to Hold Final Concert

The final concert of the Eurydice Club, a long established east bay women's choral society, will take place this evening in the Unitarian auditorium, Fourteenth and Castro streets, and will be followed by an informal dance. Felix M. Locher, baritone, and Mrs. Mabel Hill Redfield, accompanist, will assist.

Besides many choral numbers there will be solos by Locher, Mrs. Marion Hovey Brower and Mrs. Gretchen Ayres, as well as a duet, "The Chambered Nautilus," by Mrs. H. H. A. Beach, in which Mrs. Brower and Mrs. Ayres will take the solo parts. Among the choral numbers will be Strelezki's "Berceuse," with a violin obligato played by Mrs. M. Roy Stover.

Felix Locher will be heard in "Non E Ver" (Miss Mabel) and the aria, "De l'Art Splendour Immortelle," from the French opera, "Benvenuto," by Diaz. This singer has sung both songs before on the concert stage in Nice with orchestra.

JOVIANS TO MEET.

Electrical men on both sides of the bay will gather on June 10 for the annual "rejuvenation" of the Jovian Order. The affair will take place in Oakland. A committee headed by F. H. Woodward, Romaine Meyers and B. C. Hill is in charge.

FINE CLOTHES MAY SET FREE WOMEN, FEAR

A court officered by women, that the feelings of a susceptible Judge may not be influenced by a defendant with curly hair and short skirts, was one of the reforms suggested by the California Civic League at its annual meeting held in San Francisco yesterday afternoon, the report of the legislative committee telling of the threat of a certain delinquent to "doll up" for the confusion of the Judge and jury, being the cause of the suggestion.

A court officered by women, it was pointed out, would never be affected by the last word in high shoes, and such a court was therefore recommended.

Out of twelve measures presented by the legislative committee for indorsement by the league, the three selected related to changes in community property laws to make conditions as pleasant for widows as for widowers, the admitting of women on juries, and the care of feebleminded.

The feeble-minded were the subject of discourses by Calvin C. Derrick of the Preston School of Industry and of Dr. Lewis M. Terman of Stanford University. A resolution was passed favoring the enforcement by officials, individuals and societies throughout the State of the red-light abatement law.

The officers elected for the coming year are:

President, Mrs. Mary Roberts Coolidge; first vice-president, Mrs. Robert O. Moody; second vice-president, Mrs. E. M. Huff; third vice-president, Miss Pauline Warner; treasurer, Mrs. I. Damon; recording secretary, Miss Muriel Ransom; corresponding secretary, Dr. Mary Jones Mentzer; auditor, Miss Julia George; directors, Mrs. H. L. Hagan, Mrs. J. P. Balsun, Mrs. F. C. Havens and Mrs. Katherine Phillips Edson.

Judgment Rendered Against Railroad

HANFORD, May 24.—Judge Short of Kings county yesterday gave the California Adjustment Company judgment against the Santa Fe railroad for several small claims for excessive freight charges totaling $126,000.

San Joaquin valley merchants assigned claims aggregating $300,000 to the adjustment company, which sued both Santa Fe and Southern Pacific companies.

It was contended that the local rates on freight shipments from San Francisco to Hanford and twenty other cities in this valley were higher than the through rate from San Francisco to Los Angeles.

The defense claimed that the railroad commission allowed the railroad companies to deviate from the letter of the long and short haul regulations.

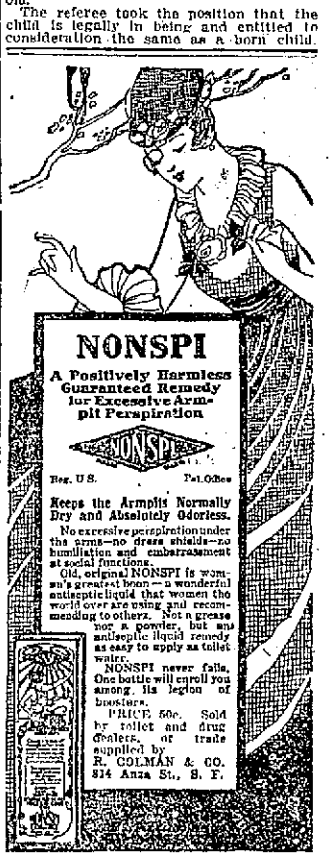

The judge, commenting upon this order, said the railroad commission had erred in making it without a hearing.

Compensation Awarded for Unborn Child

PHILADELPHIA, May 24.—Compensation for a child yet unborn, to become effective at birth and continue until the child is 16 years old, is awarded by Referee W. W. Champion of Williamsport, in a decision made public by the workmen's compensation board here today.

Robert C. Kehres, father of the unborn child, was killed January 18, on the dock of the Williamsport Coal Company. After a hearing of the case, Referee Champion awarded the widow, Mrs. Helen Kehres, $7.20 a week from January 18 to the date when the child is born, or 40 per cent of Kehres' wages, which were $18.70 a week. From the birth of the child and until three hundred weeks afterward, the widow and child are to receive $8.41 weekly. At the end of the 300th week the child itself is to receive $2.80 a week until it becomes 16 years old.

The referee took the position that the child is legally in being and entitled to consideration the same as a born child.

This Skin Peeler All the Rage in Society

There is a growing tendency among women of culture and fashion to pay more attention to hygienic means of preserving their charms. The advent of mercolized wax doubtless has been largely responsible for this. This remarkable substance produces complexions so natural in appearance, so magnetically beautiful, artificial complexions are no longer desired. Instead of "doctoring" an offensive skin, the skin is peeled off. The wax peels the skin so gradually, in such fine particles, no discomfort is experienced. The fresher, younger skin beneath, wholly in evidence within a week or two, is lily white, satiny soft and smooth. It's not a patched-over complexion, but a brand new one. That's why mercolized wax has become such a rage among society folk. The wax is put on nights like cold cream and washed off mornings. All druggists have it; one ounce will do.

Another hygienic treatment now much in favor is one to remove wrinkles, made by dissolving 1 ounce powdered saxolite in half pint witch hazel. Used as a wash lotion it "acts like magic."—Advertisement.

State Has Jobs; Minus Applicants

Public Bureau Cannot Find Enough Workers

California's new state public employment bureaus cannot find enough suitable persons to fill all the positions offered by employers throughout the state, according to a report made public today by State Labor Commissioner John P. McLaughlin. Since the bureaus were opened February 1 in San Francisco, Los Angeles, Oakland and Sacramento, 8225 positions have been offered, 7759 job-hunters have been referred to them, and 5900 have been filled permanently.

Business took a big jump in April, when 3286 permanent places were found. This figure came within 228 of equaling the number of positions filled in both February and March, and exceeded the March number by 1197.

Both employers and employes were using the bureaus in numbers. Applications for work have been received from 11,729 men and women and 3512 employers have offered positions.

Employes have saved over $17,000 by using the bureaus, according to the prevailing fees charged by private agencies. In April approximately $7500 was saved.

The San Francisco office has been the busiest. In April 1203 men and 858 women obtained positions, an increase of 634 over March. In Oakland 443 men and 141 women received positions during the month. The Sacramento office filled 345 positions for men and 39 for women. Places were furnished 756 men and 43 women in Los Angeles. During the three months the San Francisco office referred 2830 applicants to 3289 positions and 2528 were accepted. In April the bureaus filled 1696 positions in the cities in which they were located and 1590 in other sections of the state.

The interest of the laboring classes in the workings of the bureaus is growing, as 4366 asked for work in April, as against 7369 in February and March. The San Francisco office received 2127 of the April applications.

PINK PAJAMAS; PINK ROOM EVIDENCE

NEW YORK, May 24.—Chas Van Buskirk, a Wall-street realty broker, was called "Tubby dear" by Mrs. Bertha Fritchy of Harrisburg, Pa., according to his wife, Mrs. Florence Van Buskirk, who is seeking a divorce. The Van Buskirks live in Hackensack, N. J. The case was heard by Vice-Chancellor Lewis in Jersey City yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. Van Buskirk said that while Mrs. Fritchy was visiting at the Van Buskirk home from November 22 to December 5, 1913, she leaned over the banister one night just in time to hear Mrs. Fritchy say to Van Buskirk:

"Is oo hungry, Tubby dear? If oo is I'll take oo some bouillon."

This aroused Mrs. Van Buskirk's suspicions, so she said, and she engaged detectives. She added that she and the detectives surprised Van Buskirk and Mrs. Fritchy in the pink guest room a few days later.

Van Buskirk asserts the whole affair is a "frameup." Mrs. Fritchy says so, too. In her testimony she said she surprised Mrs. Van Buskirk and Franklin Briggs, an undertaker of Hackensack, together one night. She said Briggs was attired in pink silk pajamas and Mrs. Van Buskirk had on a pink silk nightgown. Briggs denied this.

Swedish Society to Entertain With Dance

Members of Swedish Tegner Lodge, Order of Vasa of America, will entertain tonight at Blake Hall, when a dance with a program of music and story telling as a special feature, will be given. The committee in charge includes the following: Mrs. R. Almquist, Miss Ohman, Miss Johnson, Miss Larson, Theo Olson, J. Jarl, Arvid Olson and Allan Johnson.

CHILDREN OF GERMANY.

COLOGNE, Germany, May 24.—Garden planting of sunflowers for the sake of the oil contained in the seeds was all the rage last year. It was also sufficiently successful so that it is being urged on a large scale this spring. The very latest suggestion is that the school children of Germany shall utilize part of their spare time by systematically planting sunflowers along every mile of the road in the empire.

Drastic Price Cutting Sells Many Pianos.

To sell over forty pianos in only a few days' time can only be accomplished by the most drastic price-cutting. On the forty exchange pianos, used Player Pianos, that we are going to sell within the next few days, we have reduced the prices in every case to far less than the original wholesale cost. In no instance if you will call at our store, will we let you leave without purchasing a piano. We will make the prices and terms so attractive that you can't help but buy a piano. There is a Piano here for every pocket book, no home need be without a piano when such pianos as a small-sized Fischer can be purchased for $79, Cullen & Sons, $85, Weber $89, Irvington Player $195, other players regularly selling for $750 and $850 may now be purchased for less than half their original selling price, and best of all, terms to suit your own convenience may be arranged on any piano or player piano that you select.

Without a doubt this is the greatest opportunity that was ever offered by any Music House to secure a good standard make piano at so small a price.

In our recent Exposition Sale, just closed, we were obliged to take in exchange many fine pianos on Exposition Models. We sold nearly every piano allotted to us that was on exhibition at the World's Fair. Music Teachers, Professors, Merchants, Lovers of Music in all walks of life were eager to secure one of the Exposition Model Pianos for their homes with the consequence that it was necessary for us to accept their pianos in part payment. We now find our floors crowded with pianos, Player Pianos and Grand Pianos and in order to make room for other shipments due to arrive most any time, we have reduced the prices so that a piano is in reach of all and those taking advantage of this opportunity will benefit in price, terms and some instances the pianos offered can hardly be told from brand new. In many cases, the pianos offered in this sale came from the most beautiful and expensive homes in the East Bay section. There are however, a dozen or more Exposition Models that took gold medals at the Fair still unsold and these we are including in the general Clean-up Sale. There are two beautiful little Chickering Grands both priced at big reductions and these instruments really offer some home a wonderful chance of getting the finest and oldest piano made at a substantial reduction that will never be possible again.

If you are not just ready to purchase a piano come and see these pianos anyway. It is probably and quite likely that we may be able to work out some arrangement whereby you can take advantage of this great sale offer. Call at your very earliest convenience and avail yourself of a choice selection. Every piano has been thoroughly overhauled and tuned and our guarantee accompanies every purchase with a written exchange agreement good for three years. Again, we warn you to call at once. Telephone for our Automobile and we will call for you without any obligation to purchase unless you find a piano that suits you. Names of Women May Be Barred From Suit

SAN FRANCISCO, May 24. — Rallying to the defense of the four women named as co-respondents by his wife, William J. Rogers, millionaire lumberman of San Francisco, today filed a motion to strike out most of the allegations in the divorce complaint of Mrs. Margaret J. Rogers, of San Jose. The case, which has been transferred to the local Superior Court, is likely to attract wide interest by reason of the prominence of all of the women whose names are emblazoned in Mrs. Rogers' sensational complaint.

They are Dr. Matilda A. Seeley, Miss Nan Rounds, Miss B. M. F. Keller and Miss Eaton.

Through Attorney Walter H. Linforth, Rogers today asked the court to wipe out more than a dozen specifications of cruelty as well as to eliminate the names of the alleged affinities. He declares that most of the charges should not have been tabulated as they are barred from figuring in the divorce proceedings by reason of the lapse of time.

Superior Judge Van Nostrand will hear the motion to strike out on June 2.

Moose Named to Plan for Flag Ceremonial

Oakland lodge of Moose has appointed a committee to formulate a flag ceremonial to be held after the opening of the weekly lodge meetings. The committee in charge consists of Judge George Samuels, chairman; W. J. Hamilton, M. Goldwater, H. M. Tyrrel and L. R. Keller.

Beginning June 1 Oakland Lodge will start a ninety-day membership campaign. The campaign will be the largest waged in the east bay region and the workers will consist of two battalions, four companies and more than 100 privates.

CELL FOR WIFE POISONER.

MATTOON, Ill., May 20.—Joseph Vandyke Waters of this city, tried at Charleston for poisoning his wife, was found guilty, the jury fixing the penalty at life imprisonment.

Mrs. Waters died last summer from strychnine poisoning and suspicion fell upon the husband, he having administered to her medicine from a spoon that Mrs. Waters said was bitter. He was supposed to give to her a harmless tablet that had been left for her use by a physician.

Cocoanut Oil Fine for Washing Hair

If you want to keep your hair in good condition, be careful what you wash it with.

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alakli. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and is very harmful. Just plain mulsified cocoanut oil (which is pure and entirely greaseless), is much better than the most expensive soap or anything else you can use for shampooing, as this can't possibly injure the hair.

Simply moisten your hair with water and rub it in. One or two teaspoonfuls will make an abundance of rich, creamy lather, and cleanses the hair and scalp thoroughly. The lather rinses out easily, and removes every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves it fine and silky, bright, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get mulsified cocoanut oil at most any drug store. It is very cheap, and a few ounces is enough to last everyone in the family for months.—Advertisement.

Doro at Broadway Is Lasky Film Feature

MARIE DORO, SUPERLATIVE STAR OF MOVIE DRAMA.

Fascinating Marie Is to Be Seen in Drama

Now under a long-term contract with the Jesse L. Lasky Feature Play Company, Marie Doro, beautiful and talented dramatic artist, will be seen at the Broadway, starting Wednesday, for four days, in "The Heart of Nora Flynn," a thrilling photodrama by Hector Turnbull and Jeanie MacPherson, authors of "The Cheat," and produced under the personal direction of Cecil B. DeMille, director general for the Lasky Company. In this production the charming star is seen as a nurse maid in the employ of a wealthy family. How she saves the wife from disgrace, although jeopardizing her own love, and how the affairs are finally adjusted, go toward making a story gripping in its intensity and unusual in its theme. Miss Doro is surrounded by a cast of unusual excellence, including Elliott Dexter, Lola May, Ernest Joy, Charles West, "Little Billy" Jacobs, Margaret George, Mrs. Lewis McCord, and other members of the Lasky all-star organization. It is released on the Paramount program.

German Bazaar to Close Tonight

SAN FRANCISCO, May 24.—The German Relief Bazaar in the Civic Auditorium in San Francisco continues to amaze even its managers by the way the money is piling in to aid the distressed Germans. With receipts for Monday night not officially counted, the total takings to date approximate about $130,000, which is a record that will set a high standard for the future. Tonight is the last night of the bazaar, and will be celebrated in lavish fashion by all the booths. A record crowd will be on hand to view the beautiful picture of the Oriental city for the last time.

The Pacific Hebrew Orphan Asylum's excellent band, the male chorus of the Gesangverein, under Joseph Relgger, director, and the wrestling matches between Ad Santel and W. Dittmer will be features.

GREAT APPLE TASK.

MELBOURNE, Australia, May 24.—The Australian apple crop, which is unusually big this year, is seriously affected because of the dearth of ships for export. In the two chief apple-producing states, Tasmania and Victoria, nearly 5,000,000 cases of apples have been harvested, but not more than a million cases can be exported. There will thus be left nearly 4,000,000 cases of apples from these states alone, and Australia must either eat them or see them go to waste. There being some 4,000,000 people in the commonwealth, every man, woman and child in the country will have to eat an apple a day regularly for five months if the whole unexportable harvest is consumed.

PREACHES TO LOAN HEARER.

ATCHISON, Kas., May 22.—Although there was only one man in his audience, the Rev. H. A. Ott of Topeka, Lutheran missionary superintendent of Kansas, recently preached a sermon in an Effingham church. He is trying to renew interest in a church that virtually has been abandoned. Bad weather kept away all but one parishioner.

What Do You Know About The Maxwell Car?

THIS is the time of the year when more people are considering the question of "what car to buy" than at any other time of the year.

This community has its full share of people who will soon be driving their first car or a new car to replace the old one.

Now, we know that we are going to sell Maxwell Cars to a great many of these people—depending upon how many we are able to acquaint with the merits of the Maxwell.

The generous value offered in the car is so evident—its past record is so full of good performance—owners speak so well of it—that when the buyer knows these things, he is eager to buy a Maxwell.

In order to tell as many people as possible about the merits of the Maxwell Car we are going to spend a lot of money in the next few weeks in this paper advertising Maxwell merits to those who do not know them.

The reason—we want to sell as many Maxwells as possible this season. Our future allotments will depend upon how many Maxwells we sell now.

You may know that the Maxwell market is a buyer's market, not a seller's market—broadly speaking. The demand for Maxwells the country over is greater than the supply.

For this reason cars are allotted to dealers by the factory according to the size of the dealer's business.

We want to make a showing and be in a position to get a generous allotment of Maxwells hereafter. Because the more Maxwells are sold in any community, the greater is the future demand. We realize the opportunity to do an ever-increasing Maxwell business.

This is only the first of the several messages we are going to print—a few days apart—concerning the Maxwell Car. But we don't expect to be able to adequately present Maxwell merits in printed words alone.

If you are one who is going to buy a new car you will find it decidedly to your advantage to find out all you can about the Maxwell before you place your order.

Come in and talk it over with us and let us demonstrate the car to you. Then, don't take our word alone, but ask those who now own Maxwells.

Get "posted" about the Maxwell and you will realize more satisfaction and get more "value received" for your motor car money than ever before.

And we are just as willing to have you investigate other cars just as fully as you do ours. The Maxwell will not suffer by the comparison.

Why not start your Maxwell investigation today?

POLICE WEAVE EVIDENCE CHAIN

Clews Point to Bennett Thompson as Murderer of Hillsboro Woman.

PORTLAND, Ore. May 24.—Unable to find a clew which points to anybody else, detectives today began weaving their circumstantial evidence about Bennett Thompson, held at Hillsboro, in connection with the murder of Mrs. Helen Jennings ten days ago.

The search for the body of Fred Ristman, the jitney driver who drove the supposed murderer to Mrs. Jennings' home, was resumed today. A jitney driver yesterday pointed to Thompson in a group of other prisoners and said that he was "morally certain" that Thompson was the man who rode away with Ristman on Monday night, May 15. Another jitney driver who saw Ristman's passenger was not so positive in his identification.

Another bit of evidence is the finding of an undershirt on his clothes line with some indistinct stains on it. The stains responded to a crude blood test, but a more exacting chemical test left some doubt whether the stains were blood. Detectives declare these stains correspond in size and position to bloodstains found on a shirt near the scene of the crime. They are unable to explain the fact that the torn and bloody shirt is two sizes small for Thompson, however.

HUNT AT STANDSTILL.

SEATTLE, May 24.—No progress was reported here today in the search for the murderer of Mrs. Erma Smith, aged 70 years, whose mutilated body was found in a tent near Badger mountain by her brother, Ezra Hunt.

She had been shot with a 22-caliber rifle and her skull smashed with some heavy instrument.

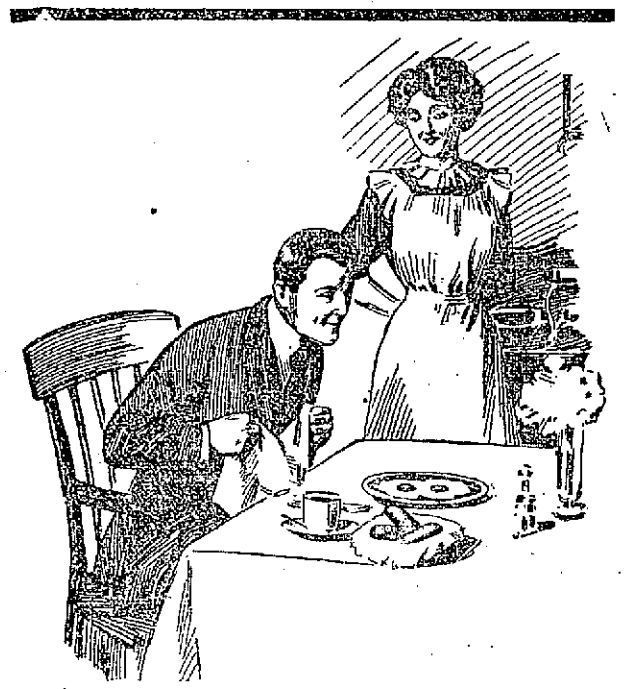

The murderer was tracked as far as the Longview orchard, where the trail was lost.

Robbery is believed to have been the motive. Her pocketbook was found a mile from the tent, although the slayer overlooked a letter containing $25 tucked in her bosom.

Hunt and his sister had taken up a homestead and were living in the tent. At the time of the crime Hunt was absent. He returned to find his sister lying on the floor dead.

Bridegroom Killed in Fall Down Shaft

BAKER, Ore., May 24.—Jack Leigh, a miner and bridegroom of three months, was instantly killed when he fell from a cage in the Rainbow mine and plunged to the bottom of the shaft 100 feet below. The accident occurred last night. Leigh's body was brought to Baker today.

Fried Eggs are Delicious

CRISCO

For Frying—For Shortening For Cake Making

Then they have only the sweet, natural, delicate, fresh egg taste, the same as when boiled or poached; they are as good to look at as to eat—no burnt edges or black specks; and they are easier than ever to digest.

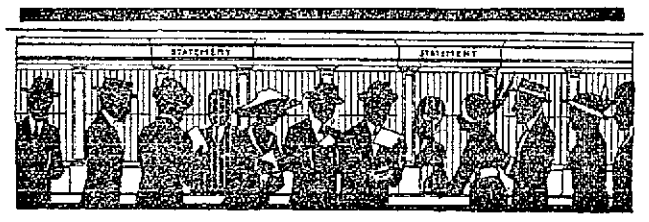

Use Crisco the next time you fry eggs, and you will be so agreeably surprised that you will be eager to try it for other foods.

No matter where else you use it, you will secure remarkable results, for Crisco embodies all the qualities which a cooking product should have to be equally satisfactory for frying, for shortening, and for cake and bread making.

Crisco is purely vegetable, absolutely clean in origin and manufacture. It stands a very high temperature without burning. It is sweet, delicate, delicious and wholesome.

It is for these reasons that you can use it for frying doughnuts, croquettes, etc., for shortening pastry and for making cake, and secure as remarkable results as when frying eggs.

"Your Statement Is Ready"

Suppose you were in charge of a business with 9000 to 10,000 active accounts on your books. And suppose that it was necessary to make charges on many of these accounts as often as ten times a day—and to credit others with payments as often as twenty-five times a month.

If you were confronted with such a problem in a mercantile business, you know what a huge task it would be.

Yet, on the morning of the first of each month your statement at the Central is ready for you. System and organization enables us to render you this service—quite often not appreciated.

LANDERS STEVENS, WHO PLAYED POLICE CHIEF PART BEFORE REAL ONE.

"New Police Chief" Sees Pantages' Sketch of That Name

Opposing creeds were seated before the same stage, looking at the same lesson, from different viewpoints last night, when Landers Stevens and Georgie Cooper presented, at the Pantages, their sketch, "The New Chief of Police." In one box sat Chief of Police Walter J. Petersen, whose attitude on the segregation of the red light district is so well known that his appearance created a flutter of excitement throughout the house. In another box sat several prominent Oakland women, leaders in the reform forces and in the fight that closed the tenderloin in Oakland.

Friends of Chief Petersen pointed out to Stevens after the show that sociologists throughout the United States had endorsed the play for the lesson it taught. The woman told Stevens that the picture, perhaps, was too frank for the stage.

"I believe this is not the case," declares Stevens. "Never would I offend the sensibilities of an audience. But still, the only way to teach a big lesson is through the stage. "Damaged Goods" did it. Mr. Montague's play is doing it. It takes up reform where reform should begin. It teaches the truth that those attempting reform overlook. If it is frank, I can only say that it is so in order to teach its lesson. I do not want to appeal to curiosity of the morbid—only to reason."

Grand Jurors Drop in on County Infirmary

If the old saying that "the way to reach a man's heart is through his stomach" holds true, it is probable that when the grand jury makes its report on conditions at the county infirmary the report will be favorable. The jurors took luncheon at the infirmary yesterday. They stole a march on the institution with a view of ascertaining the condition of affairs there by going unannounced. They were accompanied by District Attorney Hynes and Deputy Manly J. Clark.

Complaint had been made to the grand jury that Superintendent C. A. Wills was seldom to be found "on the job." When the inquisitorial body arrived at the institution they found Dr. Wills and his assistants busy in the operating room.

When lunch time came they adjourned to the dining room and found a tempting repast spread out for them and, according to reports, full justice was done the chef and his preparation by the visitors.

Aside from the time spent at luncheon, the grand jurors looked over the grounds, examined the different buildings and questioned a number of the attendants and inmates. Just what the findings were have not been officially announced.

Improvers to Complete Reorganization Work

The reorganization of the Alameda County Civic Association will be completed at its next meeting on May 25, when, in addition to the present membership, delegations from seven of the most important improvement clubs will be seated. They are: The United Improvement Clubs East of Lake Merritt and the Glenview Improvement club, the Galindo club, the Key Route Heights club, the Greater Melrose club, the Peralta-Claremont clubs and the Clawson School Improvement Association. The most active civic workers from these organizations will be added to the central body, which at its next meeting will appoint a visiting committee to urge every improvement club and commercial body in Alameda county to affiliate in order to form a strong federation.

E. C. Kayser is the president, Prof. C. W. Childs, vice-president; Dr. J. F. King is secretary, and J. W. Phillips the treasurer of the organization. Dr. Carl Walliser is chairman of the executive committee and also acts as publicity director.

Republicans May Put Works on Ticket

The name of Senator Works of California will probably be presented as a candidate for the vice-presidency on the Republican ticket, as the result of the efforts of a score or more of senators who have formed a Works solidarity.

The move to give the Californian second place on the national ticket, it is declared, is headed by Senator Kenyon of Ohio, and, it is also reported, will be backed en masse by the Grand Army of the Republic veterans—with whom he is affiliated.

None of the senators who are supposed to be united in favor of Senator Works' nomination has as yet consented to make a definite statement as to the matter, and he himself has also been reticent. But there is apparently no doubt that he will be named for the vice-presidential nomination.

TALK PREPAREDNESS.

RICHMOND, May 24.—The ladies of the Richmond Club proved themselves in touch with the national situation when they held a discussion of preparedness. Mrs. D. J. Hall advocated peace at any price and Mrs. J. Foster made a plea for preparedness. Next Monday the women will have guests' day.

PARTY LEADERS CROWD SPECIAL

Republican Delegation From California Ready for Chicago Trip.

So deluged with applications for reservations on the Republican national convention special train from California has the delegation executive committee been that it was necessary yesterday to pass a motion limiting the number of passengers to seventy-five.

This decision was reached with considerable regret after appeals for places on the train had poured in, not only from all sections of the state, but from Utah and Nevada as well. It forces a cancellation of many who had been granted tentative accommodations. Discovery that it was impossible to take care of more than a part of the applicants was the result when the list was looked over yesterday.

Then Chairman Hayes expressed his regret, but also announced that any other action was out of the question, since the railroad company could not increase the length of the train without risking the time schedule's exactness. The requests had poured in so fast at the last that the committee had been swamped, and even then there had seemed to be no end to them.

The delegates and their alternates, for whom the special train was originally planned, are to have first chance, and as there are fifty-two of these and a number of employes of the delegation who must be provided for, but few places remain. Many of the delegation had arranged to take guests, but lack of space has forced the cutting down of this list to a more fraction of the number who had hoped to go along.

However, the demand for tickets on the train has been viewed by the committee as a most promising indication of party enthusiasm. Chairman J. O. Hayes considered the interest in the special's trip as evidence of "the new life that has been injected into the Republican party" of California.

At the session of the Republican state campaign committee, A. W. Gluckman of Marysville announced that arrangements had been made in Yuba county to organize a central Republican club immediately.

The state banner that the California Republicans will take on their trip to mark their section at the convention is to be gold and white, with the California poppy and the golden bear for insignia. These details, among others, were settled by the executive committee, but there will be another meeting of the members next Friday to settle further business.

J. K. Kalanianaole ("Prince Cupid"), territorial delegate from Hawaii, and H. J. Lyman reached San Francisco on the Wilhelmina today en route to the Republican national convention.

Committee to Meet and Cheer Delegates

The Republican county central committee will meet tonight in the offices of Peter J. Crosby, delegate-elect to the Chicago convention, for the purpose of speeding both Crosby and Joseph F. Carlston, the other delegate elected from Alameda county, on their way East.

The California delegation will depart for Chicago Friday, June 2, in a special train. The twenty-six men and women relegates, alternates and others will make one party, it is expected.

Chairman Clinton Dodge has called tonight's meeting, so that the county committeemen can hear a final expression from the Republican delegates before the great session of the party leaders, when Presidential and Vice-Presidential candidates will be named.

He will go to Chico Saturday, where he will meet the Alameda county delegation, making the return from the Butte County Exposition with them.

Bubbling Billie Burke In Gloria's Romance

C. & K. PHOTO.

For four days, commencing Wednesday, the Oakland Photo will present Miss Billie Burke in the second chapter of Gloria's Romance, entitled "Caught by the Seminoles." In this chapter Miss Burke as Gloria Stafford, the heroine of this most interesting motion picture novel from the pen of Mr. and Mrs. Rupert Hughes, is shown wandering in the Everglades. She is able to borrow a boy's suit of clothes when her own gown is torn to shreds and, thus dressed, is found by a band of Seminole Indians. Freneau, a broker and a friend of her father, seeking her, finds that her childhood friend and one who is deeply in love with her, Dr. Stephen Royce, has arrived ahead of him, but while Royce is engaged in a hand-to-hand combat with a young Indian, Freneau bears Gloria to her father and is hailed as her rescuer, Gloria having been unconscious when Royce really saved her. The unselfishness of Dr. Royce and Freneau's and Gloria's happiness make this chapter one of the most intensely fascinating of the series.

As the other feature of this excellent and well-balanced bill the Oakland Photo will present Japan's greatest histrionic artist, Sessue Hayakawa, in "Alien Souls," a timely photoplay based on racial conflict.

"Alien Souls" is a realistic vision of the impossibilities which beset men and women of other races who seek to live and love as Anglo-Saxons. Hayakawa is supported by his wife, Tsuru Aoki, beautiful and clever niece of the famous Japanese Bernhardt, Madam Yacco, and surrounded by a cast of unusual excellence. The production, released by Paramount, was made by the Lasky Company and is considered one of the most lavish and beautiful of the many splendid photoplays manufactured by that company.

CALOMEL MAKES YOU SICK, UGH!

"Dodson's Liver Tone" Better Than Calomel and Cannot Salivate.

Calomel loses you a day! You know what calomel is. It's mercury; quicksilver. Calomel is dangerous. It crashes into sour bile like dynamite, cramping and sickening you. Calomel attacks the bones and should never be put into your system.

When you feel bilious, sluggish, constipated and all knocked out and believe you need a dose of dangerous calomel just remember that your druggist sells for 50 cents a large bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone, which is entirely vegetable and pleasant to take and is a perfect substitute for calomel. It is guaranteed to start your liver without stirring you up inside and can not salivate.

Don't take calomel! It makes you sick the next day; it loses you a day's work. Dodson's Liver Tone straightens you right up and you feel great. Give it to the children because it is perfectly harmless and doesn't gripe. —Advertisement.

Lamson Girl's Parents Turn Against Pastor

CHICO, May 24.—Fred Lamson, father of the 15-year-old girl whose story sent the Rev. Madison Slaughter to the penitentiary, admitted today that he had told the probation committee in Oroville Monday that he believed Slaughter guilty.

Mrs. Lamson also has changed her attitude. Their statements now go far to explain why they were not put on the witness stand at the second Slaughter trial. It was feared that they would make good witnesses for the prosecution.

Both father and mother refuse to explain themselves. They refuse to tell why they have come to take the daughter's side of the case after months of denying her and vilifying her character. They are anxious to get control of her again and go to their old home in Maine, but the probation committee will refuse this.

Lamson was found today at his bench in the Northern Electric company's carpenter shop.

"I did tell the probation committee that I believed Slaughter guilty," declared Lamson. And then, in reply to the query, "Why did you change your mind," stated with emphasis, "That is nobody's business. If I should make a statement it would not help the crime at all."

Mrs. Lamson said:

"I have said all I intend to say. They can print whatever they like. The stories this morning (meaning the ones telling about their statement to the probation committee) are like many others that have been published, so it doesn't matter what we say. I am tired of it all and will not say a word more. Go to my husband if you want anything else."

Last Rites Will Be Said for Fire Victims

The funeral of William De Mello, 11, and Sadie De Mello, 2, who were burned to death Monday evening in a fire which destroyed their home at 3420 Helen street, will be held tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock from 3265 Helen street. Mass will be observed in St. Joseph's Catholic church.

Mrs. Mary De Mello, mother of the children, is suffering from severe burns and a fractured arm, incurred while she attempted to escape from the burning building. Mary De Mello, another daughter, was slightly burned.

The fire was caused by an explosion which occurred when William De Mello tried to fill a coal oil lamp while holding a lighted candle in his hand.

Blue Bird Bureau

The response to our appeal for clothing through the Blue Bird columns have been made manifest by the number of phone calls which we have been receiving for the past two days. The wires have been humming and buzzing most of the time, and the bureau has been kept very busy taking addresses where we might obtain clothing. Bundles, packages and articles of wearing apparel of all descriptions have kept pouring in here, and the bureau looked almost like a second-hand clothing store. These things have already been disposed of, the most of them at any rate, so you can see how directly and quickly this bureau gets in touch with the needy.

To all of those who have contributed articles of clothing we tender our heartiest thanks.

What is more touching than the appeal of a little child? Today a little tot of about four years visited this bureau and wanted to know if somebody could find her a nice home. She was a brave little rascal, and said she would be willing to leave her Mamma for a while anyway, or until such a time as her Mamma would be able to get work and then take her back home.

She told a pathetic little story about her home life. It seems that her father has been in the habit of coming home drunk and striking everyone that comes within his reach, and her mother in desperation got up and left him the other day and took this little youngster with her. She says she knows that her mother can never get work as long as she is in the way, and now there seems to be only one thing to do, to find someone who will keep this four-year-old child until the mother is able to obtain work and can give something toward the support of her child. The little girl's name is Olive and she is a pretty little blonde, with large brown eyes and ruddy complexion. She has promised to be a very good and obedient child to anyone who will give her a home, and her only request is that she can take her "kitty-cat" along with her. Of course, we told her that we would try to find a home for her where her kitten would be welcome also, but we asked her if she would be willing to go even if she could not take her pet, and after pausing for a moment in deep meditation she said in a cute babyish way: "Well, I guess I'll have to be satisfied with whatever you can do for me, but do you think you could find a home for 'Nigger' if I can't take him with me?"

So it may be up to us to find a home for "Nigger" as well as his little mistress.

BAPTISTS TO HEAR PLANTATION SOLOS

Plantation melodies, part songs and solos will be sung at the annual concert by the choir of the Twenty-third Avenue Baptist church next Friday evening at the church. There will be four soloists: Miss Alfreda Petersen, Miss Pansy Watson, V. H. Lyman and M. Malde. J. F. Talbot will direct and Miss Nellie H. Carpenter will be the accompanist. Rev. William C. Spencer is the pastor.

Among the numbers announced for the chorus choir are Costa's "With Sheathed Swords," Fanning's "Daybreak," Mozart's "Glorious Is Thy Name," "Nelly Was a Lady," "The Old Folks at Home" and "A Banjo Song." The part songs are three old favorites, "The Garden of Sleep" (De Lara), "Sweet and Low" (Barnby) and "Love's Old Sweet Song" (Molloy).

Miss Petersen will be heard in Bond's "A Perfect Day"; Miss Watson in "Were My Song with Wings Provided" (Hahn) and "The Swallows" (Cowen). Other songs will be "The Skipper" (Wade), and "Anchored" (Watson), M. Malde: "By the Fountain" (Adams), "An Irish Love Song" (Lohr), "Children's Dreams" and "Little Mother O'Mine" (Nevin), V. H. Lyman. The choir members include:

BODY MAY GUIDE OAKLAND BUILDING

A plan by which the building laws committee of the Chamber of Commerce, which under the direction of C. W. Dickey has for some time past been engaged in forming a tentative revision of present building laws, may be made an official committee to draw up new laws for Oakland, if the request, voted last night by the directors of the Chamber of Commerce, is granted by the city council.

At the suggestion of the committee, the directors last night recommended that it be made an official body, to draw up a new building ordinance to submit to the council. The present ordinance, setting forth a class A zone, it is declared by the committee, is a hampering influence on Oakland's down town building. Such a law is not enforced in other cities, it is maintained. The proposed new law will abolish this zone.

Indorsement of the legislative committee report favoring the Pomerene bill, regarding the establishment of bills of lading as collateral, was voted last night at the meeting of the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce, this vote being at the request of the United States Chamber of Commerce. The board also passed a vote favoring the establishment of a railroad to the Bering coal fields and Katella oil fields, this being at the request of the Seattle chamber. A vote favoring investigation of the relations between employes and railroads, at the request of the United States chamber, by the Interstate Commerce Commission, was also passed.

Several committee reports were considered last night by the directors. A resolution, urging the war department to call a hearing as soon as possible to discuss the establishment of the proposed bridge across San Francisco bay, was voted, and several business committee reports were heard and passed.

Hobart Bosworth Here, May Buy Essenay Plant

The Essenay motion picture plant at Niles, which has been in practical disuse since G. M. Anderson separated from the company, and left with his actors, may be revived, it was learned today, when Hobart Bosworth, noted picture producer, journeyed to Niles with several experts to inspect the plant with a view to purchase.

It is understood that the factory and studio have been offered Bosworth by the present owners, and that he is considering this before visiting Martinez, where he also has an offer for land for a studio for California films. The Niles plant is one of the most complete in the West, being the plant where the famous "Broncho Billy" and Charlie Chaplin films of the Essenays were produced and taken.

Bosworth arrived in Oakland last night, remaining at the Hotel Oakland. He was the guest last night at a dinner given by Fritzi Scheff, the singer. This morning, before leaving for Niles, he admitted his errand, but declined to discuss any definite offer or make known any definite plans, save that he was to look over the plant and consider its price.

Toyo Kisen Kaisha Wants More Ships

SAN FRANCISCO, May 24.—That the Toyo Kisen Kaisha is making efforts to purchase the former Pacific Mail liners Manchuria and Mongolia was reported today in financial circles here. Despite the fact that this Japanese concern is building a new fleet of six steamers in the Orient, it wants more ships. William H. Avery, representing the Toyo Kisen Kaisha, has gone to New York and it is rumored his purpose is to buy the vessels desired. An offer of $5,000,000 for them is said to have been refused last week.

S. P. Changes Schedule of Last S. F. Ferry

Oakland commuters who find the 2:15 a. m. ferry steamer from across the bay a convenience will have to curtail their transbay pleasures in order to catch the last regular boat at 1:20 a. m. Starting next Sunday the 2:15 boat will be discontinued, according to a general announcement by the Southern Pacific Company of changes in its time schedule. Included in this was an order that train 210, which left the ferry station, San Francisco, Sacramento at 2:16, a. m., will leave, starting Sunday, at 1:20. This means the 1:20 a. m. will be the last boat to Oakland in the early morning.

PIONEERS TO GATHER.

Reminiscences of early days in the Sierra mountains will be exchanged by pioneers of Sierra and Plumas counties at the sixth annual reunion of the Sierra-Plumas Society at Piedmont park Sunday. All present and former residents of the two counties and their friends are invited to attend. The society now has a membership of more than 1500. Frank R. Weho is president and W. F. Roche, secretary, assisted by an executive committee, have charge of the arrangements.

DOUBTERS OF TENET CANNOT PREACH

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., May 24.—No candidate for the ministry who expresses disbelief in the doctrine of Christ having been born of a virgin can hereafter be licensed to preach, according to a resolution adopted today by the Presbyterian assembly.

The resolution was voted without debate, with the report of the committee on rules declaring that candidates for the ministry must accept all tenets of the church.

This ended a serious controversy over the alleged action of the New York Presbytery in licensing Union Seminary graduates who doubted the doctrinal statement with regard to Christ's birth. The Cincinnati Presbytery particularly protested, and urged expulsion of the New Yorkers.

HUGHES TO BOSTON.

SARATOGA, N. Y., May 24.—Effective at the end of the Methodist General Conference are a number of important changes in the Episcopal residences of newly elected bishops and also transfers of old bishops, it was learned today.

Chief among these are the following:

ADNA W. Leonard of Seattle, to San Francisco.

MATT S. HUGHES of Pasadena, to Portland, Ore.

EDWIN H. HUGHES from San Francisco, to Boston.

RICHARD J. COKE from Portland, Ore., to Helena, Mont.

Other assignments were:

Thomas Nicholson, who has been secretary of the church board of education to Chicago, Ill.; Franklin Hamilton of Washington, D. C., to Pittsburgh, Pa.; Charles B. Mitchell of Chicago to St. Paul, Minn.; William F. Oldham of New York to Buenos Aires, South America, and Herbert Welch of Ohio to Seoul, Korea.

TRANSFERS MADE.

The following transfers have been made:

Frank M. Bristol from Omaha, Neb., to Bristol, Tenn.; Homer S. Stuntz, from South America to Omaha, Neb.; William A. Quayle from St. Paul, Minn., to St. Louis, Mo.; William F. McDowell from Chicago to Washington, D. C.; Theodore S. Henderson, Chattanooga, Tenn., to Detroit, Mich.

The residence of Bishop William O. Shepard has been transferred from Kansas City, Kas., to Wichita, Kas. New residences have also been established at Pittsburgh, Pa., Detroit, Mich., and Seoul, Korea.

UNITARIANS APPLAUD.

BOSTON, May 24.—A suggestion by the Rev. Samuel A. Eliot, of Boston, president of the American Unitarian Association, that he would like to see the American and Canadian banners side by side on the battlefields of Flanders, was applauded by many of the delegates attending the ninety-first annual meeting of the association. In his address he explained that the policy of neutrality kept the Canadian flag from its accustomed place beside the American colors at the association headquarters.

Resolutions were adopted asking for the appointment of seven members of the association to work with the American Council of the World Alliance for Promoting Friendship Through the Churches.

At the business meeting the Rev. Mr. Eliot was re-elected president. Among other officers chosen were: Vice-presidents: William H. Taft, New Haven; Paris Gibson, Great Falls, Mont.; Horace E. Davis, San Francisco; Milton L. Herzey, Montreal; secretary, Louis C. Cornish, Boston; treasurer, Henry M. Williams, Boston.

T. R. Enthusiasts Meet in San Francisco

SAN FRANCISCO, May 24. — A meeting was held today in the office of Richard M. Tobin in the Hibernia Bank by supporters of Colonel Roosevelt to organize a California Roosevelt committee for the Chicago convention. Those who were called to the preliminary meeting are Milton H. Esberg, Richard M. Tobin, George A. Knight, former Secretary of the Navy Victor H. Metcalf, James Tyson and Leon Sloss.

The sending of a delegation to Chicago to take part in Roosevelt's campaign for the Republican nomination for President was among the matter to be considered. This move originated in New York through George von L. Meyer, also a former Secretary of the Navy, who sent a number of telegrams to Republicans here who were credited with favoring Roosevelt.

A further meeting is called for tomorrow.

Norbeck Elected by S. Dakota Republicans

PIERRE, S. D., May 24. — Peter Norbeck, lieutenant governor, won the Republican nomination for governor of South Dakota, according to returns received up to early this morning from yesterday's primaries.

In the second district Congressman Royal C. Johnson appeared to have been renominated by the Republicans. E. D. Mercom of Sioux Falls claimed the nomination for governor on the Democratic ticket. The Democrats elected ten delegates to the St. Louis convention who will support President Wilson for renomination.

The Republican delegates to Chicago will support Cummins for President. If Hughes permits the use of his name he will be the second choice of the delegation.

Bunco Man Is to Be Sentenced for Crime

Louis Garesso will be sentenced Friday by Superior Judge Ogden on a conviction of grand larceny in connection with a bunco game in which Vincenzo Pelochino was the victim. Garesso and another man who has not been apprehended in 1912 induced Pelochino to negotiate for the purchase of fictitious property. They took a deposit from him which was his life savings and enticing him to the shores of Lake Merritt entered into a game of poker through which the holder of the money lost it. The bunco men then lost Pelochino. Garesso fled east but later returned to Oakland, was identified by his victim on the street one day and arrested.

Three Small Fires Do Little Damage

Fire caused by burning ashes thrown among some refuse in the rear yard of the home of D. A. Russell, 281 Thirty-eighth street, caused an alarm to be sent to the fire department early this morning. Russell succeeded in extinguishing the blaze before the fire company arrived.

There was a small fire at the home of William F. Grovecock, 4400 Boulevard road, caused by defective wiring. The damage was nominal.

A fire occurred at the home of Henry Hastings, 401 Willow street, last night. The damage was nominal.

Conventions Cause Cessation in Senate

WASHINGTON, May 24. — The point was reached today by the Senate leaders for a practical cessation of legislative activity during the national political conventions. Three-day adjournments are to be taken from June 8 to June 20, with only perfunctory business transacted on meeting days.

The House probably will follow this procedure.

PETERSEN GETS LEAVE OF ABSENCE

Chief of Police W. J. Petersen was granted a 30 day leave of absence with permission to leave the state by the city council today. Commissioner W. H. Edwards, who was yesterday granted a similar privilege, voting no.

Petersen was given the leave of absence to attend the convention of the International Association of Chiefs of Police, to be held at Newark, N. J., early in June. Petersen is vice-president of this organization, and is slated for the position of president. It is probable that the next annual convention will be held in California.

Mayor Davie was absent from council today, and Commissioner Edwards presided. The permission was granted Petersen over his adverse vote by Commissioners Anderson, Bacous and Jackson.

Mrs. Nellie Bullock has announced that she is planning to conduct a fight against Petersen being elected president of the association of chiefs of police, by sending telegrams to the convention opposing him.

"Dr. Anthony is trying to make me a hero," was Petersen's amused comment.

J. H. Grande attempted today to obtain a warrant for the arrest of Chief Petersen for violating a section of the penal code which makes it an offense to reveal the penitentiary record of a paroled or pardoned prisoner. Grande went first to District Attorney W. H. L. Hynes, and was referred by Hynes to Deputy District Attorney Koford. Koford sent him to Prosecuting Attorney W. J. Hennessey, who declined to issue the warrant.

"I shall take this matter to the attorney general of California if necessary," said Grande. "Petersen without any excuse disclosed to the city commissioners and the newspapers the fact that I had been in prison. I have every right to insist that the law against persecuting a man by disclosing his record be invoked against Petersen in this case."

'Twas His Habit To Fight Cop

Last Adventure May Be Educational

Several years ago A. C. Gillem, now a patrolman, and Claude Carrigan, a tall Irishman, were employed by the same firm, and Gillem was foreman. Carrigan was discharged, and this angered him to such an extent that he attacked Gillem and administered what is said to have been a sound thrashing.

Later Gillem became a patrolman. But Carrigan's imaginary wrong still rankled in his bosom, and whenever he had tried to solace himself with wine, the wound became harder to bear. Then he would go out and seek Gillem on his police beat, and would remind him of what he had done before, and would threaten to begin all over again.

Gillem would then place Carrigan under arrest, after a stiff fight. This has happened five or six times.

Last night Carrigan sought Gillem once more, and threatened to take his star and handcuffs and baton away from him. Gillem thought he had endured enough.

When Gillem had finished with Carrigan it was necessary to send for the ambulance and take the prisoner to the hospital for repairs. He appeared in the police court with his head extensively bandaged. He will be tried tomorrow for disturbing the peace and interfering with an officer.

Pianist Will Make Debut Next Friday

Miss Caroline Irons, pianist, will make her debut formally in this city next Friday evening in concert at Hotel Oakland with Miss Eunice Gilman as her assisting vocalist. The event will take place in the ivory ballroom of the hotel.

The young musician has chosen for her short program several big works, including Beethoven's Sonata, op. 27, No. 1, and Rubenstein's Concerto in D-minor, as well as three Chopin numbers—the A-flat Ballade, the F-sharp Nocturne and the C-sharp minor Valse. She will also play Liszt's Etude in D-flat, Debussy's charming composition "The Good Fish," and one called "The Fountain," by her accompanist, Pierre Douillet. The closing number will be the Rubenstein one, in which Douillet will play the second piano, orchestral accompaniment.

Miss Gilman will sing "Ah fors' e lui," from Verdi's "Traviata," and several other little songs, including one written by Miss Irons.

Trunk Stolen From Room; Gems Removed

Mrs. Louise Andrade, 524 Eighth street, reported to the police that her trunk was taken from her room and jewelry valued at $200 removed from it. The detectives are investigating.

Burglaries in which articles of nominal value were stolen were reported by Louis Horel, 456 Eighth street, and Mrs. M. A. Hubbard, 1543 Harrison street.

S. Kutcher, 3889 Fruitvale avenue, reported the theft of a seven-passenger automobile from Fourteenth and Franklin streets. An automobile stolen from Charles E. Quigley, 385 Palm avenue, was later recovered by the police.

J. ETTINGHOFF SUICIDE.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 27.—Leaving a note to the Eureka Society, saying "Please take care of my body," J. Ettinghoff turned on the gas in a room at 1208 Turk street, and was found dead this morning. He was 35 years old.

Hill Line to Establish Tri-Weekly Service to Portland

New Thru Service to North Pacific Points.

On June 1 the Great Northern Pacific Steamship Company will inaugurate a tri-weekly service between San Francisco and Portland, using both of their giant turbiners, the "Great Northern" and the "Northern Pacific" with sailing from each city every Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday. This step is being taken in preparation for the accommodation of heavy tourist travel, which all transportation lines are expecting, to and from Pacific coast points during the summer. It is felt by the transportation lines that the advertising this city secured through the exposition will continue to bear fruit during this summer, which, while not as heavy as last year, is expected to be a consistent movement. The Hill liners enjoyed a remarkable patronage in this service during the exposition period, 3500 people weekly enjoying this 26-hour ocean trip. Simultaneous with the inauguration of this service they will establish a new through sleeping car line to Tacoma, Seattle, Everett, Bellingham and Vancouver in connection with the steamship service. This new service permits passengers to step from boat to train and continue their journey without further change. It also permits travelers to take advantage of the ocean trip without any loss of time, as the Hill greyhounds make the same time as the fastest trains.

DEATH SUMMONS LOUIS BERCOVICH

Louis Bercovich, prominent Oakland merchant and realty operator, died at his residence, 1936 Market street, yesterday afternoon, following a long illness. The decedent has been a resident of this city for thirty-five years, being interested in several big enterprises. He was the founder of the Oakland Iron Yards, later becoming interested in the cigar business with his two sons, William and Bert Bercovich.

Bercovich was born in Marmaros, Hungary, in 1849. He crossed the Atlantic three times before settling in Oakland.

He is survived by a widow, Mrs. Dora Bercovich, and two sons and daughters, Mrs. Sallie Mendelson, Mrs. Arthur T. Polheim, Bert and William Bercovich.

Funeral services will be held from the family residence, 1936 Market street, tomorrow afternoon at 1:30 o'clock, under the direction of Rabbi M. S. Levy. The remains will be interred in the Home of Peace Cemetery in this city.

Old Meat Argument Is Aired in Council

The city council saw the recommencement today of an old controversy, when council with his rejection a claim from council with his rejection a claim from H. A. Young, a butcher, for $36.57, on the ground that the meat had been purchased without the proper authorization. This is the fight which was carried to the Superior Court after a lengthy wrangle. The rejected claim was referred to Commissioner Jackson.

The city council passed to print an ordinance altering the fire limits to cut out a block bounded by Fourteenth, Franklin and Webster streets and the line of Fifteenth street extended east, to make possible alterations in the buildings of the old Bradley estate.

Like a Boy at 50, Bubbling Over With Vitality—Taking Iron Did It

Doctor says Nuxated Iron is greatest of all strength builders—Often increases the strength and endurance of delicate, nervous folks 200 per cent in two weeks' time.

NEW YORK, N. Y.—Not long ago a man came to me who was nearly half a century old and asked me to give him a preliminary examination for life insurance. I was astonished to find him with a blood pressure of a boy of 20 and as full of vigor, vim and vitality as a young man; in fact a young man he really was notwithstanding his age. The secret, he said, was taking iron—nuxated iron had filled him with renewed life. At 30 he was in bad health; at 46 careworn and nearly all in. Now at 50 a miracle of vitality and his face beaming with the buoyancy of youth. As I have said a hundred times over, iron is the greatest of all strength builders. If people would only throw away patent medicines and nauseous concoctions and take simple nuxated iron, I am convinced that the lives of thousands of persons might be saved who now die every year from pneumonia, grippe, consumption, kidney, liver and heart trouble, etc. The real and true causes which started their diseases was nothing more nor less than a weakened condition brought on by lack of iron in the blood. Iron is absolutely necessary to enable your blood to change food into living tissue. Without it, no matter how much or what you eat, your food merely passes through you without doing you any good. You don't get the strength out of it and as a consequence you become weak, pale and sickly looking just like a plant trying to grow in a soil deficient in iron. If you are not strong or well you owe it to yourself to make the following test: See how long you can work or how far you can walk without becoming tired. Next take two five-grain tablets of ordinary nuxated iron three times per day after meals for two weeks. Then test your strength again and see for yourself how much you have gained. I have seen dozens of nervous, run-down people who were ailing all the while, double their strength and endurance and entirely get rid of all symptoms of dyspepsia, liver and other troubles in from ten to fourteen days' time simply by taking iron in the proper form. And this after they had in some cases been doctoring for months without obtaining any benefit. But don't take the old forms of reduced iron simply to save a few cents. You must take iron in a form that can be easily absorbed and assimilated like nuxated iron if you want it to do you any good, otherwise it may prove worse than useless. Many an athlete or prizefighter has won the day simply because he knew the secret of great strength and endurance and filled his blood with iron before he went into the affray, while many another has gone down to inglorious defeat simply for the lack of iron.—F. Sauer, M. D.

NOTE—Nuxated iron recommended above by Dr. Sauer is not a patent medicine nor secret remedy, but one which is well known to druggists and whose iron constituents are widely prescribed by eminent physicians everywhere. Unlike the older inorganic iron products, it is easily assimilated, does not injure the teeth, make them black, nor upset the stomach; on the contrary, it is one of the most potent remedy, in nearly all forms of indigestion, as well as for nervous, run-down conditions. The Manufacturers have such great confidence in Nuxated Iron that they offer to forfeit $100.00 to any charitable institution if they cannot take any man or woman under 60 who lacks iron and increase their strength 200 per cent or over in four weeks' time, provided they have no serious organic trouble. They also offer to refund your money if it does not at least double your strength and endurance in ten days' time. It is dispensed in this city by The Owl Drug Co. and all other druggists.—Advertisement.

MARTIN IS MASTER OF ANGELS; WHIPS OPPONENTS, 4 TO 2

Oaks Start to Win Again, by Trouncing Chance's Men in Opener.

"Speed" Martin came across with another flashy victory yesterday, clever pitching by the youthful wonder winning a 4 to 2 game from "Husk" Chance's Los Angeles Club. Martin was the master of the situation at all times, holding the Southerners to five scattered hits, while his team mates played errorless ball behind him. Harry Wolter, Angel right fielder, scored all of the tallies for his team, checking in at the home station each time through walks issued to him by Martin. Wolter drew walks on every occasion when he came to bat, except in the ninth frame when "Speed" turned the tables on him by whiffing him with Ellis on second base.

Oscar Horstman, Frank Chance's youngest pitching wonder, twirled excellent ball, too, but a bit of wildness and misplays by Butler and McLarry after two were down cost him two tallies in the fifth. Horstman was relieved in the seventh to make way for a pinchless pinch-hitter. George Zabel, ex-Cub finishing the game. "Zabe" was nicked for two clouts in the eighth when Kenworthy doubled and scored. Rowdy Elliott picked a safety to center.

The run getting of the game started in the second when hits by Gardner, Barry, a double steal, and Elliott's two ply clout against the r. f. screen scored Gardner. Horstman then got down to real pitching and forced Barbeau to pop to Koerner and Davis and Martin to strike out.

Wolter drew his second walk in the fourth and was chased around when "Beef" Koerner slapped a triple to the clubhouse. In the fifth, however, Horstman lost control. Davis started the inning by reaching first on Butler's error and then stole second, after Martin had struck out. Middleton batted an easy grounder to McLarry, who had a good chance for a double play, but he got mixed up and satisfied himself with tossing Roxy out at first. Lane and Kenworthy then walked, and with the bags filled, Gardner knocked a hard one to McLarry, who fumbled, and both Davis and Lane had scored. Thus the Oaks tallied twice on nary a hit.

Wolter drew another walk in the seventh, stealing second and scoring when McLarry doubled when two were out. This made the score 3 to 2.

The Oaks, however, cinched the game in the eighth off Zabel and when the ninth rolled around, Chance's crew had little chance of winning, for Martin was going great guns. Ellis started the last chapter with a double, but Wolter whiffed, Koerner grounded to Davis and Galloway skied to Gardner. The score:

JERRY DOWNS HITS IN VICTORY FOR SEALS, 9 TO 4

Rath Makes Two Bobbles That Give San Francisco Five Runs in Fourth.

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, May 24.—Rath's two errors in the fourth gave San Francisco five runs and the game, the final score being 9 to 5. Hughes was hit hard during his time on the mount, but Warhop pitched fine ball. It was announced that Jack Dalton has been purchased from the Detroit club by the Seals to play the outfield. Score:

Blue and Gold Oarsmen Spring Surprise on Campus

BERKELEY, May 24.—Unknown to the graduate manager's office here, California's crew left for Washington last week and has been training strenuously since Saturday for the race on May 27. On account of rough water the men have been over the course but once and their training in the north consists of log rows, under the lee of the lake, particular attention being paid to form.

Coach Ben Wallis arrived Monday night and has been with the men constantly ever since. Coach Conibear of Washington is pessimistic over his eight's chances because of Ed Leader's withdrawal from the shell for the remainder of the season and the poor condition of his crew.

The California men are under strict training and are hoping to put up a remarkable race on Lake Washington Saturday.

Rube Gardner Day Same Date as the Oaks' Ball

Outfielder Will Be Honored by the Fans of Oakland

The idea of a "Rube" Gardner Day, in honor of the Oaks' faithful and hard-working right fielder, meets with the approval of Frank Leavitt and Jack Cook. Thursday afternoon, June 1, the day of the Oaks Ball, will be designated as "Rube" Gardner Day at the Oakland ball grounds. The Seals and Oaks meet in Oakland that afternoon. Members of the Oakland Baseball Citizens' Committee will have charge of the arrangements, and an effort will be made to turn out a big crowd. Gardner will be one of the guests of honor at the ball that night.

A big detachment of marines will be present at the Oaks Ball a week from tomorrow night. The Yerba Buena naval authorities are firm boosters for the Oaks. The sailors come over to the Oakland games on Thursday afternoons and are admitted free. The traction officials also provide free train and car service for Uncle Sam's boys, so that naturally the sailors are anxious now to reciprocate, and they will attend the ball in large numbers. One of the features of the night will be a fancy drill by the marines. United States naval officers will have one of the boxes close to the players.

The demand for choice seats and reservations continues, and there is every indication that the attendance will set a high water mark. A large list of valuable gate prizes has been secured.

EL CAPITANS WIN.

The El Capitans handed the Gilmartin club a good drubbing by the score of 14 to 3, at Bushrod park last Sunday. A feature of the game was the pitching of Withoff who held the Gilmartins to four hits and struck out twelve, also smashing out a triple, double and a single, which is not a bad day's work. Nattinger, O'Connell, Masten and Hermly also played a good game.

CORBIN ATHLETIC CLUB LOSES.

The Golden Gate Cubs defeated the Corbin Athletic Club by a score of 17-4. The Cubs have now won eleven games out of twelve this season. The feature of the game was the pitching of Gillespie, who was taken out to be saved for the game next Sunday against Rodeo, and the hitting of the home team. Pop Chirou will now manage the Golden Gate Cubs. Score:

CY CUNNINGHAM STARS.

The Allendale team made it five in a row last Sunday when it swamped the Chadwick Outlaws, 12-4. "Cy" Cunningham was again in evidence, this time more than usual. He held the hard-hitting boys to one scratch hit and equaled the season's strikeout record at the Allendale grounds, whiffing 19 batters. Ramsdell's home run in the seventh was one of the longest wallops seen at the grounds. Gerhow, Lehre and Jenkins also hit for four bases. The score:

BASEBALL SALAD

"Jappy" Barbeau was forced to retire in the fourth inning, owing to being spiked by Koerner when "Beef" slid into the bag on his three-bagger in the fourth. It was unintentionally, but nevertheless, Jap was unable to continue. Davis moved over to third and Berger filled in at short. Barbeau will be all right for today's game.

Speed Martin picked three men off the bags during yesterday's game. He turned the tricks cleverly, too, all of which assured the spectators that he is every inch a big league tosser.

The new Oak outfielder, Cook, was in uniform yesterday and may work himself into the lineup today. He will probably play in center field, with Billy Lane moved over to left, and Middleton on the bench. Zimmerman will be given his walking papers.

Hen Berry, Seal owner, was the recipient of a telegram from Frank Navin, president of the Detroit club, yesterday, to the effect that Jack Dalton, outfielder released to the Seals, will soon report. The injury to Fitzgerald has placed Wolverton in a bad way for an outfielder and Dalton is needed badly.

Speed Martin, "single-handed and alone," was almost enough to beat the Angels yesterday.

He had the southerners gashing the zephyrs—pretty chill zephyrs at that—with regularity and obliged with many fancy fielding exploits worthy of loud cheers.

The Oaks stood by him without a falter and played errorless ball so the score was 4 to 2 with Los Angeles on the lean end.

A single by Risbert in the ninth at Los Angeles was enough to give Vernon a victory over Portland.

Higginbotham was knocked out of the box by the Tigers in the third and Kelly had a hard road to travel until the ninth when at the heavy cudgel of Mrs. Risberg, et al., he received his coup de grace, whatever that means.

Jerry Downs was the star stickiest at Salt Lake, where his trusty ash drove in five of San Francisco's nine runs. Salt Lake got only four.

Cubs beat Philadelphia when Schulte homed in the fourth.

Oh, look, St. Louis Nationals won a game. Beat the Braves. Hornsby contributed to this miracle with a four-sacker.

Pfeffer of Brooklyn let down the Pirates with two hits. Six to nothing.

Giants made it twelve straight by defeating Cincinnati, 4 to 3.

Mathewson saved the New Yorkers' scalps in the ninth when Boston aviated.

BERTILLIONS WIN AGAIN.

Saturday afternoon the Bertillion Hatters defeated the Del Monte team by a score of 11-1. Butler, the new find, pitched a wonderful game, striking out 18 men and allowing but three stingy hits. The one run scored was caused by a delayed throw from the outfield. Any good fast semi-pro teams wishing Saturday afternoon games see Doc Moskiman, at Spaulding's, or address Lewis Legg, 401 Rose street, Oakland.

The Bertillions have ten wins to their credit, having defeated St. Mary's, U. C. Outlaws, Commercial Club, Metropolitans twice, Del Monte, Maxwell and Polytechnic High. Saturday's score:

BRENTWOOD BEATS PITTSBURG.

The fast Brentwood aggregation journeyed to Pittsburg Sunday and took the manufacturing town lads into camp by the score of 11-1. Pittsburg played a very loose game, as the errors indicate. The Brentwood boys put up a fine exhibition of ball. Bohen was on the mound for Brentwood and was almost invincible, allowing but five scattered hits. Charlie Schwake worked behind the bat in big league style. He will be heard from in the near future if he keeps up his good work. Diffen, who held down left field, was the heaviest hitter of the day, gathering three hits out of five trips to the bat. Wallace on third and Querolla on short showed up in fine style. Mortensen on second accepted eight chances without an error. Bohen struck out nine and Stanley six. The score:

	R.	H.	E.
Brentwood	11	11	2
Pittsburg	1	5	10

Batteries—Brentwood, Bohen and Schwake; Pittsburg, Stanley and O'Donnell.

"TAWM" HUGHES S. O. KING, WITH MARTIN SECOND

Veteran and Youngster Are in Lead for Strike Out Record for 1916.

Judging from the records of Coast League pitchers for the first seven weeks of the 1916 season, the strikeout record of 376 strikeouts hung up by Vean Gregg of Portland in 1910 is in no danger of being broken: neither is anybody likely to come as near to it as did Lefty Williams of Salt Lake last year who fanned 294 for the nearest that anybody has come to Gregg's record in five years. Thus far this year, Long Tom Hughes, veteran of many a pitching battle, is leading the league in strikeouts with 46 to his credit. Martin of Oakland is second in line with 41 victims; Prough of Oakland and Fittery of Salt Lake are tied for third honors, each with forty strikeouts; Sothoron of Portland has fanned 35; Brown of San Francisco and Steen of San Francisco, each 33; Scoggins of Los Angeles, 31. No other pitcher has fanned more than 30 men. E. Johnson, G. Johnson and Quinn are tied for strikeout honors among the Vernon pitchers, each with 24 victims.

Sothoron of Portland has been the most liberal in bases on balls, walking 39; E. Johnson of Vernon and Hughes of Salt Lake have each issued 35 free passes; Fittery of Salt Lake has walked 33; Boyd of Oakland, 32; and Couch of San Francisco, 30; no other pitcher has walked 30. Hogg and Standridge are tied for honors among Los Angeles pitchers, each having walked 25.

Warhop of Salt Lake has hit eight batters; Ryan of Los Angeles, seven; Steen of San Francisco, six. Martin of Oakland has made five wild pitches; Beer and Boyd of Oakland, four each. Hogg of Los Angeles is the only pitcher on whom a balk has been called.

Following records show the total strikeouts, bases on balls, hit batters, wild pitches and balks for each pitcher for the first seven weeks of the season up to May 22:

When I was a lad of three years, I had a great many sores on my hands and legs. A friend suggested S. S. S. to my parents, and after using three bottles of S. S. S. obtained from our local drug store, I was entirely cured.

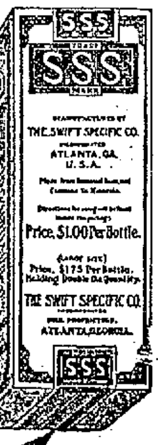

I have used S. S. S. as a tonic for the past fifteen years, and I want to take this opportunity of testifying as to its wonderful merits, and heartily recommend it, not only to everyone that is suffering from any blood trouble, but also to anyone wanting an effective tonic to build up a run-down system. It is a wonderful medicine and I feel that everyone should know about it.

Are You Aiding Nature to Work to Better Advantage?

Unless you lend a helping hand to Nature she will have an unfortunate end. Why shouldn't Nature keep up its constructive work? When the great strain we put on our systems—wrong eating—wrong drinking—wrong hours—is considered, the question instantly clears, and the imposition on Nature is seen. The result—blood disorders. Perhaps Rheumatism appears: or the weakened system contracts Catarrh in a violent form; or one of the many kinds of skin diseases, such as boils, pimples, rashes, eczema, etc., are the signals.

As surely as one of these conditions arises Nature is telling you that your vital life fluid is needing help. Fortunately you can turn to that wonderful blood remedy—S.S.S., as have thousands of other sufferers, and find Nature's greatest aid ready to give you health again. S.S.S. accomplishes for you what no other medicine can, because its ingredients are purely vegetable, extracted from native herbs, roots and barks. It has been known and recommended for over fifty years. S.S.S. goes directly to the blood and assists it in its repair and constructive work. Get S.S.S. at your druggist.

SAMMY MORRIS IS LIKELY TO GIVE WHITE HARD RUB

Frankie Edwards and Herb Brodie Meet Tonight at Piedmont.

Joe White, Los Angeles mixer, will be given the acid test tonight at the Wheelmen Club when he tackles Sammy Morris, the Los Angeles featherweight. The winner of the match will be pitted against Johnny Arrousey before the next West Oakland Club show, so both boys will try their hardest to bring home the victory.

In Morris, White is meeting one who can box and mix matters at the same time. Sammy's bouts with Jimmy Ford and Billy Alveris were both splendid affairs and the Southern youngster made fine showing on each occasion. That he will give White a merry time of it from bell to bell goes without saying. He wants to get a crack at Arrousey himself and will leave nothing undone in his efforts to get it. So the fans who journey to Murphy's pavilion tonight figure to see a lively mix-up when White and Morris tangle.

Frankie Edwards, East Oaklander, will attempt to take Herb Brodie, San Franciscan, down the line tonight in another one of J. Murphy's feature bouts. Edwards was asked to meet Willie Robinson, but declined for practically no reason at all. Robinson bested Brodie last week, winning handily four rounds.

Edwards, however, believes that he is picking out an easier customer in Brodie, but he may be surprised, for the latter is a great in-and-outer and may cause the E. O. boy plenty of worry. Frankie and Brodie are both in good shape for the bout. The former will weigh around 140, which is far over the lightweight limit, while Brodie will weigh about the same.

Mexican Kid Carter will be pitted against a hard boy tonight when he faces Jack Burns. Burns is a game and willing mixer and figures to stand toe-to-toe and take all which Carter can give him. The winner will meet Battling Ortega.

Willie Robinson, San Francisco boy, will meet Jim Phillips and Billy Alveris will tackle Ralph Lincoln of Los Angeles. Each of these affairs should be interesting.

Three other bouts will conclude the card. Marty Cronin, Bill L'Heureux and W. J. Eyre will act as judges.

Tennis
By Nelson G. Welburn

Amid a fusillade of drives and smashes, Charles Stickney and Bert Shrader won the annual handicap doubles event of the Oakland Tennis club, Sunday, by defeating Stanley Smith and Paul Dinsmore in a protracted and debilitating four-set match by the scores of 9-11, 6-1, 6-4, 6-4. The first set presented the neatest scrap of the entire altercation with both teams participating in remarkable rallies which constantly kept the large crowd on edge.

At times the caliber of tennis was carried to an unusual degree of brilliancy. In the semi-final round Stickney and Shrader encountered apparently little opposition at the hands of Roland and Earle (15 3-5) who, while taking one set were really not dangerous in the other two sets. Roland was ineffective in his net spanning maneuvers against the sizzling drives and smashes of both Stickney and Shrader.

Earle, as usual, fought tenaciously to the back court and lobbed to beat the band. It was futile, though, at that. They were decapitated by the scores of 6-4, 4-6, 6-2.

The first set of the Stickney-Shrader and Smith-Dinsmore fracas brought out sensational plays. Frequently the players would tear over on the adjoining courts in their efforts to return sizzling sideline drives and smashes. And frequently in such fashion they made startling returns. The match fairly teemed with hair-raising rallies at the net with the pop of the ball sounding like an attack upon Verdun.

Smith and Dinsmore undoubtedly presented their best defense in this set. They worked harmoniously together with an alertness which knew no rebuff. Smith scored repeatedly with his baffling twist service and backhand swipes, while Dinsmore lifted and smashed at will. Equally as alert and pugnacious were Stickney and Shrader, but in the pinches Smith and Dinsmore scored with the result that they snatched the hardest fought set by 11-9.

Retaliating in great style, Stickney and Shrader fairly sailed through the second set by 6-1. Smith and Dinsmore were completely outmaneuvered and outgeneraled in this set. In distress they took to the backcourt and resorted to the lobbying game which immediately threw them on the defensive and made their play absolutely ineffective against the rushing in and smash game of Stickney and Shrader.

The third set opened with brisk rallies by both teams. Every point was hotly contested. A baffling and most exasperating wind swept the courts making extremely difficult the correct calculations of overhead shots. In the latter stages of this set it was clearly seen that Smith's strokes were not carrying their usual speed and accuracy. He displayed a great inclination to hug the back line, while his partner, Dinsmore, tore to the net on every occasion. This peculiar style of defense presented innumerable openings for their opponents who never failed to take advantage of such situations. Stickney and Shrader took this set by 6-4.

The fourth set lacked the brilliant rallies which marked the first and third sets. Smith and Dinsmore held now entirely to the backcourt and endeavored to lob over their opponents' heads as they ran in. It was not effective work. On the other hand, Stickney and Shrader with two sets already chalked up, smashed and drove at random. They felt confident of victory and went about their work with that confidence in evidence on every shot. They took this set by 6-4 and along with it went the title and trophies. It was well earned.

Next Sunday the Oakland Tennis club will inaugurate play in its annual class singles championship tournament. The first, second and third classes comprise the event. The players will be awarded their respective positions by the tournament committee.

STARS TO PLAY IN DEL MONTE TENNIS

Interest in tennis on this edge of the continent will be revived next Saturday when the San Francisco champion play begins. This will be followed by several minor tourneys, the competition for the state title and then the Pacific Coast championships at Del Monte June 27 and 24.

Maurice E. McLoughlin, former champion, will be the man most watched in the Del Monte play. Many believe he can "come back" to his old, world-famous rushing form again. McLoughlin is playing several times a week in Los Angeles, with his historic partner, Tom Bundy. He attributed his decline last year to too much work on the courts, so is now taking it easy.

William Johnston, champion of America, Mrs. May Sutton Bundy, Florence Sutton and a number of other well-known players are to compete at Del Monte.

WILLIE HOPPE BEATS EDDIE BREWSTER

LOS ANGELES, May 24.—Willie Hoppe of San Francisco was today acclaimed four-round lightweight champion of the Pacific Coast as a result of his victory over Eddie Brewster of Seattle here last night. The fight was the hardest contested mill witnessed here in several seasons. From the opening gong until the end of the fight it was impossible to ascertain who would win. The two men were evenly matched. The first two rounds were a draw. During the latter two Hoppe appeared to gain a slight advantage, but it was not until the decision was announced that Hoppe was regarded as winner.

CYCLISTS TO HOLD CONVENTION

The California Associated Cyclists will hold their annual convention next Saturday night at the headquarters of the New Century Club, 3269 Sixteenth street, San Francisco.

San Francisco, Oakland, San Jose, Stockton, Fresno, Merced and Modesto will be represented. The program of C. A. C. meets will be mapped out.

The New Century Wheelmen will hold a club run to San Rafael next Sunday and the visiting delegates have been invited to participate. The men will meet at the Sausalito ferry at 8 o'clock.

CARDINAL TENNIS MEN WIN

CHICAGO, May 24. — The far West again demonstrated its prowess at tennis yesterday when Leland Stanford Jr. University defeated the University of Chicago in singles and doubles.

Herbert Hahn, the Pacific Coast intercollegiate champion, was at his best and easily disposed of Lindauer, 6-3 and 6-2. H. Van Dyke Johns of the visitors disposed of Clark, 8-6 and 8-2.

In the doubles Hahn and Johns defeated Lindauer and Clark.

THE DUKE WILL TURN PROFESSIONAL

Duke Kahanamoku, king of swimmers, is to turn professional. The Duke has placed himself under the management of R. R. Benjamin, who handles the billiard champ, Willie Hoppe, and has already been booked for nearly a year's work. This summer the Duke will do a surf riding stunt on the beaches at Newport and Atlantic City, while next winter he plans a tank act with swimming, diving and fish-eating stunts.

PHILADELPHIA, May 24.—The scheduled six rounds were all that was necessary to prove Johnny Dundee's superiority over Jack Fleming last night.

RACING CLASSIC ON AT BELMONT

NEW YORK, May 24.—Fast time was predicted today by horsemen when the Metropolitan handicap, one of the greatest of western racing classics, is run tomorrow on the Belmont track. With a field of the highest class entered, virtually all of the horses are being heavily backed. George Smith, because of his sensational run two weeks ago when he won the Kentucky derby, is counted upon to finish well up, but Star Hawk, second in the Louisville classic; Roamer, Andrew Miller's great runner, and Borrow, are all showing such fine form that it is anybody's race.

DALTON CERTAIN TO JOIN SEALS

SALT LAKE, May 24.—Jack Dalton has apparently changed his mind after all.

Manager Harry Wolverton of San Francisco today received a telegram from Owner Navin of Detroit stating that Dalton was prepared to leave for the coast to join the Seals on an hour's notice. Wolverton says he does not take seriously press reports from Detroit that Dalton was balking.

Dalton played in 132 games with Buffalo last season and hit .294. He got eighteen two-baggers, three three-baggers and two home runs, made sixteen sacrifice hits and stole thirty bases. He was guilty of eight errors during the season.

RUNNING RACES IN HEATS AT RENO

RENO, Nev., May 24.—Running races in heats will be the novelty presented to Reno racing enthusiasts when the big meeting is run here in July, if the plans of the Reno Racing Association do not go awry. They believe that a revival of the ancient plan of handling the runners will attract attention and have nearly concluded to put the idea into effect here.

The heat system will not be used, of course, in long races, being confined only to sprints of from three to five furlongs.

MOTORCYCLE MARK CLIPPED.

SAN DIEGO, May 24.—The Los Angeles-San Diego motorcycle record was shattered today by Roy Artley, on a Henderson, when he made the trip in two hours and 23½ minutes, clipping 14½ minutes off the former record, held by Art Holmes. Artley averaged 82 miles in spots. His mileage was 130.

MEREDITH HOUSE INELIGIBLE FOR CAMBRIDGE MEET

Stanford Receives Shock When Officials Pass Ruling.

BOSTON, May 24.—Stanford university's hopes of making a formidable showing in the big intercollegiate meet at Cambridge next Friday and Saturday received a shock today when it was announced that Meredith House of Riverside, Cal., the westerners' crack low hurdler, was ineligible to compete.

House is a freshman who ran in open competition before entering college. He is barred under the rules which barred Duffy a few years ago. At the meeting of the governing board of the meet tomorrow, an attempt will be made to have House reinstated.

Captain "Feg" Murray of Stanford, although suffering from injuries received in the Michigan meet practiced the high hurdles today, showing good form.

Liversedge, the strong man of the University of California team, is showing great things with the shot and dopesters figure he has a good chance to clean up a first in that event.

In spite of the handicaps experienced by Pacific coast entrants, many believe they can make their presence felt during the whole period of the meet.

In the 120-yard hurdles Murray must beat Savage of Bowdoin, Trenholm of Dartmouth, French of Maine and Lukens of Cornell, but as none of them has come anywhere near 15 flat, which Murray has repeatedly done, making it look easy for him.

In the absence of House, Norton of Stanford is depended on to grab the low hurdles. He must defeat Farwell of Yale and Kaufman of Pennsylvania, but as he has already done in practice on a slow track without competition, time equal to the best made in the east this year, he is expected to come home ahead.

The only swimming pool in the United States in which the hundred yards may be swum without a "turn" will be opened at Surf Beach Park, Alameda. The tank will measure 75x300 feet. This makes the local pool sixty feet longer than the Sutro pool in San Francisco which is called the biggest tank in the world. A great lot of attention will be attracted to the Alameda beach through the eastern states and many of the biggest swimming stars in the country will be seen in action in it.

White tile facings decorate the entire pool and smooth cement "floors" it. A great pit fifteen feet deep will make diving from the sixty-foot platform safe to the high plungers. Protective railings will guard the new swimmers from the deeper parts of the tank. The water for the pool will be pumped direct from the bay through a pipe that will extend out into the channel. A separate building will pump and filter the water making the tank as clean as if it held ocean water.

To utilize the immense plunge for sanctioned swimming races a swimming club is being organized by George Lineer, the old Alameda water polo player. This organization which will become a member of the Pacific Amateur Association will control the meets at the beach and see that every meet is conducted strictly according to amateur rules. Among the stars that Lineer has secured to represent the Alameda club are Ray Jorgensen, the San Francisco high school star, Chester Schofield, the boy champion of the Y. M. C. A., and Arthur Kidder, the university star.

On the Fourth of July a handicap 440 yards will be swum and a sanction has been applied for from the P. A. A. It is hoped that Lady Lanier, the world's record holder for this distance will compete. Throughout the season aquatic contests will be held and water polo games played on holidays and Sundays.

WRESTLE 2 HOURS WITHOUT FALL.

PORTLAND, Ore., May 24.—Walter Miller of St. Paul, claimant of the middleweight wrestling championship title of the world, and Eddie O'Connell, instructor at the Multnomah Amateur Athletic Club of Portland, wrestled for two hours and thirty minutes here last night without a fall. They quit at midnight according to wrestling rules agreed upon before the match.

NEW YORK, May 24.—Italian Joe Gans and Albert Badoud will box ten rounds here tomorrow night. Badoud claims the European welterweight title.

STAR BOWLERS BOOKED TONIGHT IN TRIBUNE MATCH

Schedule of Matches Worth Seeing Scheduled at Herold's Alleys

The attention of all bowlers is particularly called to the schedule for the evening in the Tribune Diamond Medal Tourney held on Herold's Ninth street alleys. In the 8 p. m. set is R. A. Whitney of the Oaks vs. H. Lowy, part owner of the Richmond alleys. Whitney and partner just finished the finals in the San Francisco and Suburban tourney, Whitney making the fine average of 209 pins for the 9 games bowled, and 695 for one series of 3 games. Levy finished high average man in a field of 10—five men teams on the Richmond alleys. This contest will be well worth seeing. In the 9 p. m. set is S. McPherson, a local contractor who loves the sport and was a captain of one of Chicago's best five man teams.

Following is the schedule:

8 P. M.
R. A. Whitney vs. H. Lowy.
John Hughs vs. George Fellows.
9 P. M.

REISIGL SIGNS WITH SPOKANE.

SPOKANE, Wash., May 24.—"Bugs" Reisigl, formerly of the San Francisco and Salt Lake City Coast League teams, has been signed by the Spokane Northwestern League team and will join the Indians not later than Friday at Seattle, it was announced here last night.

P. A. wins friends without any side inducements—without any coupons or premiums! The inducement to buy Prince Albert is quality! Neither national nor state restrictions on the use of premiums or coupons can in any way affect the sale of Prince Albert because its policy has always been for quality! Coupons or premiums have never been offered as an inducement to smoke it!

Prince Albert is made by a patented process that cuts out bite and parch and lets men smoke pipe-full after pipe-full or the makin's until the gong sounds, without a kick back or a complaint!

PRINCE ALBERT
the national joy smoke

Copyright 1916 by R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Co.

So it's up to every red-blooded man to jump the boundary line between himself and smoke happiness and know just what all this jimmy-pipe-joy-talk is about!

Men all over the world are today smoking Prince Albert because it meets their taste; because it gives them real tobacco enjoyment they have never found before! Don't you realize that if Prince Albert, in a few years, has made three men smoke pipes where one was smoked before, it certainly has the call on you—at least for a try-out!

Why, that's only being fair to yourself!

Buy Prince Albert anywhere tobacco is sold. Toppy red bags, 5c; tidy red tins, 10c; handsome pound and half-pound tin humidors—and—in that fine crystal-glass pound humidor with sponge-moistener top that keeps the tobacco in such splendid condition—always!

On the reverse side of this tidy red tin you will read: "Process Patented July 30th, 1907."

AMERICANISM IS PARTY DOCTRINE.

At this particular time of a Presidential year, coming as it does in a period of serious consideration as to what shall be done to insure the integrity of the nation and restore a normal measure of confidence in and loyalty to American ideals, it is not surprising that there is much talk as to the men and methods best suited to the task. Neither is it surprising that many should claim, and have claimed for them, peculiar virtues for performing the task.

It is not improbable that the people are giving undue importance to the idea that the "restoration of Americanism" depends upon an individual. The doctrines of the Republican party are doctrines of Americanism and the country may have full confidence that if that party is restored to power its leader and leaders will be devoted to the duty of restoring and exacting patriotism and national loyalty. The Republican party was baptised in a bitter fight to maintain American unity and solidarity. It won the fight for Americanism and ever since Americanism has been in safe keeping with the Republican party. A party so pledged to the preservation of American ideals is more to be trusted than any individual.

The Republican party platform will not be silent upon this question at Chicago. What the people may expect of the party if it is returned to power was outlined by Hon. Elihu Root in New York City some three months ago. He said:

> They may expect that their government will stand for full and adequate preparation by the American people for their own defense. The Republican party loves peace and hates war; it abhors and will never submit to military domination; but it is composed of men who love our country and who deem that the independence, the liberty, the honor and the opportunity of the American democracy are not merely to be talked about with weak and flabby sentiment, but are to be maintained and safeguarded by the practical power of a virile and patriotic people.
>
> The Republican party stands for a citizenship made competent by training to perform the freeman's duty of defense for his country. It stands for a regular army no larger than is necessary, but as large as is necessary to serve as a first line, a nucleus, a source of instruction and of administration for the army of American citizens who may be called upon to defend their country.
>
> And the Republican party stands for the gospel of patriotic service to our country by every citizen according to his ability in peace and in war. It stands for a reawakening of American patriotism. It is not content that while the people of other lands are rendering the last full measure of devotion in sacrifice and suffering and dying for their countries, America shall remain alone dull to the call of country and satisfied in the comforts and pleasures of prosperity.
>
> They may expect that armed readiness for defense will give power to our diplomacy in the maintenance of peace.
>
> They may expect that the power and will of a united people to defend their country will prevent the application to our peaceful and prosperous land of the hateful doctrine that among nations might makes right, regardless of the rules of justice and humanity.
>
> They may expect that the manifest, potential strength and competency of the nation will maintain the effectiveness and reality of that great policy of national safety which in the declaration of President Monroe forbade the destruction of our security by the establishment of hostile military powers in our neighborhood.
>
> They may expect that their government will not forget but will ever maintain the principles of American freedom, the duties of America to the peace and progress of the world, and those ideals of liberty and justice for all mankind which above all else make the true greatness of the American democracy.

If the people may expect these things from the Republican party what broader statement of the doctrine of Americanism do they need? The most important qualification of any candidate is that he be competent and willing to carry out this doctrine.

THE APPAM CASE.

It has come to light in the Federal Court proceedings at Norfolk, Va., that the State Department has decided against the German contentions in the case of the steamship Appam, which was brought into Newport News last January by Lieutenant Berg, who had been put in charge after the Appam's capture by the commerce raider Moewe off the West African coast.

Secretary Lansing has informed Count von Bernstorff that the Appam is not entitled to asylum in an American port under the provisions of the Prussian-American treaty of 1799. The note to this effect has been submitted as evidence in the libel proceedings brought by the British owners of the Appam at Norfolk. It is somewhat of a surprise, for it was believed that the government had interpreted the Prussian treaty as being applicable to the case. Mr. Lansing asserts that the old treaty is applicable only to prizes brought into American ports by vessels of war and that even in such cases the port of refuge could not be made a port of "ultimate destination or indefinite asylum," by vessels bringing prizes into port.

Article XIX of the treaty of 1799 reads in part:

> The vessels of war, public and private, shall carry freely, wheresoever they please, the vessels and effects taken from their enemies, without being obliged to pay any duties, charges or fees to officers of admiralty, of customs or others; nor shall such prizes be arrested, searched, or put under legal process when they come to and enter the ports of the other party, but may be freely carried out again at any time by their captors to the places expressed in their commissions, which the commanding officer of such vessel shall be obliged to show. But conformably to the treaties existing between the United States and Great Britain, no vessel that shall have made a prize upon British subjects shall have a right to shelter in the ports of the United States, but if forced therein by tempests, or any other danger or accident of the sea, they shall be obliged to depart as soon as possible.

The captors of the Appam put a prize crew aboard and instead of accompanying the prize to port, sent her into port in charge of the prize crew commander. The State Department does not question the right of the prize to depart within the prescribed time for taking on fuel, provisions, etc. But before Mr. Lansing decided the matter, the Federal Court for the Virginia district took jurisdiction over the Appam and placed a United States marshal in charge of her. If it should ultimately be decided that the court did not properly have jurisdiction in the case, the Appam will be given the choice of putting to sea again or interning. In such event of the instructions of the commander of the Moewe to his prize master to make an American port "and lay up" would be carried out in an indirect manner. There are many ways of accomplishing an object under treaty provisions.

BERKELEY AT FIFTY.

Berkeley today looks back upon a half century of splendid civic achievement. It has every reason to be proud of and satisfied with its past and to have an abundant and courageous faith in its future.

It has been a city of great good fortune. All things considered, it is doubtful if any other American city measures up so closely to the ideal municipality as does Berkeley. It got a good start in life; with a fine physical location, it had a great university to elevate its tone and give "character" to its environment; while it has grown rapidly, it has always been sure of itself and has suffered no reactions; it has had good, honest, efficient government and is today probably the best administered city in the United States.

Yet Berkeley has not been guilty of giving too much attention to the academic, the artistic, the esthetic and the theoretical things of civic life. Its citizens have been as practical and have given as much attention to the material things as those of any other community. While looking after health, education, safety and recreation they have also looked after the business development of their city. Today they and their friends are able to see what a thorough all-round job they have done.

While felicitating Berkeley upon her half-century of wonderful achievement and assuring her of our faith in her future, we would remind her citizens of one significant phase of the city's development: Berkeley is no longer an isolated city. It is a part of the great Alameda County urban community and a part of the great metropolitan district of San Francisco Bay. It has been connected up with its neighbors by the street railway, the electric train, the telephone, and the automobile. It is separated from Oakland only by an imaginary line. Berkeley's years of greatest opportunity lie before her and she is expected to contribute much in the general development of the great east bay district.

Dr. David Starr Jordan formally said farewell to Stanford University this week. He had directed its destinies for twenty-five years, during which time five thousand students were graduated and the annual graduating class grew from two to over five hundred. Dr. Jordan's service to the State has been very valuable. He built up in California a university that has become famous throughout the world and he has won personal recognition in other countries. He has helped to make California known abroad. For this we are grateful. To a man who has done so much as Dr. Jordan and done it so well the joy of service is his greatest reward. None can take anything from it and all know the uselessness of trying to add anything to it.

Efforts to obtain an appropriation for a new post office building for Oakland have made substantial progress during the present session of Congress. The bill appropriating $650,000 for an addition to the present building has been endorsed by the Treasury Department and yesterday was unanimously approved by the House public buildings and grounds committee. This promises favorable action should an omnibus bill be passed by Congress at this session. Even if the appropriation is not voted now the new building project will be in a favorable position for action by the next Congress.

This is a time to show our patriotic colors—and our colors, be it remembered, are, red, white and blue."

* * *

Editor Rowell of the Fresno Republican is taking comfort out of the situation in this way: "Newspapers all over the country have been taking straw votes on the Republican Presidential nomination. Most of the results show Roosevelt in the lead. Some of them show Hughes. But the interesting thing is that none of them show anybody else."

The Bakersfield Echo, in an editorial headed "Speed," thus discourses: "Los Angeles to Bakersfield in 2 hours and 50 minutes is the latest local automobile record. The fastest train makes it in less than 7 hours. Seven or eight years ago an automobile was considered to be making fast time if it made the run in 6 or 7 hours. Three years ago in the Panama-Pacific road race the time was about 3½ hours."

NO LAUGHING MATTER.

We want to say for the benefit of the Hon. We anticipate the answer of the plain-spoken gentleman from Illinois that there was extenuating provocation; that he referred to an amendment by the Hon. Bob Henry of Texas to the rural credits bill directing the United States Treasury to buy $50,000,000 annually of farm mortgage bonds. A dog laugh? It would weep!—New York Sun.

A REPAIR JOB---FOR ST. LOUIS

SOME DANIELS' MISSTATEMENTS

Here is Secretary Daniel's last statement regarding the conditions of the air service, which contains no more truth than his statements regarding the alleged record cruise of submarines:

"Our present air fleet is not more than two years old. Upon my recommendation Congress gave us $1,000,000 to begin upon an elaborate plan for the real development o faviation in the navy. At that time the navy had but four aviators and no satisfactory machine. A special training school has been established at Pensacola, Fla., and we have about forty machines now in operation down there. The armored cruiser North Carolina has been equipped successfully as a mother ship for aeroplanes and participated in the recent exercises at Guantanamo. The same sort of equipment is being extended to the armored cruisers Washington and West Virginia."

Let us go over this statement point by point to see just how far Mr. Daniels juggles with the truth.

We have not yet an air fleet. The first step toward organizing an air service was taken in 1911 under the Taft administration, and the one advance to which Secretary Daniels points with some pride, the launching device for aeroplanes, was developed and tested before Mr. Daniels became Secretary of the Navy. If two years later there were only four aviators in the navy, it was due to Mr. Daniels' neglect of aeronautics. He could have done as Lord Churchill did when he became head of the British navy and found that there were only a few aviators. He added over 100 in one year. Unlike Lord Churchill, Mr. Daniels paid no attention to aeronautics, and two years later he still knew so little about the subject that when the House naval committee in 1915 proposed to allow $1,000,000 for aeronautics he told the committee that he would not know what to do with it. The fact that the general board of the navy had recommended an appropriation of $5,000,000 and the plans were all ready for organizing the air service did not count with Mr. Daniels. His attitude was like the attitude of Congressman J. J. Fitzgerald, who, when asked, during a debate on the floor of the House, whether he did not know that the general board of the navy had recommended the appropriation of $5,000,000 for aeronautics, replied: "I did, and that is the reason I pay so little attention to their recommendations."

Only an aviation school was established at Pensacola, instead of four schools, as the navy needed, and there never have been even fifteen aeroplanes in commission there at one time. Therefore, it is not true that "we have about forty machines now in operation down there," as Mr. Daniels states.

Likewise, the armored cruiser North Carolina did not go down to Guantanamo equipped as a mother ship for aeroplanes. It went there with nine aviators and only four aeroplanes, no launching device, no radio for aeroplanes, no bomb-dropping device. Being extremely short of personnel to man the ship, the aviators had to do ship duty, and that left little time for the aviation exercises. An enterprising officer "rigged up" a radio set, but it was insufficient to meet the need, so the fleet could not employ aeroplanes to spot the fall of shots during gun-fire practice. The lack of radio sets also prevented the working out of difficult naval problems, such as directing the movements of the fleet by advising it of the movements of the enemy's ships.—Aerial Age Weekly.

TWENTY YEARS AGO TODAY

At a meeting of the board of education last evening resignations were received from Miss E. A. Thompson of the Prescott School, Miss Sentier of the Durant school and Miss Florence A. Pereau of the Cole school.

The bid for street and public building lighting, filed by the gas company is slightly lower than the one last year. For arc lights of 2000 candle power the company asks forty-two cents per light, according to the moonlight schedule.

A tall steel chimney has been provided for the court house instead of the old brick one, which has been dismantled.

What's the sense, good friend, in grieving
For the chances you have lost?
They are gone beyond retrieving;
They are part of folly's cost.
You have lost them to your sorrow,
So just let them slide away,
Looking to some fairer morrow
For the chance you can make pay.

Opportunity will find you
If your eyes are opened wide,
But the jade may pass behind you
If to ancient woes you're tied.
So don't grieve much for the chances
That of yore you threw away,
But just concentrate your glances
On the chance that's due today.

THE RIVER "JITNEY."

To the Editor of The Tribune:

I have read with great interest the account in the paper of the conference before the Railroad Commission of representatives of various labor unions concerned in water transportation and the California Transportation Company and Steamboat Owners' Association, at which conference statement was made by Captain Anderson "That even now 'jitneys' of the river are getting the cream of the business and that if the steamboat owners were given an increase of the freight rates it would result in the 'jitneys' of the river getting all of the business.

"I feel justified in assuming that Captain Anderson's reference to the 'jitney' launches of the river must concern itself with my business, in view of the fact that the Island Transportation Company handles practically all of the gasoline boat and barge business for the transportation of freight from this port. The use of the word 'jitney' with reference to my business seems to be an inspired attempt to place my business and my operations as being in the same class with the unregulated motor car 'jitneys' which are operating in competition with the railroad companies. I very much resent this implication on a number of counts.

The investment of the Island Transportation Company in boats and barges amounts to $360,000. The company has been in business for ten years and three months and in the year of 1915 carried 330,415 tons of freight and 1811 head of live stock, which for "jitney" boats is some volume of business. As a matter of fact, the gasoline boats and barges on the San Joaquin river are in the highest sense taking advantage of and fulfilling the uses to which water transportation should be put for the benefit of the population tributary to navigable streams. The gasoline boat and barge goes where regular steamboats will not and cannot go, for loads that the regular steamboats have in the past refused to take except at their own convenience and their operation on the river is a guarantee of the stability and permanence of water transportation.

The average steamer of the type operated by the C. N. & I. and C. T. Companies cost $150,000. A barge and gasoline tow boat with even greater carrying capacity averages in cost $20,000, which in the past has been an automatic insurance to the shippers of the San Joaquin delta against the excessive charges that might result from a monopoly of steamboat transportation, since it would require an enormous investment of capital to fight a steamboat monopoly of this kind with steamboats, whereas it is an easy matter for people of comparatively small capital to operate and maintain gasoline boats and barges and to keep prices to their normal level, since not only is the capital investment less, but the crews required for the safe operation of gasoline boats and barges are smaller than those required for a steamboat of similar carrying capacity.

This company's "jitneys" in no way interfere with the steamboat company's regular freight business between Stockton and San Francisco, but, as a matter of fact, acts as an adjunct to that service by accumulating in and distributing from Stockton many of the articles which are then carried to San Francisco or have been brought from San Francisco by the steamboat companies.

SAYS CITY WASTES ART OPPORTUNITY

Oakland Will Not Attend Its Own Exhibition, Is Charge

Curator Harshe Sees Blow to Aesthetic Growth

What might be done by way of aesthetic development and for the art galleries of the city if Oakland would only come to its own exhibitions was suggested by Curator Robert Harsche yesterday to Ebell Society.

So far Oakland has not come to its exhibitions, according to his speech.

Harsche made no indictments of the city's temperament. He did not attempt to analyze the reason why its people blissfully ignored the changing shows of pictures that have filled the galleries since he took charge. He merely stated that there have been but few to absorb the offerings there.

DRAWS COMPARISON.

And he compared the throngs that journeyed patiently across the bay to flood the Fine Arts Palace at the exposition all last year, to those few.

"No doubt," he remarked, "you thought it a good chance to get your systems full of art—pardon the expression. But there is still more to be seen."

The California artists' canvasses, and exhibitions of the best Eastern painters that it is hoped are to be brought out here were mentioned among this "more." This led to mention of the city's contemplated permanent collection, and a statement from the curator that he did not think "the city would be justified in spending much money for pictures if people will not come to see them."

Otherwise the audience was assured that the treasures in the museum were many and fine; that the two colonial rooms were as fine as any in the country; that the work was progressing, and that its director hoped to have many cases of birds and of "industrial" cases showing processes of the industries. Some of the children in the public schools are helping by making the cases, but otherwise the work is unsupported. "Here is a chance for some one interested in natural history to pass his or her name on to posterity by endowing this work," added Harsche, explaining how it had been done in St. Louis and Chicago.

INTRODUCES SPEAKER.

Miss Annie Florence Brown, who introduced the speaker, spoke of the present social, civic and artistic progress of Oakland as "something fine left by the last administration," something "finer than buildings."

Curator Harsche, whom she complimented highly, has been a member of the Missouri and Tennessee Universities as well as associate professor of graphic arts at Stanford University; an instructor of the Art Students' League in New York—as well known an art school as there is America; assistant to the chief of fine arts at the exposition; author of "A Guide to Modern Art." He is an etcher with etchings hanging in the Luxembourg and he has made pottery. At present one of the things he is doing is to plan the detail of the cases showing bird life, and to personally stuff some of the specimens.

At the close of his address the curator was asked more questions about Oakland's attendance at the art galleries while he was given a reception at which Mrs. George W. Percy was the presiding hostess.

Dr. P. Epstein Here on Mission for War Fund

Dr. P. Epstein, who has come to this country from Cologne, Germany, on work for the Jewish national fund will deliver an address on "The Jewish Problem" at a meeting in Blake hall, 529 Twelfth street, Tuesday evening, May 30. Before sailing for this country Dr. Epstein did organization work for the Jewish national fund in Russia. The disturbance of Zionist work in Europe has induced the national fund headquarters to bring him here.

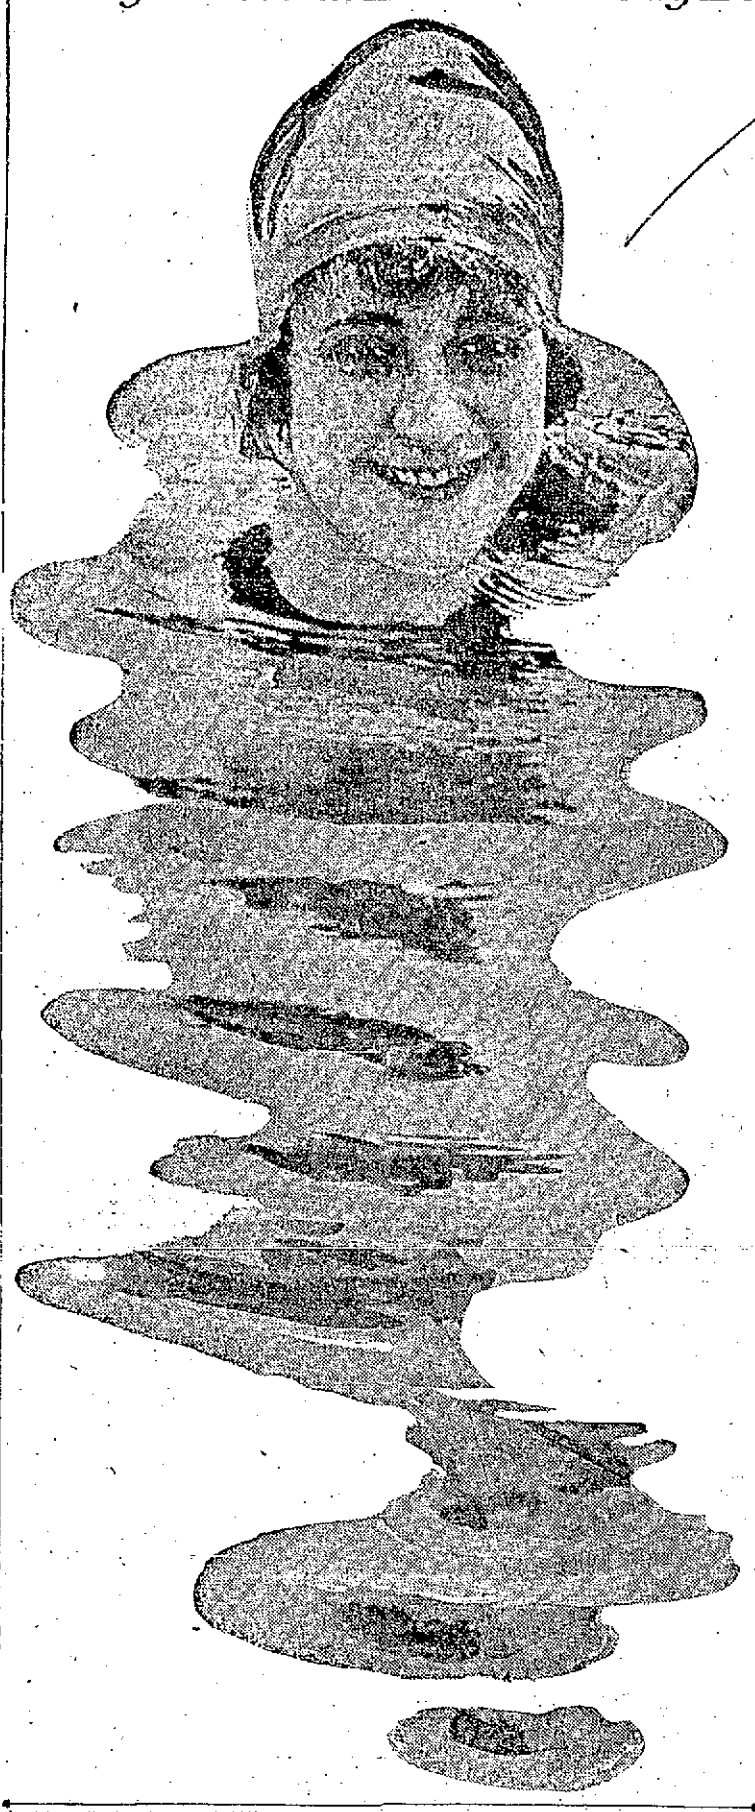

Dr. Epstein received a rabbinical training in Russia and is a graduate of the University of Marburg, where he studied under the world-renowned philosopher, Professor Hermann Cohen.

Come and Splash at Tribune Day at Idora

Pretty Girls Will Be There in Gay Bathing Suits

"SPLASH!" MISS TRIBUNE DID A HIGH DIVE—AND THIS IS THE WAY SHE CAME UP! SHE SAYS TO COME ON IN—THE WATER'S FINE AT THE IDORA PARK POOL, WHERE THOUSANDS ARE TO MAKE MERRY ON TRIBUNE DAY.

Will Go Down in Park History

Splash!

The festive bathing suit is more or less the principal fashion at Idora these days.

Bathing at the big beach is the rage of the season.

TRIBUNE DAY, June 6, will see many notable swimming events. Pretty girls will exhibit high diving stunts. Crack swimmers will compete in special races.

June 6th will see the biggest celebration the park has ever known, when the general public of the bay region is to be invited to the famous joy-spot as guests of The TRIBUNE.

MANY FREE TICKETS.

Thousands of free tickets will be issued, through The TRIBUNE offices, through stores and even by mail. The TRIBUNE wants everyone in Oakland to be its guest; and in Berkeley, Alameda, Richmond, Hayward — every friend of The TRIBUNE, everywhere, is invited.

A large number of special events will be seen during the big day. Free concession passes will be given out to all the guests. There will be big free shows galore. Rides on the scenic railways; on the Fadgl animals, the merry-go round, the boats in the queer grottoes where one sees so many queer things—there are all kinds of things for the kiddies—and The TRIBUNE is going to treat them. For grown-ups there are the beaches, the concessions — for grown-ups love these concessions, too, and all kinds of fun. It's to be the big day of the year.

MASCOT OF DAY.

Ask MISS TRIBUNE.

She's the mascot of the day—and is the representative of the girls of Oakland. She has sampled every joy at the big park. She knows everybody's to have a good time.

Announcement of the distribution of tickets will be made shortly. Watch for it.

Don't forget to get the tickets; they're free for the asking.

And remember the date — June 6!

"I think I can win a prize in the swimming races," says MISS TRIBUNE.

This is news to fair swimmers who love to compete in big swimming events. And it's true. There will be swimming races for girls, and all kinds of aquatic events, in which famous stars will appear, and also well known amateur swimmers and "just ordinary girls," like MISS TRIBUNE, will have special events to try their prowess for the first time.

And it will all be FREE.

This is THE TRIBUNE'S treat, and THE TRIBUNE wants all its friends to enjoy the big day, to the utmost.

Watch for the announcement of the distribution of tickets. The committee is making its final plans now, and will report to the general public in a few days.

Remember the date.

JUNE 6.

And be there!

WELCOME IS WAITING AT CHICO FAIR

Merchants of Butte City Urge Local Boosters to Come

Several Hundred to Go With Special Train

"We have collected a fund to entertain the business men from Alameda county next Saturday, and we will make the celebration on Colonel Roosevelt's return from Africa look like a bill collector's welcome.

"Chico Chamber of Commerce."

This is the telegram posted today by the manufacturers' committee of the Chamber of Commerce. Practically every detail of the big trip to Chico next Saturday was completed today when the manufacturers and new industries' bureaus met in joint session at the Commercial Club Grill, to finish the last arrangements.

Several hundred Oakland business men will make the trip to the Butte county exposition at Chico Saturday. They will leave Oakland early Saturday morning in a special train, stopping for luncheon at Marysville, where they will be entertained by Marysville's business men, and reaching Chico in the afternoon.

Special entertainments will be held at the big exhibit tent, where the Alameda county and Oakland factory exhibits will be examined, and where the visit will be officially designated as Oakland Chamber of Commerce day.

In the evening a big banquet will be held in honor of the Oakland visitors, when the mayor of Chico and several prominent business men will speak.

On Sunday, on the return from the trip, the party will lay over three hours at Oroville, where Oroville business men will act as hosts.

The trip is to be a "trade excursion" as well as a visit to the Alameda county exhibits at the big Chico show. This exhibit is one of the largest in the fair, including the county exhibit, containing many features from the Panama-Pacific Exposition and the Oakland factory exhibit, prepared for the manufactures' bureau of the Chamber of Commerce and paid for by private subscriptions among the Oakland factory men.

The Chico Chamber of Commerce will be official host to the Alameda county delegation for the day and, besides seeing the exposition, the guests will be shown the beauties of Chico and points of interest about that place.

CROWD EXHIBITS.

CHICO, May 24. — Twenty-seven hundred school children, students of the grammar schools, Chico High school and Chico State Normal school, crowded the tents of the Butte county spring exposition yesterday on School Children's day, despite a heavy rain which fell throughout the morning and during the early part of the afternoon.

This also was Yeomen day, an especial program being carried out by the Yeomen in honor of W. E. Davy of Des Moines, Ia., chief correspondent, and W. J. Elliott of San Francisco, State manager. The California Development Board shared the special honors of the day, Robert Newton Lynch and his party being entertained by exposition officials.

Dr. B. J. Cady, veterinary field agent of the University of California and United States Department of Agriculture, bureau of animal husbandry, co-operating, gave a practical demonstration of, and a short talk on the manner of using anti-hog cholera serum. He was assisted by Dr. W. P. Jackson.

"The stock and poultry show are worthy of any exposition," says Wilber Welker, Alameda county fair commissioner, after he had made a thorough inspection of the fair grounds. "The Alameda exposition committee is more than pleased with the Butte county spring exposition."

The Alameda county exhibit is an extensive one, occupying 165 front feet of exhibit space. Another attractive exhibit is that from Sacramento. The Los Molinos exhibit is unique. In the foreground is a typical barnyard, with duck ponds and ducks and other familiar objects. In the background is a farm panorama. The barnyard leads into a barn in which are exhibited Los Molinos' cattle, horses, hogs and poultry.

The National Forest Service has an exhibit educational in character. Forest Supervisor J. W. Rushing of the Lassen National Forest has stationed two of his rangers at the exhibit booth to explain all the details of the display, which is a small reproduction of that made at the Panama-Pacific Exposition.

WIFE SEEKS DIVORCE.

Complaining that his wife not only treated him in diverse cruel ways, but that she finally packed up her belongings and deserted him, J. A. Shields, 5341 College avenue, has commenced suit for divorce from Rose Shields. The couple were married in 1910 and have one child.

Child of Nature Tires of City

Jacques, Beachcomber, Is Bewildered

SAN FRANCISCO, May 24.—The tropics and lone places are calling Jacques. For a week he has seen the wheels of business circling about him and he is dazzled, tired, ready to go back to beach combing. Jacques is one of the last of the picturesque Tahiti beachcombers. He came here in steerage on the liner Moana.

Like an illustration of some fantastic child's picture book is Jacques. He wears a strange, ragged suit made of sail cloth patchings. A mattress of hair hangs far below his neck and a Rip Van Winkle-like beard leaves only his eyes and a bit of nose visible.

For many years he has been a Tahiti character, but decided to return to civilization for a time. Already he is tired of it and will return on the next steamer.

THUGS BEAT AGED MAN AT LIVERMORE

Jack Ryan Set Upon by Four Men; Is Taken to Hospital.

Jack Ryan, an aged sheepherder, is in a precarious condition at the county infirmary with a fractured skull and Deputy Sheriff Joe Soares is investigating the circumstances of a hold-up and robbery which is supposed to have occurred at Livermore last Saturday night when the aged man was beaten and relieved of a large sum of money.

Ryan was found on the streets in Livermore by the night watchman and taken to the lock-up. Sunday his condition had not improved and he was removed to the infirmary. Dr. Wills discovered that his skull had been fractured with a blunt instrument and last night he was able to perform an operation which may save the patient's life. Ryan is 70 years of age.

It is the theory of the authorities that he went into Livermore with his savings to make some purchases. He wore a new pair of shoes and in a new purse found in his pockets he had 60 cents. At the infirmary when questioned by Deputy Soares last night Ryan indicated that four men had attacked him. Further investigation is being made at Livermore today.

Secretary Redfield Says Paper Mills Are Needed

Scrap Saving Campaign Results in Flat Failure

SAN FRANCISCO, May 24.—Chambers of Commerce of California were given a jolt by William C. Redfield, secretary of commerce, in a letter to the state department of education.

Redfield intimates that the chambers are asleep because they do not take steps toward the establishment of paper mills.

Some weeks ago Redfield, in a communication to the State Department of Education urged that in view of the paper shortage school children be requested to save old paper. The state passed the word along and in a number of cities, notably Santa Cruz and San Jose, the children adopted the suggestion with much vigor. But after they had collected a great batch of paper it was found there was no market for it and the paper was burned.

It developed that the only market for old paper was a mill in San Francisco and that mill, which pays $3.50 a ton, was able to handle only the waste paper collected in San Francisco. Redfield was advised of this condition and in his return letter he hits at the chambers of commerce, saying that in these times when the paper supply is scarce, they should encourage the establishment of mills to handle waste paper. Redfield says there is no trouble in finding a market for old paper in the east.

Why Two Pairs of Glasses Are Unnecessary

New Double Vision Lenses Have Solved Difficult Problem.

Optical science has recently made its greatest stride forward since Benj. Franklin's time, when the first bifocals were invented. The last word in double vision glasses is "Caltex" One-piece Bifocals, reading and distance corrections are ground in one piece of clear optical glass, the result being a perfect bifocal. Many may now wear bifocals comfortably who found it impossible to do so with the old style. Two pairs of glasses are not necessary if you wear "Caltex" One-piece Bifocals. Remember the name "Caltex." Ground at the three establishments of the California Optical Co., 1221 Broadway, Oakland; 181 Post St. and 2508 Mission St., San Francisco.—Advt.

FOUR KILLED IN NOTED MINE FIRE

Yellow Jacket Scene of Disaster in Its Lower Levels.

VIRGINIA CITY, Nev., May 24.—Four are dead and heavy damage has been done to the old Belcher workings of the Yellow Jacket mine at Gold Hill, adjoining Virginia City, by a fire that broke out last night at the compressor station on the 1400-foot level. At 11 o'clock today it is still burning, but is under control. The dead are: Thomas McDonald, Felice Casale, Dolinto ———, Battagli, all of Gold Hill.

The fire started through a fuse blowing out and the flames reached the timbering in a flash. The bodies of McDonald and Casale have been recovered.

The Yellow Jacket mine is one of the famous Comstock Lode properties, rich in the bonanza days. Its production of gold has fallen off in later years, and now it is flooded with water up to the 1600-foot level. It is owned by E. B. Sturgis, head of the Yellow Jacket Gold and Silver Mining Co., with offices in San Francisco.

Yellow Jacket is in the Gold Hill district, one that Mark Twain, a reporter and city editor of the Enterprise, knew well in the early sixties.

In April, 1869, a similar fire broke out in the lower levels of "Kentuck," a mine adjoining Yellow Jacket, and burned for six months. Yellow Jacket was formerly owned by the Sharon family, pioneer mine owners.

NOTICE OF AWARD OF CONTRACT.

Pursuant to Statute and to Resolution No. 12720 N. S. of the Council of the City of Oakland, passed May 23rd, 1916, directing this notice, notice is hereby given that the said Council in open session on the 18th day of May 1916, opened, examined and publicly declared all sealed proposals offered for the following work, to-wit:

That the portion of 36th Avenue that is bounded on the northeast by the southwestern line of East 14th Street, on the southeast by the southeastern line of 36th Avenue, on the southwest by the northeastern line of East 12th Street and on the northwest by a line parallel to and distant 37 feet northwesterly from the southeastern line of 36th Avenue, be graded, curbed with concrete, guttered with a concrete gutter, three feet wide, and paved with oil-macadam; also

That East 12th Street from the southeastern line of 36th Avenue to a line parallel thereto and distant 50 feet northwesterly therefrom, be graded, curbed with concrete, paved with oil-macadam, and culverted with two corrugated iron and concrete culverts, each having two branches; also

That 36th Avenue be graded, curbed with concrete, guttered with concrete gutters, three feet wide, and paved with oil-macadam, as follows: from the southwestern line of East 12th Street to a line parallel thereto and distant 155 feet southwesterly therefrom; from a line parallel to and distant 205 feet southwesterly from the southwestern line of East 12th Street to the southwestern line, produced, of Block C of the Fruit Vale Terminal Tract, as shown on the map thereof, filed December 7, 1895, in book 15, of maps, page 41, Alameda County Records: and from the northeastern line, produced, of Block E of said Fruit Vale Terminal Tract to the northeastern line, produced, of Post Street: also

That four corrugated iron and concrete culverts, each having two branches, be constructed in 36th Avenue as follows: Two in the crossing of East 10th Street and one, each, in the northwestern halves of the crossings of East 8th Street and Boehmer Street:

Excepting, however, from the aforesaid work, the construction of curb as follows: on the southeastern side of 36th Avenue between lines parallel to and distant 80 feet and 98 feet northeasterly from the northeastern line of East 12th Street, and between lines parallel to and distant 85 feet and 93 feet northeasterly from the northeastern line of East 10th Street; on the northwestern side of 36th Avenue between lines parallel to and distant 162.5 feet and 170.5 feet southwesterly from the southwestern line of East 10th Street, between lines parallel to and distant 113 feet and 127 feet northeasterly from the northeastern line of East 8th Street, and from said production of the northeastern line of Block E to a line parallel to and distant 311 feet northeasterly from the northeastern line of East 8th Street; also Excepting the grading of all sidewalks.

And said Council determined and declared that the aforesaid work and improvement is of more than local or ordinary public benefit and will affect and benefit the district hereinafter described, which said district is declared to be the district benefited by said work and improvement and that therefore the entire cost and expenses of said work and improvement shall be and are made chargeable against and shall be assessed upon said district, which district is within the City of Oakland, County of Alameda, State of California, and is particularly bounded and described as follows, to-wit:

Beginning at a point on the southwestern line of East 14th Street distant, thereon, 30 feet southeasterly from the southeastern line of 36th Avenue; thence southwesterly parallel to the southeastern line of 36th Avenue, 125 feet; thence southeasterly parallel to the southwestern line of East 14th Street, 100 feet; thence parallel to the southeastern line of 36th Avenue to the northeastern line of Post Street; thence northwesterly along the northeastern line, and its production, of Post Street to the production of the southeastern line of the "Elmwood Park" tract as shown on a map thereof, filed July 23, 1906, in book 21 of maps, page 42, Alameda County Records; thence northeasterly along the southeastern line, and its production, of said "Elmwood Park" to the most southern corner of Lot 93 of said "Elmwood Park"; thence in a direct line to a point on the southwestern line of East 8th Street distant, thereon, 190 feet northwesterly from the northwestern line of 36th Avenue; thence in a direct line to a point on the northeastern line of East 8th Street distant, thereon, 125 feet northwesterly from the northwestern line of 36th Avenue; thence parallel to the southeastern line of 36th Avenue to a point distant 60 feet northeasterly from the northeastern line of East 12th Street; thence southeasterly parallel to the northeastern line of East 12th Street, 85 feet; thence parallel to the southeastern line of 36th Avenue to the southwestern line of East 14th Street; thence in a direct line to the point of beginning; saving, excepting, and excluding from the aforesaid district all public streets included and contained therein.

In this notice whenever a distance from a line is given the distance measured at right angles to such line is meant unless otherwise stated.

The Council determined that serial bonds shall be issued to represent assessments of $25.00 or over for the cost of said work and improvement; said serial bonds shall extend over a period ending 5 years from the 2nd day of January next succeeding the date of said bonds and an even annual proportion of the principal sum thereof shall be payable by coupon, on the 2nd day of January every year after their date until the whole is paid, and the interest shall be payable semi-annually, by coupon, on the 2nd days of January and July respectively of each year at the rate of 7 per cent per annum on all sums unpaid until the whole of said principal and interest are paid. Said bonds shall be issued in accordance with said Improvement Act of 1911.

For further particulars reference is hereby made to Resolution of Intention No. 12121 N. S., passed April 6th, 1916, and on file in the office of the City Clerk of the City of Oakland.

And thereafter on the 23rd day of May, 1916, by said Resolution of Award No. 12720 N. S., awarded the contract for said work to the lowest regular responsible bidder, to-wit: to Hutchinson Co., at the prices named for said work in its proposal on file, namely:

Per cubic yard of excavation	$ .05
Per linear foot of concrete curbing	.35
Per square foot of concrete gutter	.12
Per square foot of oil-macadam pavement	.03
Per linear foot of 8"x24" corrugated iron and concrete culvert	1.80

ORDINANCE NO. ——— N. S.

AN ORDINANCE REGULATING THE USE OF INTERLOCKING HOLLOW TILE IN BUILDINGS HEREAFTER ERECTED OR ALTERED IN THE CITY OF OAKLAND.

BE IT ORDAINED by the Council of the City of Oakland as follows:

SECTION 1. Wherever masonry walls are required in the building law such masonry may hereafter be used under the following additional conditions:

The term "masonry" shall apply to brick, stone, concrete, plain or reinforced, or interlocking hollow tile construction.

The term "interlocking hollow tile" is hereby defined to mean a tile made of shale, fire or other clay, which when burned shall be free from undue checking or warping. Such tile shall be so designed that when laid in a wall each unit is locked or bonded into the opposite tile or into the tile immediately above and below, said bond to be incorporated in each tile and be an integral part thereof.

SECTION 2. All interlocking hollow tiles shall conform to the following requirements: They shall be burned to such density that in a forty-eight hour test they will not absorb moisture exceeding twelve per cent of their weight.

They shall develop an ultimate crushing strength of not less than fifteen hundred pounds per square inch of their bearing members.

The allowable stress shall not exceed one hundred and fifty pounds per square inch of net area of bearing members. Bearing members shall mean only such vertical webs or walls of such tiles as will rest on thorough mortar beds and stand in complete vertical alignment with the vertical members of the interlocking hollow tile below.

The vertical webs and shells of all interlocking hollow tile shall be in thickness not less than twenty percent of the cross section measurement of the void they enclose.

SECTION 3. All buildings hereafter erected of interlocking hollow tile which comply with the provisions of this ordinance and in addition have an incombustible roof covering as provided for Class C buildings, shall be rated as Class C buildings.

SECTION 4. All exterior and bearing walls of Class C buildings, including shafts and courts, shall be built of brick, stone, concrete or interlocking hollow tile. They may be built as continuous walls without openings or if openings occur the bearing stress shall not exceed the maximum stress given in Section 2.

SECTION 5. Exterior walls of interlocking hollow tiles shall not exceed three stories in height above the basement and shall be of the same thickness laid up, anchored and built as required for brick walls.

SECTION 6. Walls of interlocking hollow tile may be built supporting a portion of a floor in addition to their own weight, or self-supporting curtain walls only, in which latter case columns shall be built in the wall to carry floor loads. Where walls support floor loads the center of any column or bearing stud partition shall not be more than twenty-four feet from the wall. When columns, as required in this section, are to be built into interlocking hollow tile walls, they may be made of interlocking hollow tile or brick thoroughly bonded to the tile and formed as pilasters of such thickness as to bring the load on the tile within the limits prescribed in this ordinance, or steel or reinforced concrete columns may be used if the tile curtain walls are properly bonded to the column and reinforced as prescribed elsewhere in this ordinance.

SECTION 7. The thickness of exterior walls of interlocking hollow tile when used in buildings not over fifty feet in width and not more than eighty-five feet in depth and when used only as a dwelling, lodging house, hotel, tenement house or apartment house above the ground floor, shall be not less than given in the following table, except that party walls shall be four inches thicker.

2 story bldg.	13	13	8
3 story bldg.	17	13	13	8

If any story exceeds in height the number of feet prescribed in the table, the thickness of walls throughout such story shall be increased four inches for each five feet or fraction thereof in excess of the tabulated height, but the total height of any building shall not exceed forty feet. Parapet and fire walls shall not be less than eight inches thick.

SECTION 8. Class C buildings one story high and less than one hundred feet in depth shall have walls ten inches thick and if more than one hundred feet in depth shall have walls twelve inches thick, provided that in all buildings over fifty feet wide four inch pilasters or columns shall be built into the wall at distances of not more than twenty feet on centers and under all concentrated loads.

Except that one story dwellings not more than thirty feet wide and not more than forty-five feet long may be erected with interlocking hollow tile walls six inches thick.

SECTION 9. Bond iron at least three inches by one quarter inch shall be imbedded in the inner half of every interlocking hollow tile wall at every floor and ceiling joist line and shall run continuously around the building.

SECTION 10. Walls of interlocking hollow tile may be used as curtain walls subject to the following conditions:

The thickness of such walls shall be in accordance with the following table based on the area between adjacent columns and the floor beams:

Panels less than 300 sq. ft.	6 in. thick
Panels less than 400 sq. ft.	8 in. thick
Panels more than 400 sq. ft.	12 in. thick

All such curtain walls shall be reinforced with vertical steel rods not less than one half inch in diameter spaced not over twenty-four inches on centers, or horizontal flat or round steel rods spaced not over twenty-eight inches on centers may be used if the area of each rod is at least one third of a square inch for each square foot of wall in vertical section. All such rods shall be rigidly attached to the steel or reinforced concrete frame. Spandrel and apron walls shall be reinforced as provided for curtain walls. Excepting, however, that in curtain walls less than four hundred square feet in area and twelve inches thick, the reinforcing above specified may be omitted.

SECTION 11. All ordinances or parts of ordinances inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed.

SECTION 12. This ordinance shall take effect immediately.

In Council, Oakland, Cal., May 22, 1916.

Passed to print for two days by the following vote: Ayes—Commissioners Baccus, Edwards and President Davie—3. Noes—None. Absent—Commissioners Anderson and Jackson—2.

RESOLUTION OF INTENTION NO. 12723 N. S.

RESOLUTION OF INTENTION TO IMPROVE 33RD AVENUE BETWEEN EAST 14TH STREET AND EAST 10TH STREET, AND EAST 10TH STREET BETWEEN FRUITVALE AVENUE AND 33RD AVENUE.

RESOLVED: That it is the intention of the Council of the City of Oakland to order the following street work to be done in said City in accordance with the provisions of the Improvement Act of 1911 of the State of California, and in accordance with the plans and specifications adopted for this street work by said Council by Resolution No. 12722 N. S.

That the following described portions of 33rd Avenue be graded, curbed with redwood, guttered with concrete gutters, three feet wide, and paved with oil-macadam, to-wit: (1) from the southwestern line of East 14th Street to a line parallel to and distant 155 feet southwesterly from the southwestern line of East 12th Street; (2) from a line parallel to and distant 205 feet southwesterly from the southwestern line of East 12th Street to the southwestern line of East 10th Street; also,

That a vitrified pipe conduit be constructed as follows: beginning at a point on the northeastern line of East 12th Street, distant 13 feet southeasterly from the northwestern line of 33rd Avenue; thence parallel to the northwestern line of 33rd Avenue to a point 19 feet southwesterly from the northeastern line of East 10th Street; thence parallel to the northeastern line of East 10th Street to the existing concrete culvert in Fruitvale Avenue; also

That two brick storm water inlets with cast iron tops be constructed on said conduit; one at the northeastern end of said conduit and one at the northeastern line of East 10th Street; also

That a brick manhole with cast iron top be constructed on said conduit at the angle point thereon in the crossing of 33rd Avenue with East 10th Street;

Excepting, however, from said work, the grading of the southeastern 10 feet of the southeastern sidewalk and the northwestern 10 feet of the northwestern sidewalk of said 33rd Avenue; also

Excepting all work within the area bounded on the southwest and northeast by lines at right angles to the northwestern line of 33rd Avenue and distant, thereon, respectively, 100 feet and 137.5 feet northeasterly from the northeastern line of East 12th Street, on the southeast by a line parallel to and distant 15 feet southeasterly from the northwestern line of 33rd Avenue, and on the northwest by the northwestern line of 33rd Avenue; also

Excepting the construction of redwood curb on the northwestern curb line of 33rd Avenue between lines drawn at right angles to the northwestern line of 33rd Avenue and distant, thereon, respectively, 137.5 feet and 162.5 feet northeasterly from the northeastern line of East 13th Street; the portion thus excepted to be curbed with concrete curb.

The aforesaid conduit shall have an internal diameter of 10 inches from the northeastern line of East 12th Street to the northeastern line of East 10th Street, and 14 inches from thence to said existing culvert in Fruitvale Avenue.

And said Council does hereby determine and declare that the aforesaid work and improvement is of more than local or ordinary public benefit and will affect and benefit the district hereinafter described, which said district is hereby declared to be the district benefited by said work and improvement and that therefore such portion of the entire cost and expenses of said work and improvement that is not ordered paid out of the treasury of the City of Oakland shall be and is hereby made chargeable against and shall be assessed upon said district, which district is within the City of Oakland, County of Alameda, State of California, and is particularly bounded and described as follows, to-wit:

Beginning at a point on the southwestern line of East 14th Street distant 25 feet northwesterly from the northwestern line of 33rd Avenue; thence parallel to the northwestern line of 33rd Avenue to a point distant 25 feet northeasterly from the northeastern line of East 12th Street; thence northwesterly parallel to the northeastern line of East 12th Street, 125 feet; thence at right angles to the northeastern line of East 12th Street to a point distant 25 feet southwesterly from the southwestern line of East 12th Street; thence southeasterly parallel to the southwestern line of East 12th Street, 25 feet; thence southwesterly parallel to the northwestern line of 33rd Avenue to the southwestern line of Block 751, as said block is shown on the "Map of Syndicate Investment Company's Subdivision of Blocks No. 751, 752, 753, 754, 769 & 770 of the Levy and Lane Tracts," filed January 11, 1894, in book 14 of maps, page 19, Alameda County Records; thence along the southwestern line, and its production, of said Block 751 to a point distant 135 feet northwesterly from the northwestern line of 34th Avenue; thence parallel to the northwestern line of 34th Avenue to a point distant 25 feet northeasterly from the northeastern line of East 13th Street; thence northwesterly parallel to the northeastern line of East 13th Street, 100 feet; thence parallel to the southeastern line of 33rd Avenue to the southwestern line of East 14th Street; thence in a direct line to the point of beginning; saving, excepting and excluding from the aforedescribed district all public streets therein included and contained.

In this resolution whenever a distance from a line is given the distance measured at right angles to such line is meant unless otherwise stated.

This City Council hereby orders that the sum of 400 dollars be paid out of the treasury of the City of Oakland from the General Fund thereof, to pay in part the cost of constructing the aforesaid conduit, inlets and manhole.

This Council hereby determines that serial bonds shall be issued to represent assessments of $25.00 or over for the cost of said work and improvement; said serial bonds shall extend over a period ending 5 years from the 2nd day of January next succeeding the date of said bonds, and an even annual proportion of the principal sum thereof shall be payable by coupon, on the 2nd day of January every year after their date until the whole is paid, and the interest shall be payable semi-annually, by coupon, on the 2nd days of January and July, respectively, of each year at the rate of 7 per cent per annum on all sums unpaid until the whole of said principal and interest are paid. Said bonds shall be issued in accordance with said Improvement Act of 1911.

Notice is hereby given that Thursday, the 15th day of June, 1916, at 10 minutes after 11 o'clock A. M., is hereby fixed as the day and hour, and the Council Chamber in the City Hall, Oakland, California, as the place when and where any and all persons having any objections to the above described proposed street work may appear before said Council and show cause why said proposed street work should not be done in accordance with this resolution.

The Oakland Tribune is hereby designated as the daily newspaper published and circulated in said City in which this Resolution of Intention shall be published. The Clerk of this Council is hereby directed to publish this Resolution by two successive insertions in said newspaper.

I certify that the foregoing is a full, true and correct copy of a Resolution passed by the City Council of the City of Oakland, Cal., on May 23, 1916.

L. W. CUMMINGS, City Clerk.

RESOLUTION OF INTENTION NO. 12725 N. S.

RESOLUTION OF INTENTION TO IMPROVE 50TH AVENUE BETWEEN EAST 12TH AND EAST 10TH STREETS.

RESOLVED: That it is the intention of the Council of the City of Oakland to order the following street work to be done in said City in accordance with the provisions of the Improvement Act of 1911 of the State of California, and in accordance with the plans and specifications adopted for this street work by said Council by Resolution No. 12724 N. S.

That 50th Avenue, from the southwestern line of East 12th Street to a straight line drawn from the intersection of the southeastern line of 50th Avenue with the southwestern line of East 10th Street to a point on the northwestern line of 50th Avenue, distant thereon, 50.14 feet northeasterly from the northeastern line of East 10th Street, be graded, curbed with redwood, guttered with concrete gutters, three feet wide, and paved with oil-macadam; also

That the crossing of 50th Avenue with East 12th Street be graded, curbed with redwood, paved with oil-macadam and culverted with two corrugated iron and concrete culverts, each having two branches; also

That a corrugated iron and concrete culvert be constructed in the opposite termination of East 10th Street (as said East 10th Street exists southeasterly of 50th Avenue) in 50th Avenue.

Excepting, however, from said work the grading of the southeastern ten feet of the southeastern sidewalk of 50th Avenue from the northeastern line of East 12th Street to the northeastern curb line of East 10th Street; also Excepting the construction of gutters in said opposite termination of East 10th Street; the portions thus excepted to be paved with oil-macadam.

This Council hereby determines that serial bonds shall be issued to represent assessments of $25.00 or over for the cost of said work and improvement; said serial bonds shall extend over a period ending 5 years from the 2nd day of January next succeeding the date of said bonds and an even annual proportion of the principal sum thereof shall be payable, by coupon, on the 2nd day of January every year after their date until the whole is paid, and the interest shall be payable semi-annually, by coupon, on the 2nd days of January and July, respectively, of each year, at the rate of 7 per cent per annum on all sums unpaid until the whole of said principal and interest are paid. Said bonds shall be issued in accordance with said Improvement Act of 1911.

Notice is hereby given that Thursday, the 15th day of June, 1916, at fifteen minutes after 11 o'clock A. M., is hereby fixed as the day and hour, and the Council Chamber in the City Hall, Oakland, California, as the place when and where any and all persons having any objections to the above described proposed street work may appear before said Council and show cause why said proposed street work should not be done in accordance with this resolution.

The Oakland Tribune is hereby designated as the daily newspaper published and circulated in said City in which this Resolution of Intention shall be published. The Clerk of this Council is hereby directed to publish this Resolution by two successive insertions in said newspaper.

I certify that the foregoing is a full, true and correct copy of a Resolution passed by the City Council of the City of Oakland, Cal., on May 23, 1916.

RESOLUTION OF INTENTION NO. 12727 N. S.

RESOLUTION OF INTENTION TO IMPROVE A PORTION OF EXCELSIOR AVENUE BETWEEN BEACON STREET AND ATHOL AVENUE.

RESOLVED: That it is the intention of the Council of the City of Oakland to order the following street work to be done in said City in accordance with the provisions of the Improvement Act of 1911 of the State of California, and in accordance with the plans and specifications adopted for this street work by said Council by Resolution No. 12726 N. S.

That the portion of Excelsior Avenue that is described, as follows, be graded, curbed with concrete, guttered with concrete gutters, three feet wide, paved with oil-macadam and sidewalked with cement sidewalks, to-wit: beginning at the intersection of the northwestern line of Athol Avenue with the southwestern line of Excelsior Avenue; thence northeasterly at right angles to the southwestern line of Excelsior Avenue, 40 feet; thence northwesterly parallel to the southwestern line of Excelsior Avenue, 168 feet; thence in a direct line to the point of intersection of the southwestern line of Excelsior Avenue with the northern line of Beacon Street; thence along the southwestern line of Excelsior Avenue to the point of beginning.

And said Council does hereby determine and declare that the aforesaid work and improvement is of more than local or ordinary public benefit and will affect and benefit the district hereinafter described, which said district is hereby declared to be the district benefited by said work and improvement, and that therefore the entire cost and expenses of said work and improvement shall be and are hereby made chargeable against and shall be assessed upon said district, which district is within the City of Oakland, County of Alameda, State of California, and is particularly described as follows, to-wit:

Beginning at a point on the northwestern line of Athol Avenue distant thereon 50 feet southwesterly from the southwestern line of Excelsior Avenue; thence westerly parallel to the southern line of Beacon Street, 271 feet; thence northerly, at right angles to the southern line of Beacon Street, to the northern line of Beacon Street; thence westerly along the northern line of Beacon Street to the eastern line of Lot 14 of the Loma Vista Tract, as shown on the map thereof, filed January 11, 1893, in book 33 of maps, page 61, Alameda County Records; thence in a direct line to the northwestern corner of said Lot 14, thence in a direct line to a point on the southwestern line of Excelsior Avenue distant, thereon, 336 feet southeasterly from the southeastern line of Haddon Lane; thence along the southwestern line of Excelsior Avenue to the northwestern line of Athol Avenue; thence in a direct line to the point of beginning; excepting from the aforedescribed district all public streets.

Notice is hereby given that Thursday, the 15th day of June, 1916, at 20 minutes after 11 o'clock A. M., is hereby fixed as the day and hour, and the Council Chamber in the City Hall, Oakland, California, as the place when and where any and all persons having any objections to the above described proposed street work may appear before said Council and show cause why said proposed street work should not be done in accordance with this Resolution.

COUNCIL MAY YET LEVY SCHOOL TAX

Opinion of City Attorney Awaited Before Final Decision.

BERKELEY, May 24.—There is still a bare possibility that the $65,000 needed for next year for the Berkeley schools, lost to the city because the supervisors will follow a decision of the district attorney and limit the tax allotment of Berkeley to 20 cents, may be levied by the city council. Commissioner Walter Gompertz, ex-officio a member of the school board, is continuing his efforts to prevent a special election by prevailing upon the council to allot the amount.

The matter has been referred for a legal opinion to City Attorney Frank D. Stringham, from whom a report is expected at Friday's meeting of the commissioners. The stumbling block, chiefly in the council's way has been the fact that the city and the school district are not commensurate. A portion of the latter lies north of the city boundaries and would escape the tax though enjoying its benefits, if it were levied by the council.

"The council appreciates the position of the board of education," according to Mayor Irving, "and is desirous of doing all in its power to maintain the high standard of education in the city's schools. The legal officials of the city are not yet prepared, however, to give their opinion on the situation, and as soon as they are the council will be in a position to discuss the matter and take some definite action."

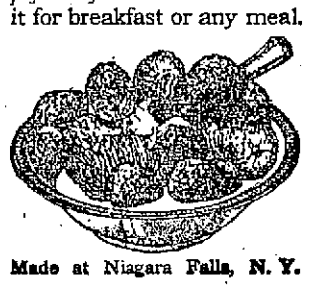

Commissioner E. T. Harms is advocating early action in the matter. He points out that, with the schools closing June 3, the teachers will have to depart on their vacations without knowing if their positions are safe for next year or not."

Special Services for War Veterans

ALAMEDA, May 24.—Memorial Day will be observed by special services next Sunday morning at the First Congregational church. The Grand Army of the Republic, Relief Corps, and Spanish American Veterans, will be the special guests of the church. The sermon will be preached by Rev. C. L. Mears. The chorus choir and quartet will render special music.

The Sunday school will hold its annual picnic at Trestle Glen next Saturday. Special street cars will leave the corner of Chestnut and Santa Clara at 9 o'clock, going directly to the picnic grounds. Fifteen Congregational Sunday schools will unite in this picnic and 3500 are expected to attend. The local school will have its lunch together and enter in the contests and events of the day. Many prizes will be awarded.

Row Over Paving Bids Stirs Alameda
Figures Unopened After Stormy Scene
Central Avenue Plan Remains Halted

ALAMEDA, May 24.—The mayor and the city council staggered, plunged, lunged and bucked in the holes, boggy spots and wild, waste places of Central avenue and wound up apparently hopelessly entangled. Balky tactics on the part of the council overcame all efforts of its majority to pull the Central avenue loads to its destination. After wallowing around until too firmly mired to go further, several members of the minority appeared willing to back up and take a new start but found they could not back the load to a point where a fresh start could be made. The backing and lunging of the council spread to the six contracting firms represented by six Central avenue paving bids and the contractors added to general mixup with the net result that the Central avenue paving problem is firmly stuck in the mud. Bids for the work were not opened.

IS SECOND SET.

The council met last night in adjourned session to open bids for the Central avenue paving. This is the second set of bids submitted. The first lot, seven in number, were returned to the bidders unopened three weeks ago on the ground that a mysterious change made in the specifications, after adoption, increased the cost of the work at least $2700 and perhaps double this amount. New specifications were adopted and new bids were asked for. Six new bids were submitted.

When City Clerk R. E. Bosshard announced he had six bids, F. W. Bilger of the Oakland Paving Company asked permission to speak before the bids were opened. Bilger spoke with special reference to the two bonds required by the specifications. One bond is to protect the city from possible suit from patent paving concerns which might hold that the city was using a pavement which was an infringement on a patented article. The other bond was a surety to keep the paved street in condition for ten years. Later in the evening, it developed that Bilger's talk regarding the two bonds, was preliminary to a declaration by other contractors that the two bond provisions had not been taken with deep seriousness by several, if not by all, the bidders. Bilger asked that the bids be returned, that the present specifications be rejected and a new set of specifications "understood by everybody" be drafted and a third set of bids asked.

MANY TALKS FOLLOW.

The Bilger talk was followed by a many-sided talk-fest which ran about as follows:

Councilman Conrad Roth—It seems to me, if doubt exists the bids should be rejected. As a builder I like specifications that specify.

Councilman George W. Stewart—My information is that if the work is done according to specifications that the bonds will not hold.

Councilman John H. Walker—You were present, Mr. Bilger, at the committee session when the specifications were adopted. Why did you not complain at that time?

F. W. Bilger—The committee went into executive session.

Councilman Walker—Further delay in this matter will be a calamity.

F. W. Bilger—My objection to these specifications is that no rock test is included. How are contractors to know what to bid on and how can the city tell, if it is getting the proper rock or getting what it expects?

QUESTIONS POINT.

Councilman William Hammond—These specifications were adopted collectively and unanimously by the city council. The only change in these specifications from the first set is that the "sand and canvas cover" which mysteriously crept into the first act after they had been adopted without the sand and cover clause, is eliminated. I think your point, Mr. Bilger, about rock test is weak.

Then came a motion to reject the bids. It was lost on a four-four tie. The vote was: Ayes, Councilmen Hammond, Bullock, Walker and Probst; noes, Councilmen Smith, Morris, Stewart and Roth.

Councilman Stewart—I move that the city engineer draw up new plans and specifications.

ASKS NEW SPECIFICATIONS.

Councilman Probst—What kind of specifications. We don't want patent pavements and the contractors, apparently, won't bid on anything else.

Councilman Stewart—It's up to the city engineer to draw something that is right.

Lochiel M. King (in lobby)—Mr. Bilger wanted the bids opened at the last meeting. Now he doesn't want them opened. If the bids go over thirty days the contractor will encounter rough weather before the work is finished.

Councilman Probst—Let's open the bids. If they are too high they will be rejected. Mr. Bilger speaks for one contractor. Let's find out if these bids are too high for Alameda.

Contractor Beanton—My firm is willing to accept these specifications and furnish the required bonds. We ask that the bids be opened.

Councilman Roth—I want to deny that there is any attempt being made to discredit anyone. If there is I don't know of it.

Councilman Hammond—I favor opening the bids, not letting the contract. What's the harm in opening the bids and finding out what the figures are. We are proposing now to open bids, not award contract.

MOTION LOST.

The Hammond motion to open the bids was lost on a four-four tie, the same as the previous motion to return the bids unopened.

Councilman Walker undertook to find how "where the council was at" but the problem appeared too deep for solution and no one answered.

Councilman Hammond echoed the Walker request for information, saying: "The bids are not to be returned; they are not to be opened. Where do we stand?"

Councilman Stewart—I think we ought to try and get somewhere. I don't want to block anyone but I don't think we ought to let the contract on these specifications.

Several contractors told of work on the San Francisco seawall, on the Twin Peaks road and on government roadwork at the Presidio where the only rock requirement was for "hard-trapped rock." One contractor said the Alameda specifications were more severe than any used in highway construction.

Contractor Beanton said: "We don't care a cent whether we get this work or not but we have come here twice and have bid on the work in good faith. Open the bids. If too high, reject them. This argument is all child's play."

WANTS BID BACK.

Hugh Crummey of the Ransome-Crummey Company, wanted his bid back. He said that lack of harmony in the council and between the council and the city engineer, made it difficult for a contractor to accept a contract and finish it satisfactorily. He wanted to withdraw his bid, promising to bid again if new specifications were adopted. He emphasized that the council should show more harmony and contractors would have more confidence in bidding.

City Engineer R. E. Jamison believed that the contractor would do good work under the specifications, but said the specifications were not his and he would not approve them in their present condition. He believed that the bids ought to be opened. Jamison had previously filed a written disclaimer of authorship of the specifications and announced he would not be held responsible for any confusion or trouble between the city and contractors.

The Johnson-Shea firm wanted their bid back also. The mayor said they could have the bids back.

Councilman John H. Wilkens is in San Diego. On his return the matter will probably come up again and the proponents of the bid opening plan will likely then have a majority of one vote.

Miner Wins Fight to Oust Corporation

EUREKA, May 24.—James Hartney is in possession of land worth $100,000 today at Fields Landing, following a sensational court fight. He originally owned the property but went to Alaska during the gold rush. Returning three years ago, he found the land had been sold for taxes an that the Pacific Lumber Company, having put in $130,000 in improvements, was using it for shipping yards.

He brought suit and won. The lumber company started an appeal but got not even a stay of execution. The writ of dispossession was served on its officers by the sheriff yesterday.

The company has ten days in which to move out millions of feet of lumber on the property. Improvements include 900 feet of wharves, a monorail system and offices. All operations are at a standstill.

New Theater May Be Built at Redding

REDDING, May 24.—Redding is to have a first-class theater, costing between $20,000 and $25,000. A committee soliciting subscriptions reported to the Chamber of Commerce that donations amounting to $2175 had been subscribed and that the rest of the $25,000 required is in sight.

M. Leonardini, new owner of the Paragon block, on California street, stands ready to begin building the theater on plans presented by C. C. Dakin, the architect. The new theater will be at the rear of the two-story brick Paragon block with a wide entrance from the street.

TO ORGANIZE CORPS.

Piedmont Parlor No. 120, Native Sons of the Golden West, will tomorrow night reorganize its famous drum corps, following its business session at Native Sons' hall, Eleventh and Clay streets. George Craddock, drum master, will be in charge of the work.

A picnic is being planned for the parlor at San Lorenzo park on June 18.

Curative Bees Buzz in Hotel
Stingers Keep Manager in State of Fear

"No bees allowed."

This may be the sign that will be placed in the Hotel Oakland instead of the "No Dogs" sign of yore. The only reason it was never put up is that Manager Carl Sword never thought of bees inhabiting the hostelry until Walter S. Halliwell, Kansas City capitalist, decided to cure his rheumatism.

Halliwell, who is president of one of the largest cement plants in the world, had spent fortunes on his rheumatism. Famous specialists failed to relieve him. He declares that by permitting himself to be stung by bees he has been entirely cured, although the process was a painful one.

"I allowed a bee to sting me every other day," he declared. "I could not take the treatment every day on account of the swellings the bee-stings caused, and the pain. After five stings my rheumatism vanished."

Halliwell declares that one of his workmen told him of the "cure," and that after all else failed he decided to try it. He kept a small box of particularly vicious bees, applying one each time the swelling of the last sting disappeared.

This Liquid Attacks Hair Under the Skin

It is impossible for pastes and rub-on preparations to be absorbed by the skin, therefore they merely remove hair from the surface of the skin. Imitations of De Miracle, the original liquid depilatory, are just as useless, because they lack certain ingredients which De Miracle alone contains, which give it the power to devitalize hair. Well groomed women always use De Miracle for removing hair from the limbs to prevent it from showing through stockings. Also for removing hair from under arms. De Miracle never disappoints. Buy it by name and you will get the only depilatory that has a binding guarantee in each package which entitles you to your money if it fails. In 50c, $1.00 and $2.00 bottles, at your dealer's, or direct, postpaid, in plain wrapper. De Miracle Chemical Co., Dept. A-6, Park Ave. and 129th St., New York.

CITY TO CONSIDER FIRE PROTECTION

Councilmen Will Meet Friday to Devise Means to Safeguard Property.

ALAMEDA, May 24.—The city council will meet Friday night to consider better fire protection for the factory and shipping district. Councilman E. J. Probst announces that insurance rates have been raised to seven and a-half and ten per cent, for lack of water mains, hydrants, etc. The extension of mains, installation of fire hydrants, pump and fire alarm box, will cost about $4,000. The council will consider this matter in adjourned meeting.

An ordinance preparatory to condemning the Noble property on Central avenue for school purposes, was introduced at the council meeting last night.

The board of education asked the council to arrange for an additional five cents in the tax levy to raise sufficient funds for maintaining properly the Alameda elementary schools. The county was asked for a tax of thirty-five cents but is barred by state law from levying over thirty cents. The board wants the council to make up the five cent differential.

Paul Arnerich was named by the mayor as electricity commissioner to succeed Wynn Meredith, resigned. Arnerich has been one of the mayor's chief supporters and advisers.

The corporation yard is to have $2500 more of insurance placed on its $12,500 worth of equipment and stock.

B. Feldhammer was allowed $30 for city pound work. This disposes of a long wrangle and a justice court suit over Feldhammer's bill.

Auditor F. J. Croll was allowed till July 1 to complete his estimate for the council on which to fix the new tax rate.

Second Attempt to Fire Shops Made

SACRAMENTO, May 24.—What the Southern Pacific Railroad Company alleges was a second attempt to destroy the big railroad shops in this city was made last night when a firebug started a blaze in the storeroom of the shops and caused a fire that did $35,000 damage before it was extinguished.

This is the second fire of mysterious origin that has been discovered in the shops within the last two weeks. The first one broke out in the molding plant about ten days ago and caused $5000 damage.

The officials are satisfied the fires are the work of an incendiarist or several of them. Investigation today developed that the firebug must have set a slow fire that smoldered for some hours before bursting into flames.

In the storeroom was a large quantity of oils and paints and the bulk of the damage was in the destruction of these supplies.

Native Sons Plan to Do Honor to Dead

Memorial services in honor of members of the order who have passed away will be held tomorrow night by Piedmont Parlor No. 120, Native Sons of the Golden West, when, at Native Sons' Hall, Eleventh and Clay streets, the members will gather after the business meeting to do honor to the dead.

The eulogy will be delivered by Assistant District Attorney William T. Satterwhite, and Grand Trustee William J. Hayes will deliver the address of the evening. The musical program, which is to be extensive, will be under the direction of Ed Theile.

Charles Morando is president of the parlor and will preside at the memorial session.

Thirteenth Cavalry Returning to Texas

EL PASO, Texas, May 24.—A report was brought here today from Columbus, N. M., that the Thirteenth Cavalry was on its way out of Mexico. At Fort Bliss nothing was known of such a movement, nor could it be confirmed elsewhere.

The Thirteenth is commanded by Col. H. J. Slocum and it was a detachment of the Thirteenth which figured in the repulse of Villa and his bandits when they attackde Columbus.

The body of a Mexican killed in an attempt to get by the American patrol at Malpais, N. M., was brought to Fort Bliss today. The shooting took place last night. The patrol at Malpais, which is a small town near the border between here and Columbus, is composed of a small detachment of the Twelfth Cavalry.

SKIN TROUBLE DISFIGURED FACE

Went All Over Hands. Skin Very Red and Burning. Lost Rest. Could Not Put Hands in Water.

HEALED BY CUTICURA SOAP AND OINTMENT

"My skin began to get rough and peeling. It went all over my face and hands and on my neck, and every time I would wash I took some skin off. My skin was very red and burning and I had to scratch and my face was disfigured. I lost rest at night, and I could not put my hands in water.

"One day I found a Cuticura Soap and Ointment advertisement. I first bought a box of Cuticura Ointment and then a cake of Cuticura Soap, and after using them about a week my face began to get well, and I used about two cakes of Cuticura Soap and two boxes of Ointment and I was healed." Beer Without "Zip" Is Found
New Beverage Is Told of at U. C.

BERKELEY, May 24.—Beer with the tonic and most of the "zip" left in, but with the intoxication taken out, has at last been discovered, according to Professor F. T. Bioletti of the department of viticulture and enology at the University of California. Already, he declares, one machine for its production is in operation in Southern California.

It is not real beer nor "near beer," but a sort of hybrid between the two. The beer is made in the regular way and then put through a process that removes all but a slight trace of the alcohol. Brewers who have been given samples of the real article and the substitute could not tell them apart from the taste.

Orders have been given for two machines to be installed in a Washington brewery recently closed when the temperance law went into effect in the state.

Abraham Ruef of San Francisco has announced the discovery by Laurence A. Rosenblatt of a process for the removal of alcohol from wine, a process unique, so say Ruef and Rosenblatt, in that it takes the demon out of the wine without in any way affecting its flavor, or bouquet, or the pleasures to be derived from it.

Practical wine men, Ruef admits, say such a thing is impossible, and Professor Frederick T. Bioletti, the viticultural expert of the University of California, says he doubts it, but Ruef points to the fact that the inventor, Rosenblatt, is a practical chemist, a graduate of the College of Chemistry of the University of California, and a practical wine man, for some years a member of a firm of wholesale wine merchants.

Pioneers Are Honored in Jubilee Program

BERKELEY, May 24.—Pioneers of this city were accoded a place of honor in all of the affairs of today, marking the reminiscent spirit in which the Golden Jubilee celebration was conceived. Mayor Irving, a speaker this morning, has resided in the city for many years, graduating from the University of California in the class of 1879.

Charles D. Heywood, who presided this morning, is a son of the late William Heywood, one of the first settlers in this city and founder of a lumber yard in West Berkeley before that district was incorporated with the municipality. Miss Blanche Morse, another speaker of the day, is a member of one of the oldest families of the city.

In the parade this morning special reservations were made for the oldest residents of the city. Former Mayor Heywood headed a committee appointed to see to their comfort.

Noah Webster, for whom Webster street was named, rode in the parade as the oldest living pioneer of the city. Webster saw the city born 60 years ago, coming to what is now Berkeley on May 14, 1866, just ten days before the name of the great bishop was adopted. He built, with the late Dr. Samuel Willey, the Willey residence on Dwight way, one of the first large residences in Berkeley, and soon after erected the cottage on Webster street where he has since resided.

Among the other pioneers who participated in today's celebration were Thomas Hann, a settler here in the early '50s; Mrs. Samuel Heywood, mother of former Mayor Charles D. Heywood, a Berkeley resident since 1874; Mrs. Adelaide Marquand, who arrived here about the same time; Henry Kastens and others.

Will Award Prizes for W. C. T. U. Essays

ALAMEDA, May 24. — At a W. C. T. U. gathering to be held at the Haight auditorium Thursday evening, the prizes won by youthful essay writers will be awarded by former Mayor Frank Otis and the Rev. Leslie M. Burwell. Russell Medcraft was the winner of the high school prize, $10. Gertrude Byrne, a Haight school pupil, was the winner of the grammar school prize, $5. Enid Boyce of Lincoln, Gladys Nelson of Porter, and Elaine Wallis of Washington were awarded prizes of one dollar each for the best W. C. T. U. essay in their respective schools. The judges were: High school, Rev. R. L. McHatton, Mrs. H. C. Thaxter and Miss M. H. McLean; grammar school judges, Rev. E. B. Abercrombie, Mrs. H. Hauch and Miss Dorothy D. Clennam.

ALAMEDA PERSONALS

ALAMEDA, May 24.—Mr. and Mrs. James Houser of Melrose have moved to Alameda to make their home here and are settled in an attractive home at San Jose avenue and Chestnut street.

J. E. Baugh, an Encinal avenue resident, has returned from a two weeks' visit in the southland.

Mrs. C. S. Neal was hostess last Thursday for forty members of the Ladies' Aid Society, entertaining her guests at the Neal home on Sherman street. Musical and literary numbers formed an interesting program. Mrs. Helen Neal Plummer assisted in receiving and entertaining the guests.

A pleasant feature of the Marin county celebration last week was the affair planned by Mrs. C. Jamison at her summer home in Marin county for the members of the Kings' Daughters of this city. About forty guests were entertained by Mrs. Jamison.

Several senior class affairs this week are attracting the attention of the graduating class of Alameda high school. Last night Miss Esther Bruton and Miss Helen Bruton were hostesses for a gathering of the seniors at the Bruton home on Sherman street. Dancing was the chief diversion. The guests comprised the entire membership of the class, forty-nine in number.

Miss Dorothy Soule is planning to spend a portion of the summer season with Mrs. Walter Wilson at one of the big mines in Mariposa county, in which her father, John F. Soule, is interested.

Miss Amy Jackson has returned from a high Sierra visit. After attending the Sacramento-Davis causeway celebration as the guest of the Sherman Holladays, Miss Jackson and her hostess went to Strawberry, on the Tahoe route, for a stay on a high mountain ranch.

Mrs. H. A. Hebard, past president of the Adelphian club, is seriously ill at her home on Buena Vista avenue. Mrs. Hebard's daughter, Mrs. Annie Gutte, is convalescing from an attack of typhoid fever.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Howard and three children spent the week-end at Pinehurst.

SICK HEADACHE.

This disease is nearly always caused by a disordered stomach. Correct that and the attacks of sick headache may be avoided. Mrs. A. L. Luckie, East Rochester, N. Y., writes: "I was a victim of sick headache, caused by a badly disordered stomach when I began taking Chamberlain's Tablets three years ago. In a few weeks' time I was restored to my former good health." For sale by Osgood Bros. Drug Stores.—Advertisement.

CHARTER LEAGUE TICKET IS WINNER

Alameda Casts Light Vote in Freeholders' Election.

ALAMEDA, May 24. — The regular ticket of the New Charter League went through to victory without trouble at the freeholders' election yesterday. A total of 1293 votes was cast out of a registration of about 10,000. The election officials cast ten per cent of the total vote. Even some of the candidates for freeholdership did not take the trouble to visit the polls.

The "write-in" club which passed around slips substituting Councilman George W. Stewart, G. W. MacRae, W. Deetken, Jacob Hoeck and T. C. West for Frank W. Hally, Dr. William Tappan Lum, L. R. Weinmann and Judge A. F. St. Sure, caused about 230 voters to scratch tickets and vote for the four substitutes. Councilman Stewart received quite a complimentary vote in some of the east end precincts.

Many of the voters apparently regarded the voting as a joke and the list of special choices who received from one to a half-dozen votes makes a long line. Some of the complimentary votes were not turned in, but enough outside names were injected into the returns to cause the clerk's office an extra hour or so of work.

THE VOTE.

The vote on the regular ticket and on the five "write-in" candidates was:

Smith Anderson, 1107; B. C. Brown, 1126; G. L. Dillman, 1132; A. O. Gott, 1136; T. W. Hally, 807; P. Jorgenson, 1116; E. A. Larkin, 1104; Alfred Latham, 838; Dr. W. T. Lum, 912; A. F. St. Sure, 904; Wynn Meredith, 1122; Frank Otis, 1142; A. T. Spence, 1122; L. R. Weinmann, 1139; Geo. S. Williams, 1094; Geo. W. Stewart, 271; G. W. Mac Rae, 378; W. Deetkin, 342; Jacob Hoeck, 197; T. C. West, 66.

OUTSIDE NAMES.

Among the outside names balleted for were:

D. L. Randolph, J. E. Higgins, F. F. Spyre, W. G. Tibbetts, W. C. Sharpstein, H. Longhair, Frank Bordwell, A. H. W. Goerber, Wm. Helmken, James Fowler, D. W. Martin, Harry Furey, George Morris, G. W. Mrs. Eileen Allen Confers With Mayor

ALAMEDA, May 24. — Mrs. Eileen Allen, member of the recreation commission, who filed charges against President E. J. Probst of the commission and against Superintendent E. M. Vail of the playgrounds, held an extended interview with Mayor F. H. Bartlett yesterday and the Allen charges will probably be heard of again. After the charges were read at the commission meeting Monday night the charges were filed, Mrs. Allen's interview with the mayor will probably result in the charges appearing later before the council.

Stomach Trouble Due to Acidity

Stomach troubles, such as indigestion, wind, and stomach-ache are simply evidence that fermentation is taking place in the food contents of the stomach, causing the formation of gas and acids. Wind distends the stomach, and causes that full, oppressive feeling sometimes known as heartburn, while the acid irritates and inflames the delicate lining of the stomach. The trouble lies entirely in the fermenting food. Such fermentation is unnatural, and acid formation is not only unnatural, but may involve most serious consequences if not corrected. To stop or prevent fermentation and to neutralize the acid, a teaspoonful of bisurated magnesia, probably the best and most effective corrector of acid stomach known, should be taken in a quarter of a glass of water immediately after eating or whenever wind or acidity is felt. This stops the fermentation, and neutralizes the acidity in a few moments. Bisurated magnesia can be obtained from any druggist. It enables the stomach to do its work properly without being hindered by poisonous gas and dangerous acids.—Advertisement.

THE BETTER THE HOPS
THE BETTER THE BEER FLAVOR

ANHEUSER-BUSCH have by many thousands of pounds more Saazer Hops in their giant storage houses than has any other brewery in Europe or America. Before the war our President, while abroad on his annual hop-buying pilgrimage, bought 775,000 pounds (1550 bales) of Bohemia's very finest Saazer Hops. To this add the 500,000 pounds we had on hand, and you will see that we can guarantee our millions of patrons that BUDWEISER will continue, as always, to have the same exclusive Saazer Hop flavor which has helped its sales to exceed any other beer by millions of bottles.

EXPORTS FROM LONDON.

The total value of declared exports from London to the United States during the first four months of 1916 was $58,822,349, as against $46,605,931 for the first four months of 1915. The total for April, 1916, was $18,633,312, as compared with $12,406,281 in April, 1915.

Arizona Capitalists Control Western Fuel

Control of the Western Fuel Company has been purchased by Thomas E. Pollock and R. R. Pollock of Arizona, wealthy bankers and coal men, with C. P. Heaton of Los Angeles. The deal involves payment of several million dollars, $3,000,000, it is said, and the transfer of valuable property in Oakland and of 40,000 acres of coal bearing lands at Nanaimo, British Columbia.

The stock was purchased from a score of holders, the larger portion coming from the estate of the late John L. Howard. It is said that several times the face value of the stock was paid to secure the control.

The Pollocks are extremely wealthy and are said to control the Arizona Central Bank at Flagstaff, where their headquarters are. They have other coal interests as well as ranches and cattle interests in Arizona and New Mexico. Heaton is their Los Angeles representative. It is stated that the Pollocks are personal friends of James B. Smith, vice-president and manager of the Western Fuel Company, who, it is stated, will remain in active participation of the company's affairs. The present officers of the company are: John Lawson, president; James B. Smith, vice-president; D. C. Norcross, secretary and E. C. Schmidt, treasurer. These may be changed when the deal is completed which will probably take thirty days.

The holdings over which the Pollocks and their associates will gain control include two mines at Nanaimo, B. C., one of which has recently been developed at a cost of $1,250,000. Eventually the output of these mines, it is said, will be between 75,000 and 80,000 tons of coal a month. The corporation also owns nearly 50,000 acres of land at Nanaimo, and has about 1500 employes there. It has recently purchased and equipped a new loading and unloading and storage plant at the foot of Market street, Oakland, at a cost of $250,000. It owns one steamship—the Acapulco—and has chartered two others—the Thor and Tangred.

Canned and Dried Products Increase

Products of the industry of canning and drying fruits and vegetables in this country increased by $61,072,620 in yearly value between 1909 and 1914, according to figures obtained by the United States Bureau of the Census in its 1914 study of manufacturers. The total for 1914 was $158,015,893, an advance of 63 per cent over the amount for 1909. Returns were received from 3199 establishments engaged in the industry in 1914, exceeding the number reported for 1909 by 337, or 11.8 per cent.

The value of canned vegetables increased from $53,307,791 in 1909 to $84,418,687 in 1914, or 58.3 per cent; of canned soups, from $2,588,834 to $7,877,057, or 204.3 per cent; of canned fruits, from $12,672,900 to $24,897,174, or 96.5 per cent; and of dried fruits, from $22,287,522 to $34,771,912, or 56 per cent. The value of canned soups does not include the product of slaughtering establishments.

Of the total number of establishments reported for 1914, 87 were engaged primarily in other industries but packed vegetables and fruits to the value of $8,839,837, as subsidiary products; and in 1909, 73 similar establishments packed vegetables and fruits valued at $4,564,506.

Cigars, Drugs and Movies in Combine

Comprehensive plans for the amalgamation of numerous moving picture houses throughout the United States with the United Cigar Stores and Riker-Hegeman Drug Stores are said to have been made by the reorganized Vitagraph Company of America. A tobacco shop and drug store is planned on either side of each theater. Earnings of Vitagraph Company the last five years have been in excess of $900,000 a year. Control of other companies will be acquired through the issue of preferred and common stock.

WORK STARTED ON SHASTA PROJECT

First Shovelful of Earth Is Turned on Anderson-Cottonwood Work.

REDDING, May 24. — The first shovelful of earth on the Anderson-Cottonwood Irrigation District's system has been turned. Stephen G. Roycroft of Anderson, president of the district, accompanied by the board of directors, wielded the shovel. This was done without much ceremony at the Standard Oil spur, a mile below Redding, where the contractor, James Willison, has established his main camp.

Six carloads of horses and mules—135 head—together with tools and harness, arrived Saturday at the camp. A temporary boarding house has been built and stable room provided for 400 horses. Thirteen carloads more of horses, feed, plows, scrapers and other material are ready to be started to Redding. Willison says he will be working a full force next week on the main canal and the tunnel.

Three contracts have been let to date—those for the main lateral to Panorama Point, including the tunnel at the intake, all the bridges, and for furnishing all the cement. New bids have been advertised for, and it is expected the rest of the contract will be let a week from today.

Loses $1000; Finds It in His Taxicab

STOCKTON, May 24.—When D. C. Sommers, a prohibition campaigner, left a taxicab at the Southern Pacific station, following his meeting here, he discovered he was minus $1000 in gold, which he had in his pocket when he left the hotel. Instantly, Sommers decided to remain in Stockton longer.

Rushing back into the business district, he succeeded in finding the driver who had taken him to the railway station. The driver denied having seen the money and suggested looking in the taxicab, explaining that he had received no calls since going to the station.

The two hastened to the taxicab, and on the seat was a newspaper package. The driver was astounded when Sommers opened it and revealed $1000 in gold.

Friends and acquaintances are respectfully invited to attend the funeral Thursday, May 25, 1916, at 1:30 p. m., from the family residence, 2036 Market street, corner of Twentieth. Interment, Home of Peace cemetery.

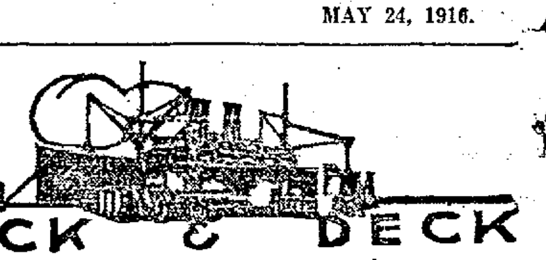

KRAFT—In this city, May 24, 1916, Marie Kraft, beloved wife of Adam Kraft and loving mother of Alfred and Elsa Kraft, a native of Germany, aged 58 years.

McMENOMY—In San Francisco, May 22, 1916, Walter F., dearly beloved husband of Hattie E. McMenomy, loving father of Ruth, Dorothy and Harriet McMenomy, and son of Captain J. H. and the late Lydia McMenomy, a native of San Francisco, aged 38 years.

Friends and acquaintances are respectfully invited to attend the funeral Thursday, May 25, at 9 o'clock, from the parlors of Carew & English, 1618 Geary street, thence to Star of the Sea church, where a requiem high mass will be celebrated for the repose of his soul, commencing at 9:30 o'clock. Interment, St. Mary's cemetery, Oakland.

RICHARDSON—In Berkeley, May 22, 1916, Annie Carmela Richardson, dearly beloved daughter of Richard C. and Annie Richardson, and loving sister of Richard T. Richardson, a native of Oregon, aged 29 years, 7 months and 17 days.

Friends and acquaintances are respectfully invited to attend the funeral services at 2 p. m., Thursday, May 25, 1916, from the Church of the Good Shepherd, Ninth and Bristol streets, Berkeley, Cal. Remains at the home of her brother, R. T. Richardson, 1535 Sixth street, Berkeley.

New developments were lacking in the river strike question today and commission merchants along the local waterfront are looking to a speedy settlement of the controversy. George Hatch, of Hunt, Hatch & Co., commission merchants, stated that he believes the question will be settled by compromise.

"The same trouble has arisen for the past three years," Hatch said, "and it has always been settled by compromise. I think there is no need to worry over the present situation. As for us, we can't afford to let a strike affect us, with the busy time of our year coming on."

ADMIRAL SCHLEY TO DOCK TOMORROW.

The Admiral Schley, with a cargo of flour and feed from Seattle, failed to arrive today, but is expected at the Oakland municipal wharf tomorrow. It is assigned to the Lawrence warehouse.

The Columbia is expected to dock before Saturday at the local wharves.

REPORTS STATE SHIPPING DULL.

The California Transportation Company states that shipping in the river districts is exceedingly dull this week and that no cargoes of importance have either been sent or received for several days. The city wharfinger's office reports conditions to be quiet in all fields of shipping.

STEAMER PHOENIX BEING UNLOADED.

The steamer Phoenix is being unloaded at the docks of the Hogan Lumber Company. Its cargo consisted of 180,000 feet of pine from Coquille.

NORTH FORK ENDS THOUSANDTH VOYAGE.

The steamer North Fork completed her thousandth voyage a week ago upon her arrival in Eureka. Captain John Nelson has commanded the vessel on 579 of the thousand trips, and is remembered in local waters as having been in charge of the ship when she was commissioned by the government to lay mines in San Francisco bay. It is said that at one time he knew every mine spot in the bay.

Captain Nelson was also in command of the three-masted American ship William S. Taylor when it came around Cape Horn from New York with the last of the rails for the Central Pacific railroad. He has been on the Pacific coast since that time and has been at sea fifty-seven years.

Time has whitened the hair, ruddied the face and mellowed the outlook of Captain Nelson, who is a Swede by birth, having taken out his citizenship papers many years ago.

GOVERNMENT ISSUES COMMERCE BULLETIN.

In a bulletin issued by the bureau of foreign and domestic commerce, entitled "Ports of the United States," the rapid development of commerce and harbor improvement is taken up. It is stated that American ports are better suited by nature to handle the largest liners than any of the old world ports, according to Commercial Agent Grosvenor M. Jones. Four American ports—New York, San Francisco, Seattle and Tacoma—are able to dock such boats as the Aquitania and Imperator at any stage of tide and in Boston such boats can proceed to the wharves at high tide.

It is also stated in the bulletin that the great majority of our ports along the seaboard are actually located on rivers, some of the most important ports reached by ocean going vessels being located far inland. A few of our ports own or are in a position to acquire the bulk of their waterfront by public ownership. These are Oakland, San Francisco, Los Angeles, San Diego, Sacramento and Stockton.

According to the report, the most noteworthy progress made in recent years in port development has been shown by the leading ports of the Pacific coast—San Francisco and Oakland, Seattle, Los Angeles, Portland, Tacoma and San Diego. The report also dwells at some length upon the increasing influence of the federal government upon port development. This is attributed to the fact that the government contributes large sums for improving harbors, thus placing in the hands of Congress an important though indirect power.

TWO BOATS ARE IN FOR REPAIRS.

General repairs are being made on the lumber schooner Salvator at the Hanlon drydock.

General inspection and minor repairs are being made on the Standard oil tanker Dispatch No. 2 at the Pacific shipyards.

Note—In the above tabulations of the tides the daily tides are given in the order of their occurrence, commencing with the early morning tide in the left-hand column and the succeeding tides as they occur. On some days but three tides occur, the fourth occurring the following morning.

The columns of heights give the elevation of each tide above or below the level of Coast Survey chart sounding. The numbers are always additive to the chart depths, unless preceded by a minus sign, or dash (-), when the numbers are subtracted from the depths given on the chart.

WOMAN ENDS LIFE AFTER QUARREL

Wife of Monticello Rancher Takes Poison During Night.

NAPA, May 24.—Following a quarrel with her husband, Mrs. Stella McCray, 24 years of age, committed suicide by swallowing strychnine at her home at Monticello, twenty-six miles north of this city. She had threatened to end her life during the day.

Shortly before 10 o'clock the woman retired to her room. A few minutes later she swallowed the poison and expired before a physician could be summoned. Hearing her groans her husband, who had been sleeping in an adjoining bedroom, hastened to her side, finding her in convulsions.

McCray is foreman of a large ranch here and his wife was a member of a well-known pioneer family. There are no children.

NEW YORK LEADS.

New York's combined export and import business as reported by the Department of Trade and Commerce exceeds that of London by $200,000,000 and shows a total of $2,125,000,000. Exports are put at $1,194,000,000 and imports at $931,000,000. London imports were larger at $1,232,000,000, but her exports amounted to only $696,000,000.

Other ports, in the order of their importance, are: Hamburg, Antwerp, Liverpool, Marseilles and Havre.

EARLY OPERATIONS ARE REACTIONARY

Issues Which Have Been Displaying Greatest Strength Make Losses.

NEW YORK, May 24.—Today's early operations showed a further reactionary trend, particularly in those issues which recently displayed greatest strength.

Reading recorded an initial decline of 1¾ points at 107½, subsequently going lower. Most other active rails were slightly lower, with the exception of New York Central.

United States Steel made a small fractional advance, with gains of a point or more for Crucible Steel, General Electric, Baldwin Locomotive and Continental Can.

Motors were again prominent at gains of two to five points.

Profit taking and short selling combined to depress prices before the end of the first half hour.

Reading was the center of concerted attacks during the forenoon, falling to 104¾, a decline of six points from its record price made only the day before. Other rails, Rock Island excepted, suffered. Oils, motors and equipments were variably higher. Chandler Motors rose 4¾ to the new high record of 106, with gains of one to three points in Mexicans and some of the munitions. These advances were largely surrendered on continuous realizing sales before noon. Bonds were firm.

The decline was checked in the early afternoon, Reading rallying almost two points, with greater firmness in other rails. Meantime activity in specialties, mainly equipments and Metals, was resumed at substantial advances.

Reading displayed fresh weakness in the final hour, with further declines in other rails, while specialties yielded much of their advantage. The closing was heavy.

AMERICAN STOCKS IN LONDON.

Movements of representative American stocks on the London Stock Exchange today included the following: Declines—Atchison, ⅝; Canadian Pacific, 1¼; Erie, ⅜; Southern Railway, ¼; Southern Pacific, ¼; Union Pacific, ⅝; United States Steel, ⅜.

PROFESSIONAL COMMENT.

Baruch Bros.—While it is probable that nothing better than a trading market will develop pending the final settlement of the railway labor problem and the outcome of the republican convention is definitely known the tendency of prices is toward higher levels.

Clark, Childs & Co.—Early news regarding the Reading advance is expected in some good quarters.

Hayson Stone.—In perhaps the majority of speculative issues readjustment may spell lower prices, in others it may mean higher figures.

E. F. Hutton & Co.—Motor stocks are strong on talk of a combine headed by General Motors, United Motors, Chevrolet and others.

N. Y. Financial News Bureau—There is a strong inclination observed among office traders and outsiders in the country to buy low prices railroad issues. Some of the big operators who have been following the bull move are taking profits and a few have been hedging by sales of industrials in the belief that the straddle will be profitable during the expected cross currents incidental to readjustment indicated by diverging conditions underlying rails and industrials.

NEW YORK STOCK RANGE.

DAMAGE REPORTS BRING PRICES UP

Increasing Complaints Regarding Crops Come in From Eastern States.

CHICAGO, May 24.—Increasing complaints of crop damage in Oklahoma and Southern Kansas resulted today in higher prices for wheat. Opening prices, which ranged from ⅜@⅝c higher, with July at $1.09⅜@1.09¼ to $1.09¾ and September at $1.10⅛@1.10⅜, were followed by a slight reaction and then a substantial fresh advance.

Indiana reports of Hessian fly damage tended further to handicap the bears. Extreme gains, however, were not held. The market closed unsettled, ⅜@⅝c net higher with July at $1.09⅝@1.09⅞ and September at $1.10⅝.

Corn rose with wheat. After opening a shade off to ⅛c higher, prices continued almost uniformly upgrade.

Less favorable weather resulted in additional gains in corn. The close though was nervous at ⅜@⅝c net advance.

Oats symnathized with the upturn in other cereals.

Higher quotations on hogs caused provisions to mount.

COAST MARKETS.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 24.—Wheat, easy. Barley—Weak; December, $1.82½.

FOREIGN MARKETS.

Australia—Further moderate rains have caused an improvement in wheat prospects. Olders still firm.

Argentine—Weather favors seeding wheat and oats. Offers to U K very light and prices higher.

Exports sales of cash wheat at seaboard yesterday were one million mostly Manitobas.

EXPERT OPINION.

Ware and Lelane—Technical condition could cause a considerable recovery in prices in wheat. We believe lower prices will be witnesses in corn market. Believe oats will work lower.

Lainson Bros. & Co.—Some rally should naturally appear after so long a decline in wheat. Stocks continue to increase and crop reports outside of the southwest are bearish.

EFFECT OF WAR ON U. S. TRADE

Exports and Imports Have Reached Some Totals Almost Beyond Belief.

Henry Clews, New York's veteran financier, points out some staggering facts concerning the war and its effect on American commerce. "The effect of the war on our foreign trade," he says, "can be realized by the fact that between its commencement in 1914 and the end of last March, our exports have reached the stupendous total of nearly $4,000,000,000. Our imports during the same period were almost $1,000,000,000, so that the excess exports during the war period have been approximately $3,000,000,000. In addition we exported $71,000,000 of silver, net, and our net imports of gold were over $120,000,000. How is this huge indebtedness being adjusted? Credit and loans have been granted upon a gigantic scale, while the return of securities, of which there has been no accurate estimate, must also have been enormous in volume; very large sums still being in the hands of local financial institutions as collateral. It is well known that American railroads, whose wants have lately been put at $1,000,000,000 yearl, have made unusually small security issues, for the reason that the ordinary investment demand for railroad issues seems to have been amply satisfied by foreign offerings, besides which the high rates now commanded by capital discouraged new applications. Thus far our merchandise exports show no symptoms of abating. The shipmetns last week from New York amounted to $37,000,000 and since the first of January have reached $906,000,000, compared with $496,000,000 a year ago. The British blockade is showing its effects by practically an entire stoppage of shipments to the Central Powers, and also by a large diminution in the exports to neutral countries antiguous to the Central Powers. In March the exports to Holland were only $10,000,000, a decrease of $18,000,000 compared with a year ago, and exports to Denmark were $6,000,000, a decrease of $6,000,000, while the exports to Sweden were $4,000,000, a decrease of $14,000,000. In this connection it may be mentioned that the United States is not the only neutral nation that has made big profits out of the war, Japan, Holland, Denmark and Sweden having also benefited largely."

BERKELEY HOLIDAY AFFECTS MARKET

Arrivals Include All Manner of Earliest Fruits and Produce at Lower Prices.

Closing of all stores in Berkeley had its effect on the local wholesale produce market this morning and business dragged. The market is fairly well stocked with the newest varieties of fruits and produce, lowering in price daily. Demand is good, but the high price of sugar has had its effect in fruit sales, especially of the sort that require much sweetening. The new fruits today included a few peaches, which were scarcely of quotable quality, but on which a price has been placed of $1.75 a crate. There were also some new green apples from Sacramento of very good quality, which found a ready market at 75 to 90 cents a box.

Strawberries were cheaper, the top price at which very few sold being $5 a chest down to $3.50. Blackberries were plentiful, but the demand is light. Prices range from 75 cents to $1 a crate. Raspberries were cheaper, very fine quality berries selling around 50 cents a drawer. Gooseberries are plentiful at 5½ to 6½ cents a pound in bulk and are of fine quality.

Cucumbers are cheaper, the local article coming in and bringing down prices. Good cucumbers are now obtainable at 40 and 50 cents a box.

Green peas are scarce and high, selling around $3.50 a sack. A few green onions came in from San Leandro and brought $1.25 a box.

Watermelons are coming in more freely and are to be had at from 6 to 10 cents a pound.

Rail Board Consents to Gas Company Plan

The Railroad Commission formally consented yesterday to the plan of the Southern California Edison Company to dispose of its gas properties in Southern California to the Southern Counties Gas Company. The deal also includes the plant of the Long Beach Consolidated Gas Company, which has been controlled by the Edison.

The Southern Counties Company pays $1,050,000 for the Edison plants and $360,000 for the Long Beach property.

The Commission made an order allowing the Southern Counties Company to issue $2,500,00 in 5 per cent twenty-year bonds and preferred stock amounting to $660,000. These issues must net $3,000,000. After paying for the new purchases, the Southern Counties Company will have $1,000,000, of which $948,500 will be used for paying off the present bonded indebtedness.

STOCK AND BOND EXCHANGE

Investment securities sold at strong prices on the San Francisco Stock and Bond Exchange this morning. Pacific Tel. and Tel. 5s brought 100⅝, an eighth higher; Pacific Electric Railway 90 and Pacific Light and Power 5s 96½, three-eighths higher. United Railroads of San Francisco 4s were active and stronger, selling at 34¾, a half higher.

Spring Valley Water gained an eighth to 59⅛, and Pacific Lighting Corporation preferred was off a quarter to 82.

Sugar plantation stocks held at about the same levels, except for an advance of a quarter in Hawaiian Sugar to 50¾.

The stock market was quiet and narrow.

OIL AND MINING STOCKS

Irregularity in every list marked the morning session of the San Francisco Stock Exchange, with declines exceeding gains. There was some activity in the Comstocks, with the result that Jacket sold down six points to 6 and Sierra Nevada gained one after many sales, with Union Con showing a gain of seven points to 73.

Fair activity in the Goldfields left the list about as it started, except for a gain of two in Florence at 47.

The Tonopahs changed little as a result of the trading. Offers of Tonopah Extension at $6.90 found no buyers. West End gained two and a half to $1.17½ and Macnamara sold off three cents to 10.

Big Jim was as irregular as usual and at the end of the session was two and a half points up. Black Range of the Oatmans was two off.

BUSINESS BRIEFS.

Cable advices from Athens are to the effect that the governmental committee which has just been formed for the purpose of securing and distributing necessities of life in Greece has, as its first act, sent a steamer to New York to obtain petroleum, which at the moment is one of the things in greatest demand in Greece.

Ohio Oil Company announced advance in price of Wooster crude oil of 10c a barrel to $2, but has made no change in prices of other grades.

British underwriters have reduced premium on sea war risks by ½ of 1 per cent as result of smaller number of British ships sunk during last fortnight and the German promise to the United States on methods of submarine warfare.

White Star Line shows a profit of last year, after providing for excess profit tax and other contingencies, of $3,521,126.

FINANCIAL FLASHES.

Detroit manufacturers urge Republican delegates to vote for Roosevelt.

Fifty thousand bituminous coal miners in Pittsburg district quit work as result of dissatisfaction over recent wage agreement.

British government intervenes in reorganization of Merchant Marine, insisting that agreement with late J. P. Morgan as to personnel of the board be kept.

Credit of ten billion marks which Reichstag will soon be asked to vote will bring total credits voted up to fifty billion marks.

Demand sterling $4.76.

TONOPAH EXTENSION REPORT.

Tonopah Extension Mining Co. has issued its report for the year ending March 31, 1916. Income account follows: Gross receipts, $1,496,564; expenses, taxes, depreciation, etc., $925,105; net profits, $571,459; interest received on investment and bank balance, $12,963; total profits, $584,422; dividends, $412,497; surplus, $171,925; previous surplus, $667,687; total surplus, $839,812.

TO INSURE EMPLOYEES.

The firm of E. F. Hutton & Company, which has an Oakland office and operates in practically all the great cities of the continent, announces a plan to insure the lives of all its employees for the benefit of their families for a sum equal to a year's salary in each case. There are over eight hundred persons in the employ of the company.

GRAPHITE OUTPUT INADEQUATE.

Increased manufacture of munitions greatly stimulated the graphite industry in the United States in 1915, but in spite of this activity the output of American mines are wholly inadequate to meet domestic demands. Still greater production is expected this year. The increase for 1915 was 1,850,000 pounds, as reported by the United States Geological Survey.

EMBARGO BY NORWAY.

An embargo has been placed on mackerel, fresh, smoked, salted, preserved, and canned, and on platinum and platinum waste, by Norwegian government. (Cablegram from American Consul General, Christiania, May 15.)

Pacific Gas and Electric Earnings

Total gross operating revenue of the Pacific Gas & Electric Company as given in its report for April issued today decreased $25,575.35. The totals were for April $1,486,527.98 and for the same month of last year, $1,512,103.34. But it is pointed out, the total gross operating revenue from the Exposition in April, 1915 was $54,212.91 which should be excluded when there would be left an increase for last month of $28,637.56.

Total net income was decreased by $53,492.95, the totals being $627,481.57 for April of the present year and $680,974.52 for the same month of 1915. This decrease is subject to the same explanation.

Expenses were increased through the expenditure in April 1916 of $25,559.45 more for current maintenance than in April of preceding year, also by setting aside $10,000 more as a reserve for depreciation in conformity with the company's policy of making this reserve $1,500,000 for the current year as compared with $1,380,000 during the year 1915.

For the first four months of the present year the total operating revenue was $6,364,435.87 as compared with $6,261,429.97, or an increase of $103,005.70. Total net income is given as $2,864,163.71 as compared with $2,865,895.02 for the first four months of 1915, a decrease of $1,731.31.

For the twelve months ended April 30, the total gross operating revenue was $18,533,306.74 as compared with $17,448,235.31, an increase of $1,185,071.43. Total net income for the twelve months was $8,356,855.99 as compared with $7,629,640.46 or an increase of $727,215.53.

Tonopah-Belmont Buying B. C. Mine

Negotiations are pending for the purchase of the Queen mine, near Salmo, B. C., by the Tonopah-Belmont interests for $300,000. The Queen group is one of the most promising gold properties of the Sheep creek region, and has been an important producer for nearly a quarter of a century.

If the Tonopah-Belmont Co. exercises its option to purchase the Queen, as there is every reason to believe that it will, that property will be the second British Columbia gold mine to be acquired by the Tonopah Co., as it recently purchased for $212,000 cash a four-fifths interest in the Surf Inlet mine in the Coast district near Prince Rupert, which it is now equipping with a large mill.

Sunset T. & T. to Pass Out of Existence

The old Sunset Telephone and Telegraph Company, predecessor of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company, is to pass out of existence if the Railroad Commission gives its sanction to a joint application made by both corporations today. The company asserts that the sale by the Sunset Company to the Pacific Company, is desirable because all of the properties are being operated by the latter, which is charged with responsibility for the management of the Sunset property. The Sunset ceased operating January 2, 1907 and is owned in its entirety by the Pacific Company, the total capital stock being $15,000,000. The consideration given for the sale is $10.

Grimes began his career as a dishwasher and died a multi-millionaire.

One Hundred Children to Receive Communion

SAN LEANDRO, May 24. — One hundred children will receive communion at St. Leander's Catholic church Sunday morning at 8 o'clock.

Closing exercises of the convent school will be held Wednesday, May 31. Archbishop Edward J. Hanna will present the diplomas and will address the pupils. Rev. Francis Garvey will also give an address and the children will present a musical program.

Ethel Barrymore at the Franklin in New Film Play

ETHEL BARRYMORE.

Ethel Barrymore, the charming and gifted dramatic star, is appearing at the Franklin theater in "The Kiss of Hate," a powerful drama of Russian life. This production is the first film play in which Miss Barrymore has appeared this season, and her return to the screen will be welcomed by many admirers.

It is a well-known fact that Miss Barrymore is one of the foremost members of an illustrious family who have made history on the American stage. She is a daughter of Maurice Barrymore, one of the greatest actors of his time, and a sister of Lionel and John Barrymore. She is also a niece of John and Sidney Drew. Miss Barrymore received her early training under her uncles, John and Sidney Drew, and it was not long before she was a full-fledged star on Broadway and known from one end of the country to the other.

In "The Kiss of Hate" Miss Barrymore has a role that is especially suited to her marvelous dramatic gifts. She is given the fullest opportunity to display the emotional powers which have won for her so high a place on the American stage.

"The Beggar of Cawnpore" is the title of the other feature of this big double bill. It is a Triangle production, in which H. B. Warner has the leading part. Both pictures will be at the Franklin the remainder of the week.

LOVE LETTERS TO BE OFFERED JURY

Orpet Case Exhausts Five Venires; City Men Are Now Summoned.

WAUKEGAN, Ill., May 24.—The sixth venire summoned for examination as jurors in the case of Will Orpet, University of Wisconsin student charged with the murder of his sweetheart, Marion Lambert, appeared in court today. Most of the 636 men examined so far have been residents of rural communities and practically all of them have secured their release from jury duty by professing a fixed opinion on the case or by failure to pass a so-called "educational test." In an attempt to expedite the jury selection the new venire has been drawn from residents of the city in the hope that they will prove less opinionated and more able to pass the requirements of the attorneys. Bankers, merchants, professional men and other more or less prominent persons were in the new venire.

State's Attorney Ralph Dady has denied that he had the bottle which contained the poison that killed Marion Lambert.

A report that State's Attorney Dady had formed a compact with Celeste Youkers, the school teacher to whom Orpet was reported to be engaged, in an effort to obtain a confession from the defendant, was denied by Dady. According to the story circulated, the girl wrote Orpet that her letter were to be read in court and asked him to confess so that she might be saved the humiliation attendant upon the reading of the correspondence in the courtroom. Orpet was said to have replied that he could not confess, as he was not guilty.

Figures Best for Bus Signs, Is Declared

NEW YORK, May 24.—Months of psychological experiments to discover the best form of sign to indicate destination has convinced one of the most important automobile bus companies here that New Yorkers had better memory for figures than for letters or colors.

For a long time the buses carried signs of different colors. These were discarded for signs the distinguishing features of which were different capital letters. Now the buses carry large numbers to show the various routes and the company claims that patrons find it easier to remember the meaning of these figures than of the colors or letters.

AUTO FOR PASTOR.

SAN LEANDRO, May 24.—Funds to purchase an automobile for Rev. James Vladomat, pastor of All Saints' church, will be raised by a series of entertainments given by the parishioners. The first of these, a whist party, will be held Friday evening. There will be 125 tables and the affair will be one of the largest social functions to be held in the parish.

After Thirty Years Can't Find Old Wharf

SAN FRANCISCO, May 24.—Thirty years ago a boy slipped aboard a windjammer here and ran away to sea. Today R. A. Lucas, that same boy, now a prosperous merchant of Honolulu, returned and with his wife walked down the gangplank of the liner Wilhelmina on his first visit to this country since he left it. He hunted along the waterfront for the spot where he sailed, but was unable to find it.

Do Not Invest Less Than $250 in a New Piano

¶ A good Piano cannot be sold new for less than $250. It requires good materials, skilled labor, exclusive patents and expert knowledge to create a good Piano. All these elements cost.

¶ Those offered new at less than $250 are "near" Pianos, built trashily and sold trashily. Long before the payments are up the "near" Piano proves a disappointment as a musical instrument. If you do not care to expend $250, it is far better to buy a "used" or "second-hand" piano of good make—we carry very good "used" instruments at very reasonable prices.

¶ We cannot and will not sell trash. We are known to carry only what is good, what will endure and what is worth the price asked.

SAYS HIS WIFE INHERITED DIVORCE

Cites Codicil of Will to Prove Father-in-Law's Request.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 24.—A charge that his wife brought a suit for divorce against him because of a desire that she do so was contained in a codicil of the will of her father who died on February 1, and that it was his alienating of her affections that has caused the disruption of their home, is made today by J. S. Minick, wealthy farmer and stockraiser of Washita county, Oklahoma, in an answer to the suit of Mrs. Mable Minick. In the course of his review of his history of the family troubles during the last two years, Minick maintains that his troubles began when he went to the rescue of his brother-in-law, who had become involved in civil difficulties with the courts, went on his bond and was promised the return of $10,000 by his father-in-law, H. N. Berry. Berry, who died February 5, was also heavily interested in Oklahoma and his estates of $100,000 is in the course of probate in the San Mateo county court, he having passed away at Rockaway Beach, California.

Minick charges that in February of last year, after he had gone to the rescue of young Berry and was expecting the return of the $10,000 his wife received a telegram from her father, asking her to join him at Rockaway beach. She took with her a daughter, Lois, aged 6, leaving with him a 15-year-old daughter Lucile. He claims that the telegram was a subterfuge on the part of her father to bring about a separation. In her complaint Mrs. Minick charges her husband with trying to burn down her house over her head and other acts of cruelty. The couple wedded in Iowa, October 18, 1893, and besides the two daughters mentioned, have a married daughter, Mrs. Jessie Corson.

Contractor's Wife Denies Allegations

SAN FRANCISCO, May 24.—Denying undue affection for alcoholic beverages and declaring by way of cross-complaint that her husband threatened to kill her because she refused to turn over to him letters written by other women, and intercepted by her, Mrs. Annie Matilda Madden this morning made answer to the divorce complaint of P. H. Madden, a contractor of 1527 Jerrold avenue. She wants a divison of the community property and the custody of a minor child now in the hands of the paternal grandmother.

WOMEN TO ENTERTAIN.

SAN LEANDRO, May 24.—The women of St. Leander's parish will give a whist party in St. Joseph's hall this evening. In charge of the affair is a committee consisting of Mrs. J. H. Garcia, chairman; Mrs. L. J. Toffelmier, Mrs. L. McCarthy, Mrs. F. C. Stoakes, Miss J. Goodman, Miss Annie and Miss K. Gill.

RECOMMENDS CHAMBERLAIN'S.

"I take pleasure in recommending Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, having used it in my family for the past thirteen years. I have tried other remedies, but Chamberlain's is the only one that ever gave me permanent relief. We are never without it even when on a visit or summer outing, and I cannot say too much in praise of it," writes Emerson Demerec, Harpursville, N. Y. For sale by Osgood Bros.
